Our 1999 North Carolina Annual Conference Emphasis

JOINING HEARTS AND HANDS

These days of Annual Conference will focus upon the theme, "Joining Hearts and Hands," as we continue to respond to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty. This theme phrase from The Book of Discipline (¶ 60, page 45) reminds us that the warmed heart and the extended hand are inseparably intertwined. The love of God is always linked with the love of neighbor.

As United Methodists, we join heart and hand in these days as we worship and celebrate, as together we discern God's leading, and as we set apart persons for particular ministries. May the Holy Spirit move among us, granting the unity Christ offers and sending us forth as bearers of Christ's mission in the world.

MARION M. EDWARDS

Conference Proceedings

1999 ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAM (DAILY AGENDA)

Theme: JOINING HEARTS AND HANDS

These days of Annual Conference will focus upon the theme, "Joining Hearts and Hands," as we continue to respond to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty. This theme phrase from The Book of Discipline (§ 60, page 45) reminds us that the warmed heart and the extended hand are inseparably intertwined. The love of God is always linked with the love of a neighbor.

As United Methodists, we join heart and hand in these days as we worship and celebrate, as together we discern God's leading, and as we set apart persons for particular ministries. May the Holy Spirit move among us, granting the unity Christ offers and sending us forth as bearers of Christ's mission in the world.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

EXECUTIVE SESSION

OF THE 1998 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Wednesday, June 9, 1999

Executive Session for All Clergy: Bishop Marion M. Edwards called the 174th session of the Annual Conference to order at 6:00 p.m. He announced a word of clarification by instructing lay persons present in the Executive Session that they were to meet in the Cumberland County Arena for the Lay Session. Caswell Shaw led the clergy in the singing, then the Bishop explained the purpose of the Executive Session as set forth in The Book of Discipline.

Motion: The Bishop explained the voting rights of members in full connection, and those who require special permission by the Executive Session to be present. The Bishop requested that a motion be made to allow those preparing for ordained ministry and non-clergy guests to be present. A motion was made, seconded, and approved.

The Bishop discussed the issue of the authority held in the Office of Bishop and in the Executive Session.

Passing of the Character of the Clergy: The Bishop explained the purpose and meaning of passing the character of the clergy. The District Superintendents were instructed to stand as Bishop Edwards declared them blameless in their life and official administration. The Executive Session passed the character of the District Superintendents.

The District Superintendents were called upon to pass the character of the clergy in their respective districts. All District Superintendents reported nothing against the clergy in their respective districts. The Bishop asked the Executive Session to approve the life and official administration of the clergy of the NC Conference. It was approved.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Edwards expressed his appreciation for the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry. He called Roger Elliott, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, to present the report.

Elliott explained the work of the board and the difficult choices that sometimes entail. He trusted that the work of the board was representative of the work of the Holy Spirit. Elliott thanked the board for its work, and especially the contributions of Robbie Barrett and Belton Joyner. He described the work and leadership of the two divisions and the committees of the board. The reports of these divisions and committees are contained in the Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Elliott referred to Executive Session to the "ERRATA Annual Report" sheet and designated it as part of the report. Committee chairpersons were thanked for their monumental and second-mile efforts.

The Executive Session was directed to page 3. Susan L. Allred and Charles M. Cook were listed as nominees for the Board of Managers, Pastors School and Convocation. Paul Leeland was replaced by Lisa Brown Cole on the Administrative Review Committee. The executive session approved

Elliott referred to Question 33, "Who are elected as deacons in full connection?" These persons are under the transitional provisions for diaconal ministers. Each candidate was asked to stand before the Executive Session. The Bishop asked the candidates the Historic Questions specific to the Order of Deacons in Full Connection. Each responded appropriately. The Bishop called for a standing vote, and the candidates were approved by the required 2/3 majority vote. There were no dissenting votes. The members of the session rose to sing "I Am Thine, O Lord."

Elliott referred to Question 35, "Who are elected and ordained Elders in Full Connection under the 1992 Book of Discipline?" These candidates were presented to the Bishop, who in turn asked the candidates the Historic Questions specific to the Order of Elders in Full Connection. Each responded appropriately. The Bishop called for their election, and they were approved. The vote was unanimous. The members of the session stood and sang "This Is the Day the Lord Has Made." The Bishop led in prayer on behalf of those elected as Elders and Deacons.

The Executive Session was directed to Question 19: those listed as receiving a certificate of candidacy, and Question 20: those who have completed the studies for licenses as a local pastor, but not now appointed. No changes were made and no action was required. The Bishop called for a vote on those listed under Questions 21& 22. They were approved. The answer to question 23 (resident or local pastors) was "none."

Elliott then referred the Executive Session to Question 24 which requires no action. The Bishop invited those persons from other Annual Conferences and Methodist denominations serving in the NC Conference to stand. He then welcomed them to the Executive Session and to the Annual Conference.

Those listed under Question 25 were presented for approval. The Bishop called for the vote, and they were approved. Those listed in Question 26 required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop called for their election and they were elected.

Elliott addressed Questions 28 & 29 and presented the candidates to Bishop Edwards. The Bishop asked for any questions of the candidates, and called for their approval. They were approved by the Executive Session. The members sang "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Probationary members listed under Question 31 were recognized. The Bishop addressed them briefly and the members encouraged them with applause. Those transferring from other Annual Conferences (Question 39) were recognized and welcomed.

Elliott directed the Executive Session to Question 41, "Who have been elected and ordained deacons under the 1992 Discipline?" The Bishop called for the vote and they were elected.

Amendments were made to those listed under Question 45, concerning those transferring to other Annual Conferences of the UMC.

Members of the session were directed to Question 46. The Bishop asked for the approval of those listed, and they were approved. Elliott then turned to Question 50, "Who have had their conference membership terminated?" Billy Boyd Cuthrell and Troy Kevin Todd were voted on individually and each was approved. John Exley Upham, Jr. and T. Scott Watford were approved under Question 50a. Troy Kevin Todd needed to be removed from Question 46. The Bishop asked for the approval for this change. It was approved.

Those listed under Question 52 were presented and approved. Under Question 53a, Geiselle Thompson received the 2/3 vote required for leave greater than five years. Upon vote of the members, clergy listed on leave of absence under provisions of Question 53 were approved. Clergy listed on family leave under provisions of Question 54 were approved by vote of the members.

Charles Pollock reported for the Committee on Disability. Persons granted disability for the first time and those continuing disability leave under Question 57 were presented. The Bishop addressed the issue and asked the members for approval. They were approved.

Elliott addressed Questions 58, 59, and 61, those retiring or recently retired. The Bishop called for questions. He then asked the Executive Session to approve retirement relationship to those listed and they were approved. Bishop Edwards recognized the new retirees and invited them to stand.

Under Question 77, John Eldred Williams was voted on separately due to his extension beyond the time limit, and he was approved. The Bishop called for a vote on the others listed and they were approved. The Bishop asked the members to approve those appointed to extension ministries under Question 81. They were approved.

Elliott moved approval of item 51 and then approval of the report as a whole. Question 51 was approved.

Motion: The Bishop recognized Robert Pullman to present a motion. Pullman moved: "that the Bishop be asked to appoint a committee to investigate an effective method to communicate throughout the NC Conference with ministers and their spouses and with surviving spouses of ministers, pertinent information concerning deaths of ministers and their spouses and other pastoral concerns to be determined by this committee; that this committee be made up of the Bishop, the Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, one District Superintendent, one minister in the active conference relationship, one retired minister, one spouse of a retired minister; a spouse of a deceased minister, and others whom the Bishop deems appropriate; that this committee determine guidelines as to who will be notified; extent of pastoral family concerns to be included; the cost of this ministry, if any; and any other matters that pertain to the intent of this motion; that CFA be asked to appropriate $500 (five hundred dollars) for the committee's expenses in the coming year; and that this committee will report its findings to the 2000 Session of the Annual Conference."

Pullman explained that there is a breakdown of communication when there is a significant event in the life of a clergy family. Therefore, there is a need for a committee to find a better way to keep the conference informed. The Bishop explained the need to refer to the motion at the appropriate time due to its fiscal implications. He asked for further discussion. There being none, he called for a vote. The motion was approved.

Elliott moved the approval of the report as a whole. Bishop Edwards called for the vote to approve the report. It was approved.

The session rose to recognize those clergy and their spouses who have died since our last meeting. Their names were read in order. The Bishop led the singing of "Rejoice in the Saints."

Adjournment: The Bishop dismissed the Executive Session at 7:43 pm. Members were reminded to return at 8:00 pm for Worship with a plenary session to follow.

UMM President, Bruce Keyser, UMW President, Jeanne Rouse, UMY President, Albert Meyer, were introduced, then detailed balloting instructions were given by Anna Gail Workman.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION, Wednesday, June 9, 1999

Worship Service: Bishop Marion Edwards presided and the guest preacher was Bishop Ernest A. Fitzgerald.

Plenary Session: The Conference began with the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive." Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order at 8:58 pm for the business session. He announced a net gain of almost 2,000 members this past year in our Conference.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: J. Alex Maultsby III, Vice-Chairperson, presented the report of the Committee on Conference Rules. Maultsby reported changes to the Conference Rules of Order and Procedure as printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1999. Change line 47, page 12, to read "tellers will collect the ballots." Amend line 1, page 16 by replacing the word "second" with "Friday."

Laurie Hays Coffman, Calvary (DU), moved that we amend or suspend the Conference Rules of Order when dealing with these resolutions seeking this body's approval for recommendation to General Conference. For those matters only, may we be permitted a period of dialogue--but not debate. May we agree to submit those recommendations to General Conference not by voting which creates winners & losers but rather by designating tables where signatures may be affixed to these resolutions." The Coffman motion was seconded.

Point of Order: James Coile, Retired (NB), raised a point of order. He referred to the Book of Discipline ¶507.7. The NC Conference can vote to suspend its rules, but may not suspend the Book of Discipline.

Bishop Edwards ruled that the Conference had the right to approve alternate means of discussing and presenting resolutions. Speeches were made against the amendment to the rules. The Bishop called for the vote on the Coffman motion to suspend the rules. The Coffman motion was defeated.

Question: Robert O'Keef, Mt. Sylvan (DU), raised a question regarding the 30 day limit for the submission of resolutions and the 24 hour advance presentation prior to Conference vote. Jerry Bryan explained why the 24 hour rule was implemented.

O'Keef moved that the sentence beginning 'Resolutions presented...' (Line 57, page 15, Section VI2) be omitted.

Alan Woodlief, Sunrise (RA), offered an amendment to the motion. O'Keef accepted the amendment to insert the words "shall, if possible." Steve Hickle, Fairmont (RA), spoke. The motion was then clarified to delete lines 57-67. Harry Talley, Franklinton (RA), was recognized to speak. Jerry Bryan read the section that was proposed to be deleted. The vote was taken, and the motion failed.

Maultsby moved the adoption of the rules as a whole, and they were adopted.

Balloting Procedures for General and Jurisdictional Conference Delegates: Conference Secretary, James Bryan, instructed the Conference on balloting procedures for the General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates. He directed the Conference to the printed instructions on pages 17-20 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1999.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, announced that the communion offering on Thursday morning will be received for the Habitat for Humanity house that will be built by volunteers from the Fayetteville District. Also, the requests for our shuttle service have exceeded the space we have available for the shuttle. Since we were able to acquire the use of two buses only for our shuttle service, we must encourage everyone to car pool as much as possible to alleviate this shuttle service problem. Bishop Fitzgerald gave the benediction and the session concluded at 9:46 pm.

The UMW of the NC Conference had raised more than $438,000 for missions in 1998.

On behalf of the Methodist Home for Children, Safley thanked the UMW for their support and for the fine quilts.

Hicks, Chairperson of the Task Force, presented the video "Now Is the Time," and gave his report on the work of the church in reaching children. He praised churches who were meeting the needs of the people, sharing bread and the bread of life in Christ. He urged the members to attend "The Ministry Fair" on Saturday for ministries beyond the local church. He encouraged each member to read and comment upon the booklet, Beyond the Four Walls.

Good News Moment: The Bishop announced the first "Good News Moment," and Chuck Cook led the Conference in the singing of "Weave Us Together." Tom Newman, La Grange (GO), Billie Anderson and Lucille Sutton shared La Grange UMC's response to the Bishops' Initiative. As a result of the church's desire to "stay alive" and the Bishops' Initiative, the church began a day care for children. The day care not only reached the children of the area, but the church itself has been transformed. The church now defines itself in ministry to children, and the church is growing.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Roger Elliott, Chairperson of the Board, presented a report to the Conference in general about the past year's work of the Board. Elliott made several notations and called on Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries Chairperson, Denise Waters, who recommended, Janet G. Thornton Irvine as Diaconal Minister. Elliott announced two additional changes to the report. He asked the Conference to approve Kelli Walker-Jones for less than full-time appointment, and Jackie Allen Lovell to be continued as a Probationary Member. They were both approved. A certificate was presented on behalf of the Ministerial Education Fund. The fund has benefitted as a result of churches paying a greater percentage of their apportionments. Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Cashar Evans, President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, and J. Allen Norris, Jr. presented the council's report. Evans explained we were voting on the 2001 Budget and that the conference raises 61% of funds to be expended in the following year. The budget reflects a 2.63% increase. Evans directed the Conference to pages 50-63. He referred to increases in mandated areas, and a decrease in the funding of conference programs. He moved the adoption of Items III, IV, and V, which include the district superintendents' salaries. The Bishop called for a vote on the items.

Bryan Sexton, Roseboro (FA), offered an amendment to Item V, line 8-13, page 61, concerning the District Superintendents' Salary. He moved to refer this item to a study. The parliamentarian James Coile stated that the amount must be voted upon and may not be referred. Sexton amended his motion "to recommend the superintendents' salaries remain the same for 2000." The Bishop commented that a large proportion (77.7%) of the budget remains in the NC Conference. He encouraged the members to remind their congregations of how much of their apportioned funds go to the work of the NC Conference.

Report of the Connectional Process Team: Robby Lowry and Anna Gail Workman presented the CPT report. The report consisted of a brochure along with an index card provided to respond to the information in the brochure. Lowry and Workman described the composition and mission of the team. He reminded the conference that there are currently 43 wars ongoing throughout the world. Angola in particular has a war less than 100 miles from the capital. He described how the church is still carrying on, building churches and running mission stations in the midst of the conflict, although some missions have been suspended due to land mines. The church is conducting a mission to make prostheses for land mine victims that now represents the entire prosthesis program in Angola. No matter what the difficulties, the church is constantly developing ministries to meet the needs. He described the work of the GBGM around the world, and especially in those places with the greatest needs and the least exposure to Jesus Christ.

Bishop Edwards responded to Dr. Nugent, relating his own experiences in Angola, and the work of our conference in special ministries around the world.

Bishop Edwards presented four missionaries that have been identified by our Annual Conference for immediate support by the General Board of Global Ministries: Shana Harrison in Chili; Mark and Pat Lykins in Argentina; Steve Taylor in NC at the Robeson County Church and Community Center. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the report, and it was approved.

Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: Robert E. Bergland, Chairperson, presented the report on Equitable Compensation on pages 65-67. Bergland thanked those who supported his work on this committee. He reminded churches that equitable compensation recommendations are beginning points and not maximums. The Bishop asked for the vote to approve the report.

Motion: George Megill, retired (RA), moved "that the dollar amount of the raise voted by this Conference for district superintendents ($3,378) be listed side by side in this Conference Journal with the salary increase voted for the minimum salary pastors ($675). His motion was seconded. The Bishop called for a vote on the motion, and the motion passed.

Amendment: Bryan Sexton, Roseboro (FA), moved "to amend the recommended schedule of minimum compensation for 2000 for pastors under full time appointment to reflect a 4.74% increase, or $1,374, so that the minimum salary for pastors under full time appointment under Section 1, subsection A, of the report be $30,357." The amendment was seconded.

The Bishop stated that the motion had financial implications and must be referred to CFA for evaluation. Bergland indicated that this also would change the student salaries since it is based on a percentage of full-time minimum salary. The Bishop was advised that this would change apportionments and other financial considerations for churches.

Tommy Smith, Fayetteville District Superintendent, indicated the increase places an increased burden on local churches that currently struggle to meet their salary expenditures. John Rainey, First UMC in Henderson (DU), asked for the formula used to compute equitable compensation be explained. Bergland stated that the Conference average raise (approximately 5%) and the consumer price index which is less than 2%.

The Bishop asked Sexton to confer with the Commission on Equitable Compensation and CFA before a final consideration of his amendment.

The Bishop called for a vote on the report as a whole, with the exception of the referred amendment. The report was approved.

The members were directed to pages 87-89 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1999. Southern thanked Bill Sherman, retired (NB), for his organization to receive contributions from retirees, who contributed over $10,000.

The Bishop called attention to Items 1 & 2 of the report, and pointed out that churches must commit to paying 100% of their Pre-1982 Service apportionment. He stated that the seven year plan would not solve the problem totally, but would help greatly. Bishop Edwards encouraged the cooperation of every church and pastor. The Bishop asked for approval of the report, and the report was approved.

Result of Lay Ballot #6: Mack Parker was elected.

Lay Ballot #7: The Bishop called for Lay Ballot #7 to be taken.

Question: Roger Armistead, Shallotte Circuit (WI), asked about the proper placement of labels on the ballot.

David Woodhouse, Oak Grove (DU), moved that invalid ballots that are done in ink, or where the sticker covered a dot but was otherwise valid, be counted. The Bishop responded that the motion would require a suspension of the rules. Woodhouse restated his motion to "delete line 35 & 36 of II.E.1. on page 18 of the Book of Reports. Anna Gail Workman, Diaconal Minister (BU), spoke against the motion. The Bishop called for a vote on the motion, and the motion failed.

Result of Clergy Ballot #8: There were three elections: David Banks, William Presnell, and David Malloy.

Clergy Ballot #9: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #9 to be taken.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Friday evening session to order at 9:05 pm.

The Bishop called upon James Coile, Parliamentarian, to explain the proper voting process. Coile explained that parliamentary procedure would follow Roberts Rules of Order as long as the business does not conflict with the Discipline. Once the Bishop begins the voting procedure, comments from the floor concerning the vote are no longer in order.

Point of Personal Privilege: Brent Laytham, Brookland-Brooksdale (DU), noted the limited female representation of clergy delegates.

Point of Personal Privilege: Peg Witt, Extended Ministries (SA), reminded the clergy that Deacons in Full Connection also are eligible to be clergy delegates.

Result of Clergy Ballot #9: There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #10: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #10 to be taken.

Inclusiveness Report on Cross-Racial Appointments: The Bishop reported on the current status of inclusiveness in appointments in our Annual Conference. The Bishop and the Cabinet, as well as clergy and pastor-parish relations committees in local churches, have been working together to accomplish the goals of the Conference. There are now 27 cross-racial/cultural appointments. The Bishop described some of the appointments and noted that 171 churches in the NC Conference report memberships made up of more than one race/culture. The Bishop stated that the purpose is to accomplish the goal of open itineracy.

Bishop Edwards also stated that we now have a multi-cultural dialogue to address the issues associated with open itineracy. The Bishop commented that the sin of racism is still in the church, and that he is dealing with his own experience of white privilege. He encouraged the church to boldly continue to move forward in eliminating racism. The Cabinet has been asked to develop a resource instrument that will enable local churches to, "open the windows of mission fields in their neighborhoods." The Bishop asked the Conference to think about the Baptistal question, including all ages, nations and races, whether their church is truly implementing that question. This was the second annual inclusiveness celebration.

Report of the Task Force on Conference Structure: Conference Lay Leader Robby Lowry presented the report of the Task Force. Lowry was joined by Albert Shuler, Tom Holtsclaw, Anna Gail Workman, and Susan Pate Greenwood who also participated in the presentation. The purpose of restructuring would allow more latitude in addressing the ministries of the church, and allows more interaction among the various missions and ministries of the church. Throughout this year there will be dialogues in each district, and a report will be brought to the 2000 Annual Conference.

Report of Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee: Chairperson Mary Plummer presented the Committee report printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1999, pages 70-72. She noted changes regarding W-2's and advance payments. She moved to adopt the report as a whole.

Question: James Coile, retired (NB), questioned the legality of moving reimbursement funds paid through a local church. He objected that the moving process is a function of the Conference, and not of the local church. Coile also was concerned that the funds might not be passed on in their entirety by the local church.

Sharon E. Strother, Conference Controller, replied that based on the dual tax status of UM ministers, the Conference preferred to compensate through the local church. Therefore, moving expense reimbursement would be reported on the W-2 issued by the local church to minimize confusion. Kermit Braswell, Raleigh District Superintendent, asked if the Conference could issue a W-2. Strother responded that it could.

Amendment: Braswell moved "that lines 30-37 be amended to return to the previous plan with the use of a W-2 issued by the Conference Treasurer, and that lines 59-61 be amended so that the Conference provides the W-2." Braswell was concerned that local treasurers might not understand the process which may cause reimbursements to be delayed or denied.

Strother responded that the IRS preferred that issues of employment be consolidated with the local church. Clark Barfield, Pink Hill-Beulaville (GR), supported the Braswell motion, and suggested that the Conference move toward becoming the employer. The Bishop called for the vote and it was passed.

The report was presented as a whole for adoption, and it was adopted.

Rufus Butner, Cobb Circuit (BU), asked for clarification. It was explained that a W-2 will be issued by the Conference.

Result of Lay Ballot #9: Emily Innes was elected. This completed the General Conference Lay Delegation. The Lay Ballot for Jurisdictional Lay Delegates was delayed until Saturday morning.

Result of Clergy Ballot #10: Sam Wynn was elected.

Clergy Ballot #11: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #11 to be taken.

Adjournment: Dr. Jack Hunter gave the benediction. The Bishop adjourned the Conference for the evening at 10:11 pm.

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 12, 1999

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the Saturday morning session at 8:25 am.

Good News Moment: The Bishop recognized the Reverend Julia Webb-Bowden to bring a good news moment. Webb-Brown spoke of the wonderful work the United Methodists have done with the Society of St. Andrew Potato Project. The Conference responded with the chorus "Weave."

Point of Personal Privilege: Rufus Carraway, Plymouth (EC), rose for a point of personal privilege. He spoke of the work that the Society of St. Andrew is doing in conjunction with Food Lion in his area.

Patti Arms, Bunn-Hill King Circuit (RA), raised concerns over the method of voting. She suggested that the method tends to minimize the influence of minority votes. She moved, that a single vote/ballot be taken for General Conference, one for laity, one for the clergy. the top 10 candidates in this ballot will be sent to General Conference. Only in this way will we not give comparable influence to the majority; only in this way will we not diminish the voice of the minority; only in this way can we truly be represented, and be able to have true debate.

The Bishop ruled her motion out of order since it violates both the rules of the Conference and the Book of Discipline. He recommended that she put her recommendation in writing and submit it to the Rules Committee.

Point of Personal Privilege: Gayle Felton, Extended Ministries (DU), pointed out that the questionnaire passed out to members of the Conference is not an official document of the Conference, but the work of a small group with a specific theological agenda.

Point of Personal Privilege: Gail Ward, Falling Creek (GO), rose to defend the right of members to know where candidates stand on specific issues.

Greg Jenks, Christ Community (RA), moved for the program committee to provide a forum for the discussion of the views of potential candidates to future General Conferences. He explained that the survey referred to by Felton was designed to create dialogue.

Anna Gail Workman, Diaconal Minister (BU), suggested that the Program Committee provide a forum for potential candidates.

James Coile, Parliamentarian, reminded the Conference that an Annual Conference cannot become involved in the election process prior to the Annual Conference. A group other than the Annual Conference or an individual may construct a survey instrument or develop a forum between sessions, but the Conference may not do so. Therefore, the Jenks motion was not in order.

Jenks withdrew his motion. At the suggestion of the Bishop, he would place his recommendation in the Suggestion Box.

Result of Clergy Ballot #11: There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #12: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #12 to be taken.

Lay Ballot #10: The Bishop described the process for Lay Ballot #10 for Jurisdictional Conference. He read the listings from the last General Conference ballot results.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions & Reference: Alan Swartz, Chairperson, introduced the following 12 resolutions to be voted on by the Conference: (1) Opposing a State Lottery, (2) Concerning a Livable Wage, (3) Keeping Peace With Justice Sunday, (4) Debt Relief for Central America, (5) Clergy Leave of Absence, (6) Petition to 2000 General Conference to Amend Voting membership in ¶ 502, The Book of Discipline, (7) Opposition to Changing Wording of Division One, ¶ Article IV, The Book of Discipline, (8) Opposition to Changing ¶65G in the Social Principles, (9) To Maintain the Social Principles, (10) To Amend the Preamble to the Social Principles, (11) To Amend ¶68F, Criminal Justice, and (12) To Amend The Book of Discipline's ¶65J on Abortion.

Motion: Alan Swartz moved "to limit debate to 3 minutes per person." The Bishop noted that the motion requires a 2/3 vote. The motion passed.

Petitions #1 and #2: Swartz stated that the document authored by James Coile had been distributed to the Conference on Thursday. This document pertains to two petitions: Judicial Council Declaratory Decision on ¶602 and Judicial Council Declaratory Decision on Two Classes of Full Connection.

Resolution 1, Opposing a State Lottery: This resolution was placed before the Conference for approval. It was approved with no debate.

Resolution 2, Concerning a Livable Wage: This was placed before the Conference. Henry Jarrett, Fairmont (RA), yielded to Ben Sharpe, Cornerstone (FA), for a friendly amendment.

Amendment: Sharpe moved to add "after the first 'whereas,' Whereas the Holy Scriptures reveal that disciples of Jesus Christ are accountable to God to provide those in their employ a just wage and declares in James 5:4, 'Look! The wages you failed to pay the workmen who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty.'" Jarrett accepted the amendment.

Question: Quinton Covington, Central (RO), raised a question regarding the impact on the Methodist Home for Children, which employs several people at minimum wage. He asked for a definition of minimum wage. Covington stated that "living wage" needs to be defined locally.

Amendment: Billy Olsen, Trenton-Maple Grove (NB), moved to amend the motion by changing line 9 of resolution to read "whereas the best way out of poverty is the will of an individual to work and better themselves. Having a situation of employment that pays well enough...." Add to line 17, "In partnership with government and local business we as a church so make covenant to confront our communities with a consistent message that hard work and individual responsibility are the tools we must take up to break the cycle of poverty so many are trapped in." Covington and Jarrett accepted the amendments.

Bill Jeffries, Murfreesboro (EC), was concerned that the last amendment cast dispersions on low income workers. He moved that we delete the portion after line 17. Olsen countered that raising the minimum wage further limits job opportunities for low income workers. The Bishop called for the vote on the Jeffries motion. There was a recount by standing vote, and the motion failed.

Resolution 2 as amended was then put before the Conference for a vote. The motion passed.

Resolution 3, Keeping Peace With Justice Sunday: This was placed before the Conference. Douglas Richmond, Cary First (RA), asked for an explanation of the resolution. Henry Jarrett addressed Richmond's question. The Bishop explained that this resolution was essentially a petition to General Conference that Peace with Justice Sunday be left standing as a separate Sunday. The Bishop called for the vote on Resolution 3 and it was approved.

Resolution 4, Debt Forgiveness for Central America: The resolution was presented to the Conference.

George Megill, retired (RA), offered a friendly amendment. He moved "that interest payments on the international debts of third world countries be suspended for 5 years in order that payments can be made on the principal can reduce these massive debts." The amendment was not accepted as friendly. The Bishop asked Megill if he wished to withdraw his amendment, and it was withdrawn.

Mary Lee Flowers, Fremont (GO), raised concern that the money going to these countries never get to the people of the countries. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the resolution. A standing vote was necessary. The resolution passed.

Resolution 9, To Maintain the Social Principles: Swartz directed the Conference to Resolution 9. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution passed.

Resolution 5, Clergy Leave of Absence: Swartz presented, and stated that the Committee recommended non-adoption. Lon Miller, Swan Quarter (GR), asked for a declaratory decision from the Bishop. The Bishop reserved the right to consider this and come back to the Conference at a later time with a ruling. The resolution was laid aside.

Resolution 6, Petition to 2000 General Conference to Amend Voting Membership in 1502: This was presented and approved.

Resolution 7, Opposition to Changing Wording of Division One, 1 Article IV, The Book of Discipline: Swartz directed the Conference to the resolution. He stated the Committee concurred and recommended adoption.

Amendment: Lon Miller offered a friendly amendment. He moved to amend line 11 to read, "Therefore be it resolved, that the members of The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church...." This was accepted as a friendly amendment by Quinton Covington. The resolution was brought for a vote and it passed.

Resolution 8, Opposition to Changing ¶65G in the Social Principles: The Conference was directed to Resolution 8 by Swartz. The Committee concurred with the resolution and recommended adoption.

Amendment: Lon Miller moved to amend line 10 to read, "Therefore be it resolved, that the members of The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church...." It was accepted as friendly. The resolution was presented for a vote and it was adopted.

Resolution 10, To Amend the Preamble to the Social Principles: This was presented by Swartz, and the resolution was recommended for adoption. Paul Stallsworth, Rose Hill (GO), addressed the issue. He expressed his belief that the social principles should reflect an overriding theme of personal sacredness. He urged the adoption of the resolution. The Bishop called for the vote. It was adopted.

Resolution 11, To Amend ¶68F, Criminal Justice: Swartz directed the Conference to Resolution 11. The committee recommended adoption. Henry Jarrett spoke in favor of the resolution.

Amendment: Billy Olsen offered an amendment to lines 25-27 and to delete lines 22-24. The resolution would read, following line 21: "History demonstrates that the state is incapable of creating a reformatory prison environment. In practice, our corrections institutions alone can offer little more than pejorative incarceration. True inmate rehabilitation occurs not in institutions of government but in the work of the Holy Spirit to change the human heart. We recognize that our national corrections philosophy can never match the reformatory success rate of the Gospel. We call upon every local church to become directly involved in, or supportive of, evangelical prison ministry. Also, the church should involve itself in 'after-care' ministries that can help inmates following their release, as well as, healing ministries to the victims of crime (violent or otherwise)."

The amendment received a second. The Bishop called for a vote on the amendment. The amendment passed. The Bishop called for the vote on the adoption of Resolution 11 as amended. The resolution passed.

Resolution 12, To Amend The Book of Discipline's ¶65J on Abortion: This was presented to the Conference. Swartz stated that the Committee was divided on the issue and recommended non-concurrence. Greg Jenks, Christ Community (RA), asked the Conference to embrace the pre-born child. He spoke against partial-birth abortion. Maryellen Switzer, Layden Memorial (RA), spoke against the resolution. Ben Sharpe, Cornerstone (FA), spoke of the importance of maintaining consistency with other resolutions of the Church by being more in favor of life than death.

Amendment: Brent Laytham, Brookland-Brooksdale (DJ), moved "to restore the deleted material in lines 41-42 so that the sentence would read: "We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection." It was accepted as a friendly amendment.

Point of Order: After a Point of Order by Rufus Stark, retired (RA), the Bishop clarified that the vote would be on the resolution itself.

Amendment: Ruth Harper Stevens, Duke Memorial (DU), moved to "restore original language in lines 30-52, add last two sentences which begin on line 52 with the words, 'we call upon...'"

David Banks, Saint Peters (NB), opposed the Stevens amendment because of the moral ambiguity that the restored language would resurrect. An unidentified lay member asked if this resolution would allow an abortion for the safety of the mother. Norma Walters, Mount Zion (DU), spoke in favor of the amendment. The question was called. For clarification Stevens restated her amendment. The Bishop called for a standing vote. There was a motion for a division of the house. The Tellers were called for a count of the vote. The amendment was passed.

Resolution 12, as amended, was brought before the Conference for a vote. The resolution passed.

Report of the Cabinet Task Force on Pastoral Care: Bishop Edwards called on Durham District Superintendent, Glenda Noble Johnson, to explain the results of the task force's work. She reported about an anonymous survey given to people involved in pastoral care. She referred to the report handed out to delegates entitled "The North Carolina Conference Bishop's Task Force on Pastoral Care Report of Recommendations, May 10, 1999." The result of the report was a recommendation for the establishment of the Office of Clergy Counseling and Consultation. Operating costs and other administrative issues are outlined in this report. The task Force recommended a permanent commission be established for clergy counseling and consultation by the North Carolina Annual Conference, independent of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

Motion: Sid Huggins, (GR), moved "the establishment of the Office of Clergy Counseling and Consultation." The motion was seconded. Huggins spoke of the great need for this office to be established for the support of clergy in the counseling role and for the benefit of clergy themselves. Cashar Evans stated that CFA was prepared to make a supplemental appropriation to support the work.

Point of Order: Donald Shields, Raeford: Hoke (FA), raised a point of order that there is not enough time to debate. The Bishop referred the motion until this afternoon session by because the agenda called for a special order of the day.

"Ministry Fair:" The Bishop asked the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty Chairperson, the Reverend Wayne Hicks, to come and give directions for the upcoming Ministry Fair and Boxed Lunch. This event was held in the Cumberland County Agri Expo Center and was made up of informative programs to be taken home for individual churches to implement.

There being no further discussion, the Huggins motion was passed.

The report as a whole was passed.

Report on Project AGAPE: David Harvin gave a current overview of Project AGAPE and presented the Country Director of Project AGAPE, Nora Melkonyan. Melkonyan brought greetings from the church in Armenia and thanked the conference for its support. She spoke of the struggles of the Armenian people for the sake of their faith. She stated that the people are still in desperate need and that Project AGAPE is one of the few programs active in meeting this need. The Bishop responded, recalling his trip to Armenia, and confirmed the fine work that Ms. Melkonyan is doing. The Bishop commended the joint efforts of the WNC Conference and our own in Project AGAPE. He also commended the Reverend Charles Davis, a member of our conference, for his fine efforts in Armenia.

Report on the Committee on Episcopacy: Bishop Edwards asked Episcopacy Chairperson Cashar Evans to give his report. Evans spoke of the appreciation the Conference feels for Bishop and Mrs. Edwards. He asked Linda Edwards to come to the podium, along with Bishop Edwards. The Conference expressed its gratitude through a standing ovation.

Report on the Board of Pensions: The Bishop called on Reverend Woody Wells to present the Board of Pensions report. Wells offered corrections/additions to the report and moved the adoption of Section A. Section A was approved.

Wells explained the rationale for increases to $404 in the per-service year rate found in Section B. He explained that we are actually ahead of actuarial projections. Our unfunded liability is currently $500,000 less than this time last year. The board seeks to be fiscally responsible, and at the same time to provide for the needs of our retirees. Wells proposed the approval of Section B of the report. The section was approved.

Wells moved the adoption of Section C. It was approved. Wells referred to Section D for information. Wells moved the adoption of the report as a whole, and it was adopted.

The Bishop took a moment of personal privilege to commend the work of the board Suggestion: M.D. Collier, New Hope (NB) suggested a change to the agenda in future annual conferences, that celebrations be conducted in the evenings following the business sessions of the day, and that conference not be held on Sundays.

George McGill spoke of the need for debt relief in less developed countries and attempted a motion on the matter.

A point of order was raised regarding whether or not the motion constituted a resolution, and as such the conference should suspend the rules to consider it.

The Bishop ruled the motion was not a resolution, and was therefore in order. Upon vote, the motion failed.

Continuation of Report of Committee on Resolutions & Reference: Alan Swartz returned to Petition 1.

Petition #1, For Judicial Council Declaratory Decision on ¶ 602: Swartz called upon James Coile for a clarification on the question: Is it legal for Lay Pastors to be members of the conference by appointment by the Bishop, or must they receive their standing as a result of the vote of the conference? Discussion ensued and Petition 1 was voted on and passed.

Petition #2, For Judicial Council Declaratory Decision on Two Classes of Full Connection Clergy: Is it legal to have two classes of ordination when their respective roles and responsibilities are different. Rob Huckaby asked, "Are Deacons in Full Connection required to itinerate?" The Bishop responded that they are not required to itinerate, they may take a leave of absence instead, but the Bishop must confirm their appointment. Belton Joyner was asked to confirm the policy on deacon itineracy and he did so. Linda Walston spoke against the petition. A vote was taken and the petition passed.

Resolution 6, Petition to 2000 General Conference to Amend Voting Membership in ¶502, The Book of Discipline: The committee concurs with the resolution and recommends its adoption. The resolution was adopted.

The Bishop was not yet ready to rule on Resolution 5.

Roger Elliott moved for reconsideration on Petition 2. The motion failed.

Return to Sexton Motion: The Bishop returned to the Sexton motion, referred to CFA the previous day. The motion was read by the Secretary. Cashar Evans responded that there was not sufficient information on the number of churches which would require supplemental salary support by the conference. The increase in insurance rates would also impact the number of churches that will need similar supplements. The potential exists to add an additional 140 churches to those on salary supplement.

Bob Bergland explained that there are 24 churches with full-time pastors, and six with student pastors currently receiving salary supplement. The increased number of churches unable to meet the new levels will force additional charge realignment. Berland reminded the conference that of 66 conferences in the US, our conference has the fifth highest equitable salary.

Bryan Sexton was invited to speak to his motion. Sexton spoke of the need for tithing, if everyone implemented tithing, we would not be facing this issue. He stated the need for us to not forget the needs of the least of our clergy.

Gregg McGarvey spoke against the motion. Lon Miller spoke in favor of the motion. Mike Rocheleau (PM) spoke against the motion.

Substitute Motion: Kermit Braswell offered a substitute motion, "that equitable compensation be increased to 3% plus ½% each year thereafter until the percentage increase equals that of the average percentage increase of the preceding year over the current year." Sexton asked for a clarification after which he accepted the substitute. The motion passed.

The Bishop asked for final approval of the report as a whole, and it was passed.

M. B. Collier rose to call attention to those who are overlooked at the microphone.

Motion: Jim Lee moved that the "Commission on Equitable Compensation study the salaries of ordained ministers over the past 25 years to see what the gap between pastors on base compensation (minimum salary) and district superintendents' base compensation is." Lee wanted more accurate representation of district superintendent and minimum salaries when we come to the issues in years to come. The motion passed.

Lon Miller attempted a motion to restrict the speeches for or against an issue to two for and two against. The motion failed the requisite 2/3 vote.

Motion: Gayle Felton moved "that the Annual Conference affirm the faithful, fruitful ministry of ordained deacons in full connection and of diaconal ministers and commit ourselves to work toward a ministry which is one of partnership rather than of hierarchy and expresses the covenant of ministry of the gospel of Jesus Christ in whose service we are privileged to share." Felton felt that the passage of the Petition #2 was a slap against Deacons in Full Connection and Diaconal Ministers. She added that the issue has been studied since 1948.

Amendment: Rodney Hamm offered an amendment to add "that the annual meeting of the orders of ministry be used as an opportunity to bring a better understanding of our orders of ministry to the clergy of the NC Conference." It was accepted as a friendly amendment.

The Felton motion passed. The Bishop responded that we will work diligently to improve the partnership of the ministry.

Motion to Reconsider Petition #2: Camille Yorkey moved to reconsider Petition #2, "After being on prevailing side of vote not to reconsider Petition #2 for a Judicial Council Declaratory decision on two classes of full connection; if it is in order Sir, I would like to make a motion to reconsider." Yorkey spoke to her motion. The motion passed.

Petition #2 was reconsidered. Roger Elliott, Chairman of the Board of Ordained Ministries, spoke against the petition. M. B. Collier spoke for the motion. Milford Oxendine spoke against the petition.

The vote was taken and Coile Petition #2 failed.

We also have a ministry to our staff, over 150 college age young people. The staff at Camp Chestnut Ridge is multicultural and international.

Announcement: Stewart Clark rose to announce that for every dollar we collect for camps, one of the members at Haymount UMC will match it up to $250,000. The Bishop commended the members of Haymount UMC for their faithfulness in building the retreat center in honor of Dr. Bergland.

James Coile rose to speak in favor of the schools, he himself being a graduate of Louisburg College. His son also attended Methodist College. Wayne Price spoke in favor of the schools, as a teacher at Louisburg College, he commended the school for requiring classes in religion.

FIFTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Sunday, June 13, 1999

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order at 8:33 am. He announced that over 1650 people, a record number, had registered for this Annual Conference.

Motion: Greg Jenks, Christ Community (RA), moved that "The North Carolina Annual Conference send a letter to the General Board of Church and Society and the Women's Division of the GBGM urging them to immediately withdraw their membership from the pro-abortion choice lobby known as the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice. The goal is to get the name 'United Methodist' off their logo and letterhead which connects us to their views." Don Fellor, Trinity (NB), spoke against the motion.

Point of Order: Bill Jeffries, Murfreesboro (EC), pointed out that this was a motion and not a resolution. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the motion. It was approved.

Results of Clergy Ballot #18: There was no election.

Clergy Ballot #19: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #19 to be taken.

Good News Moment: Bishop Edwards recognized Jean Hollowell from Providence UMC to talk about opportunities to assist those with disabilities in the life of the church. Hollowell shared a personal story about her handicapped son, his love for Jesus and his desire to attend church. This not only witnessed to her but to her community.

Continuation of Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Cashar Evans, Chairperson, made the final presentation on the budget. He referred the Conference to pages 50-63 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1999. Evans encouraged members to be faithful in their giving. Changes were made to line 49, Commission on Equitable Compensation as a result of actions approved earlier in the Conference. The proposed budget represents a total increase of 2.65%. Evans moved the adoption of the budget.

Question: Eddie Hill, Kipling (FA), raised a question about line item 64, concerning the Conference Treasurer's Office Salary and Benefits. He requested a breakdown of line item 85, Director of Current Giving Salary and Benefits. This line item includes the cost of two paid positions; a director and a secretary. Sid Huggins, Greenville District Superintendent, questioned how much had been granted as a supplemental appropriation to establish the Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation. It was granted $3,500.

Steven Formo, Union-Newbegun, (EC), expressed concern about budget cuts to the United Methodist colleges. Evans gave a lengthy explanation of the effect of unfunded liability and the desire to hold the budget to small increases. He stated that the money for colleges was temporarily put into the budget in the 1970's and was not meant to be a permanent item.

Formo moved to restore the $30,685 on line 20 of the budget for the College Sustaining Fund. Hope Morgan Ward pointed out that the colleges have development officers which raise funds and that they are tuition driven colleges. She stated that the best way to help the colleges is to send them students. Also, supplemental appropriations have been given to Louisburg College. William Flowers, Fremont (GO), asked if an increase in one line item would cause a decrease in other line items. The Conference was informed that any increase in the budget would increase apportionments. Don Johnson, EXTMIN (BU), spoke in favor of the motion. The Bishop called for the vote on the Formo motion and it failed.

Motion: Jim Huskins, Hatteras (EC), referred to line item 19, Commission on Higher Education, and requested an increase in the amount of $100. He moved "that a scholarship fund be established in memory of Reverend Margaret Saunders at the UM Foundation, interest from which will be provided to Duke Divinity School for support of a student in Christian Education." Evans accepted the amendment.

Bill Simpson, Front Street (BU), asked for totals of each subsection and the total budget. Evans responded with the amended subtotals and totals.

Denny C. Wise, St. Luke (RO), moved that all funds from line item 20 be restricted to the colleges within the bounds of the NC Conference. Hope Morgan Ward responded that approximately $20,000 was given to the colleges in the WNC Conference. Also, the WNC Conference supports colleges within the bounds of the NC Conference. The conferences support their respective colleges according to a formula. Simpson spoke to this issue stating that students from bordering areas attend college in the WNC Conference. Vivian Mitchell, Westover (RA), asked if the WNC Conference sends money to support the NC Conference colleges. The Bishop responded that both conferences support the Wesley Foundations throughout the state of NC. Bishop Edwards called for the vote and the Wise motion was defeated.

Paul Leeland, Saint Luke (SA), pointed out that approximately 32% of the 1999 giving has been given thus far and half the year is gone. He pointed out the detrimental affect it has on mission and ministry.

Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the budget as a whole. The budget was adopted.

Good News Moment: Bishop Edwards announced that thus far $63,438.58 had been given at Annual Conference through the love offerings.

The Love Feast: The love feast began at 9:28 am with the Reverend Theodore V. Carter as preacher. Many testimonies were shared.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference back to order at the close of the Love Feast. He stated he would like to bring the business session of the Conference to a close. James L. Bryan, Conference Secretary, asked the Conference where the NC Conference will meet June 7-10, 2000.

Motion: Jerry Lowry, Seaside (WI), moved to "have Conference at the same place on June 7-10." Bryan replied that the Cumberland County Complex was available. The Bishop called for the vote and it was passed. The 2000 NC Conference will meet at the Cumberland County Complex. The Executive Session will commence at 10:00 am Wednesday, June 7, 2000. The laity will meet at the direction of the lay leader.

Motion: Rachel Gonia, EXTMIN (BU), moved that "the Annual Conference program Committee be directed to consider the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of eliminating and/or reducing food service at Annual Conference and the offering of a modest meal per diem to delegates." The Bishop called for the vote on this motion. The motion passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bob Simon, Currituck layperson, expressed regret at the Conference's decision to not support Petition #2 to the Judicial Council for a ruling concerning the definition of ordination.

Result of Clergy Ballot #19: Prior to reading the results, Bishop Edwards consulted with Secretary James Bryan on the status of the business. Except for balloting and fixing the appointments, the business was complete. There were two elections: Paul Stallsworth and Carl Frazier. This completed the delegation for Jurisdictional Conference.

Motion: Jerry Lowry, Seaside (WI), moved "that the top five vote getters on the next ballot (#20) for clergy be named as the alternates." After restating the motion, the Bishop called for the vote and the motion passed.

Clergy Ballot #20: The Bishop called for Clergy Ballot #20. The top five persons will be the alternate delegates.

Bishop Edwards introduced and welcomed the incoming District Superintendents: Ecwood Lancaster to the Elizabeth City District; David Malloy to the Fayetteville District; Paul Leeland to the Goldsboro District; and Charles M. Smith to the Rocky Mount District. The Bishop declared the appointments fixed.

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE

The Conference Staff Relations Committee has met four times since Annual Conference of 1998. The eight members of the Committee, two of whom are District Superintendents, have rendered invaluable service and input to the various concerns and purpose of the Committee. They are to be commended for their faithfulness and supportiveness to the Committee and its reason for being.

Indeed, The Reverend Hope Morgan Ward, Executive Director of the CCOM, who came to this office in July of 1997, has once again given outstanding leadership to the COM Staff in the goal of helping prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission, and to help make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church, all to the glory of God. Our Committee, upon the recommendation of Bishop Edwards, has asked the Reverend Ward to continue in her position as Executive Director for another year. We commend Hope for her creativeness, intuitiveness and ability to organize and her spiritual depth with which she has been so blessed and which she so freely shares with all around her.

With the guidance of the Executive Director and the United Methodist Building Staff, we have completed and put into the hands of each person a copy of the Handbook Of Personnel Policies for both the Administrative Assistants, the COM Executive Director and the Associate Directors. The Handbooks include personnel policies and provide helpful information about the rights, obligations and opportunities as a member of the CCOM staff.

We have been saddened this year by the serious illness of Carol Dell Hayes and Jimmy Cummings and appreciate so much the prayers and concern that so many people over the Conference have had for them. We too, take this opportunity to commend those Administrative Assistants who "stepped in" and carried on the work of the COM in their absence. It is our hope and prayer that they are both on the road to full recovery at this time.

In February, the Committee and all conference related personnel in the United Methodist Building gathered for a luncheon at the Building. This was a time for fun, fellowship and an opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation to all the Staff for their continued efforts in meeting the goal of helping prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission, and to help make disciples.

One of the responsibilities of our Committee is to present recommendations to the CCOM for salaries for the Associate Directors for the coming year. Our recommendation for salaries was that each Associate Director be given a $2,000 increase for the next conference year. The rationale for our recommendation was based on the following: (1) The average increase in salaries in the Districts; (2) The average increase in salaries in the Triangle Area of our Conference, (3) An acknowledgment of the vast scope of service rendered by the Associate Directors in implementing the purpose of the Annual Conference (as set forth in the 1996 Book Of Discipline and in upholding the central mission of the Into The Twenty-First Century report adopted by Annual Conference in 1992), and (4) The 1999 budget was already approved two years hence and we felt obligated to stay within that parameter.

Also, in February, the evaluation process for the COM Executive Staff, which is used for making effective ministry possible, took place and there being no requests or no reasons for change in the Associate Directors of CCOM, our Committee recommended that Bishop Edwards reappoint the Reverend Jimmy Cummings, The Reverend Bruce Stanley, and The Reverend Carol Dell Hayes as Associate Directors of CCOM for another year, and that Sue Ellen Nicholson receive a service appointment as Diaconal Minister to the Associate Director's Staff. And that Bill Norton, a lay person, continues to be employed as an Associate Director on the Staff for another year.

Once again, we express our thanks and appreciation to the Administrative Assistants, the Executive Director and the Associate Directors of CCOM for another year of outstanding support to the ministry and mission of the North Carolina Conference.

Jane H. Johnson, Chairperson

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1999 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability, through the Office of Ministerial Relations, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, chair of Joint Committee on Disability, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be

- presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference.
2. Definition of Disability: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered disabled for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines on the basis of medical evidence that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any disability resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
3. A pastor seeking to be on disability secures a disability claim kit from the Office of Ministerial Relations. The applicant completes Form A, has his or her physician complete Form B, completes the applicant's portion of Form C to the Office of Ministerial Relations for completion. Disability Management Alternatives reviews the claim and recommends a determination to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits who retains the authority to approve or deny a claim.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability with its approval.
5. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance, and Life Insurance shall be paid by the Joint Committee on Disability both for those approved by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and those approved by the Joint Committee on Disability.
6. Pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
7. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
8. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,500 be made at the beginning of Disability Leave (effective July 1, 1999). This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
9. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
10. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.
 - A. Wilson E. Barber, P O Box 4931, Emerald Isle 28594 (919/354-5635)
 - B. Diane M. C. Blanchard, 2632 Highway 96, Franklinton, NC 27525 (919/528-2423)

11. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time: None

 - Diane M. C. Blanchard, effective 5/1/99
 - Sherwood A. Godwin, effective 1/1/99
 - M. Whitfield Warren, Jr., effective 1/1/98
13. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline mandates that "there shall be in each annual conference a Commission on Equitable Compensation" (§1622.1), whose purpose is "to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference..." (§1622.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in §1622.2, which are (a.) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (b.) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c.) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations.

God calls persons to ministry to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing (Matthew 28.19), for without them the world would not have heard Christ preached (Romans 10:14). These are called to be stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Corinthians 4.1). The church sets some persons apart for the role of clergy and ordains these persons to the work of pastoral ministry to the servants of God.

Pastors answer affirmatively the historic question of John Wesley, (§1321) "Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?" For such a called, set apart, and committed clergy, the church assumes an obligation to plan adequate support (§1617). The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges" (§1622.4; see also §1249.12). Charges carry a responsibility for pastoral salaries as one expression of missional/ministry presence in the community. We recognize that such a missional presence also includes faithful payment of apportionments in full as ministry beyond the local church.

The purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to seek fairness both for pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity/fairness in clergy compensation? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations for our work lead us to note:

- a) Jesus says, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us "you shall not muzzle the ox when it is treading out the grain," (1 Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 25:4).
- b) Wesley was concerned that clergy have a responsibility not to be "in debt so as to embarrass you in your work" (§1321 and §1327), which implies that the church has responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- c) The Great Commission to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the great commission bear its promised fruit.
- d) The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the great commandment to love our neighbors as we love ourselves by wanting for each pastor what our members want for themselves - compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our praying, thinking, and working together as laity and clergy from across this Conference, we make the following recommendations, which we believe will help us move toward fairness for both churches and pastors as we support ordained ministry in the NC Annual Conference.

We recommend that Equitable Compensation be increased by 3% plus 1/2% each year hereafter, until the percentage increase is equal to that of the average full-time pastoral salary increase from the preceding year.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Compensation for 2000:

A. Salary Schedule

We recommend that the student minimum salary be based on 65% of the minimum salary of full-time pastors.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT (Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)	1999	2000
Salary	$26,983	$27,792
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$28,983	$29,792
STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$17,210	$18,065
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$19,210	$20,065

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. We encourage each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash base compensation plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The Pastor's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Base compensation support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.

B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendents regarding the terms of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all base compensation obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one-third of the base compensation required for such a division.

2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.

C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation Funds to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.

D. The Commission on Equitable Compensation further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum base compensation for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.

E. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

- F. Equitable Compensation Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.

- G. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the NC Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum base compensation.

Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase.

This policy does not restrict the Equitable Compensation Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

- H. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference.

The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

- I. The Commission will not fund any charge at the same time the charge is receiving funds from the Emerging Church Salary Fund.

Robert E. Bergland, Chairperson

[EDITORIAL NOTE: The 1999 Annual Conference asked that the following information be provided: The dollar amount of increase in district superintendents' salary is $3,378 (see page 217); the dollar amount of increase in equitable compensation minimum salary is $809 for full-time appointments, (see page 203).]

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

- The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Past Service Liability - Pensions
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black College Fund
 - Africa University Fund
 - Mission Initiatives Fund

- Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration, Past Service Liability - Pensions, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and the Resident Bishop.

- Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE
D	3A + B) 4	No Cap
E	2A + B + C) 4	No Cap
F	A + B + C + D) 4	*No Cap
G	B + C + D + E) 4	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

- Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
- Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 19, 1999.

- The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.

- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the CFA for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
- E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, Mission Initiatives, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, College Debt Retirement, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. The Conference is also a member of Project Equality.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1999 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 2000.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 609.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 610.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.
- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The CFA continues to recommend that 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continues to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the CFA.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.

H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.

I. Golden Cross Sunday observance for optional offering.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

CFA continues to recommend, as sustained by the 1998 Annual Conference, that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary and utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. The percentage change, 1999 over 1998, is 4.74; therefore, the 2000 salary for district superintendents should increase by 4.74% ($3,378), to $74,658.00.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

A. The CFA uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.

B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.

C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.

D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.

E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs.

F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.

G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.

H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
 - I. Both cash reserves and realized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Unrealized gains/losses shall be separately reserved for future use as recognized in realized gains. TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$37,500.00

II. Blue Cross/Blue Shield

- A. General
 1. The Insurance Committee will mail the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.
 2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
 3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee and administered by Health and Human Services on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 2000. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
 4. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Commission on Health and Human Services; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 3, Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 1, Conference Treasurer (without vote); 1, Conference Controller (without vote); 1, Conference Group Administrator (without vote); 1, Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies. Once elected from its constituent groups at the beginning of each quadrennium, the Insurance Committee's membership will remain established for the remainder of that quadrennium.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
2. Effective January 1, 1997, two options in health insurance coverage were made available to eligible participants: the Preferred Provider Organization (Costwise), and the Preferred Provider Organization Select Co-Pay. Details for each plan may be obtained from the Treasurer's Office.
3. Plan selection may be made on an annual basis by the subscriber. Election of Benefit Forms are mailed with the September billing. These must be returned to the Treasurer's Office no later than October 31 for a January 1 effective date. A mid year change in appointment will allow a mid year change in plans. Mid year elections must be returned to the Treasurer's Office no later than June 30 for a July 1 effective date.
4. Effective January 1, 1995, eligible clergy received disability coverage through the Basic Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. Effective January 1, 1997, this benefit is 70% of the greater of compensation or the DAC less benefits received from CPP and Social Security.
5. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 1-800-672-7897. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield within 48 hours following an emergency admission. Details are printed in your benefit book available from the Treasurer's Office. Benefits will be reduced, and/or denied if pre-certification is not obtained.
6. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant must be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B to be eligible for the Medicare Supplement.
7. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer's Office.
8. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Clergy personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
9. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
10. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
11. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
12. Lay persons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
13. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
14. Clergy or lay persons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, will be added as late applicants upon completion of a new enrollment form. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is permitted at anytime during enrollment. A one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required for late applicants.

15. At the time of retirement, clergy become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC.
16. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.
17. Effective February 1, 1996, participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following your first day of work.

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) Clergy shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
 4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.
 3. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant.
 4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.

- V. The Insurance Committee is grateful to the Annual Conference for the support we have to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits. We constantly monitor our insurance programs and their costs.

We are thankful that 51% of our active clergy and their households have chosen to use the Select CoPay option for their health coverage. Their choice saves money, both for themselves and for the Annual Conference. We ask all of our members to consider subscribing to that plan, recognizing, however, that for some people the PPO option is preferable.

We are thankful that Duke University Hospital is now included in our Select CoPay Plan. We commend that plan to you for review and consideration. The Insurance Committee constantly evaluates the benefits and costs that we propose to you. We attempt to offer the Conference the best of plans for the least money possible. As always we urge you to use the preventative components of both plans to care for the gift of health that God has given us.

My thanks to the committee for its faithful service. The Treasurer's Office, especially Caroline Buckland, Sharon Strother, and Allen Norris, along with Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., have been unflinchingly supportive. Many thanks for their ministries.

ITINERANT CLERGY MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

Effective Date - January 1, 1999

The Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies.

The Committee makes the following recommendations.

- I. Eligibility
 - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
 - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
 - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
 - D. Widows or widowers of clergy in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
 - E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
 - F. Interim Supply pastors
 - G. Pastors being appointed to leave of absence are entitled to moving expense for one leave of absence.
 - H. Persons who are called to active military duty will be entitled to moving expense at the time of call up, if need be, and at the time of return, if need be, if not covered by the military, with substantiation of the military orders.
 - I. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.
- II. Payment of Claims
 - A. All reimbursements must be substantiated with paid receipts for actual moving expenses. All reimbursements must be for expenses which are deductible for income tax purposes according to Internal Revenue code, Section 217, non-taxable fringe benefits. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active itinerant clergy in section I.A., I.B., I.E., I.F., I.G. and I.H. (except retiring clergy, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,350.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring itinerant clergy, widows, or widowers will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,050.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.

3. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,600.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
- B. Travel: Mileage of $.10 per mile per vehicle may be paid for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, etc. may be reimbursed.
- C. IRS guidelines require that moving expense reimbursements be reported on a W-2 instead of a 1099. In order to comply with this regulation, the Conference Treasurer will make payment to the pastor and provide a W-2. The Conference treasurer will make this payment as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 1996 Discipline, ¶262.2f(5), which states "The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance." Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
- D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. All advance payments shall be included on the W-2 provided to the pastors by the Conference Treasurer.
- E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
- F. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, etc., moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in II.B., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.
- G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than four months following the date of the move.
- H. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and employment tax when:
 - Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.

If your appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the North Carolina Annual Conference our report for 1999.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference wrestling constantly with its responsibilities outlined in The Book of Discipline 1996 (1633). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination in a way which is both fair and diligent. The Board also seeks always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth for those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given nine (9) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.

2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained ministry and their election as: a) Full-time Local Pastors, b) Associate Members, c) Probationary Members, and d) Full Members of the Annual Conference.

3) To interview and report recommendations concerning: a) students to be appointed to attend school, b) candidates for ordination as Deacon, and c) candidates for ordination as Elder.

4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Disability Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of Conference membership.

5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.

6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.

7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline 1996, and to study matters pertaining to character.

8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

Members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry have worked diligently to fulfill their duties! This continues to be a time of transition. The new legislation adopted at General Conference in 1996 has significantly changed the structure and function of the Board! For example, the Board of Ordained Ministry now has two divisions: The Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries and the Division of Elders and Local Pastors. This new ordering means that new candidates will no longer be ordained deacon and later elder. Instead, candidates will seek to be either a Deacon in Full Connection or an Elder in Full Connection. Another change from General Conference involves the office of Diaconal Ministry. After those now in process complete their work for Diaconal Ministry, no new diaconals will be consecrated. Those interested in specialized ministry and called to word and service will pursue ordination as Deacons in Full Connection. These are just a few of the changes. As we continue in this time of transition, we covet your prayers, patience, and understanding.

This year we are pleased to report that eighteen (18) persons will be ordained as Deacons on the Elder track, and one (1) person elected Probationary Member and Commissioned, the first time we have had this relationship under The 1996 Discipline. There are two (2) persons making the transition from Diaconal Ministry to ordination as Deacons in Full Connection. Our class for Elders in Full Connection numbers twenty-three (23). This year's retirement class includes twenty-one (21) Full Members and one (1) Associate Members. In addition, five pastors retired ad interim, including four Full Members and one Local Pastor. Our large number of retiring pastors each year continues to provide opportunities for many persons to enter this field of service!

Please note that various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., Robbie W. Barrett, and Lynn J. Morris. We are indebted to these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our

Annual Conference.LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED ON OR BEFORE JUNE, 1988

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) maternity/paternity leave, 6) family leave, 7) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials).

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held.

The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Tuesday, May 4, 1999.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶348.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The 1996 Discipline, ¶348.2, further states, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In the 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶325.2, it states, "There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members."

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) it sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. (The Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶348.2)

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference apportionments. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and Extension Ministry categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

Limits to Conference Funds:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2. For a one CEU event, no more than $100; a two CEU event, $200; a three CEU event, a maximum of $300 if the cost of the event merits it.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.

5. Holy Land Trips - A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.

2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

3. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

According to The Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶633.2a, one of the primary responsibilities of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry is the enlistment and recruitment of men and women of all races and ethnic origins for ministry as ordained clergy persons.

Your Committee on Enlistment has taken its charge seriously this year. As in past years, we have focused on a single goal: to raise the consciousness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church.

In November, ten (10) young people from the North Carolina Conference who are seeking to discern a call to ministry attended the "Exploration" event. Along with others like them from across the country, these youth and young adults gathered in Los Angeles for a three-day program, which challenged them to examine the call placed on their lives by God to enter ordained ministry. On behalf of the Board of Ministry, the Enlistment Committee was able to give partial scholarships to some of our young people who attended this enriching and enlightening event.

One area of continued interest for the Enlistment Committee has been to identify persons who sense God's call to enter ordained ministry as a second career. Our committee has had preliminary discussions about holding a joint "Ministry as a Second Career" conference at Duke sometime during the 2000-2001 conference year.

We have used The Christian Advocate to lift up the call to ministry. A series of twelve articles is to appear in the Advocate during the year; each is a personal testimony about discerning God's call to enter representative ministry. We hope this series might reach many--young people and those still in a first career--with a collective witness about entering ordained ministry as a vocation.

In order to reach as many youth as possible, our committee is planning to set up displays promoting the vocation of ordained ministry at conference youth events. We have also explored the possibility of putting together a speaker's bureau, consisting of young pastors, mid-career ministers, and retired clergy. These speakers could then be sent to make presentations to UMYF groups and Wesley Foundation groups about the ways they were called by God into the ordained ministry.

As a new millennium begins, we face many challenges as a conference in regard to recruiting and enlisting new pastors. In the next five years, we will lose to retirement one-third of all of our active ordained pastors. Your Committee on Enlistment encourages all clergy and laity in the conference to become involved in the important task of identifying youth, young adults, and second career adults who need to heed God's call to ordained ministry!

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) is one of the most "unsung blessings" of our connectional support! In addition to being the underlying support to our seminaries, it provides invaluable support for the following ministries: Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for programs they provide for clergy and diaconal ministers; scholarships for students studying for the ordained and diaconal ministry in the 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries and in non-United Methodist seminaries approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout the United Methodist Church; Continuing Education; Course of Study Schools (more than 2,300 people are involved in 12 Course of Study Schools); research and special programs related to candidacy and enlistment; pastoral care initiatives; clergywomen concerns; racial and ethnic concerns; spiritual formation; testing and evaluation; training of boards of ordained ministry; international theological education; jurisdictional block grants; supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. All of these ministries are nurtured by money from the Ministerial Education Fund.

The general policies for the North Carolina Annual Conference's portion of the Ministerial Education Fund (25% of MEF apportionments) are set by the Board of Ordained Ministry. This year, the Board approved an addition to the guidelines for eligibility. The guideline related to enrollment requirements now reads: Students must be enrolled as full-time students. Full-time means twelve (12) hours minimum in undergraduate school and nine (9) hours in seminary per semester. Exceptions related to certified medical disabilities will be considered." Brochures with guidelines and policies for the MEF scholarships are available from the Office of Ministerial Relations.

Some interesting facts regarding MEF are:

- ❖ More than $325 million has been given by local congregations to the MEF since 1968.
- ❖ More than $80 million from the MEF has supported conference board services in each annual conference since 1970.
- ❖ MEF supports Duke Divinity School, which for over 60 years has prepared men and women for leadership in the church as clergy and laity.

Other institutions supported by Ministerial Education Funds are: Boston University School of Theology, Boston, MA; Candler School of Theology at Emory University, Atlanta, GA; The Theological School at Drew University, Madison, NJ; Iliff School of Theology, Denver, CO;

Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, GA; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, IL; Methodist Theological School in Ohio, Delaware, OH; Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX; Saint Paul School of Theology, Kansas City, MS; Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH; Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The 1998 Pastors' School and Convocation, held October 12-14, focused on themes of racial reconciliation and integration of the inner journey and outward vocation. The James A. Gray Lecturer was Parker Palmer, writer, teacher, and social activist; and the Franklin S. Hickman Lecturer was Cheryl Sanders of Howard University. "On Racial Reconciliation: A Keynote Conversation" featured William Friday and John Hope Franklin; and Richard Lischer served as the convocation preacher. Continuing Education seminars were offered in a variety of interests, including biblical studies, worship, and medical ethics; and the "Conversation with the Bishops" was well attended.

The 1999 Pastors' School and Convocation will be held October 11-13. The 1999 Gray Lecturer will be Richard Mouw, of Fuller Theological Seminary, and Father Elias Chacour, of the Mar Elias College in Galilee, will deliver the Hickman Lectures. The convocation preacher will be Barbara Lundblad of Union Theological Seminary. The theme of this year's Pastors' School and Convocation will be "Making a Difference." A detailed brochure will be available from the Divinity School later this summer, and individuals are also encouraged to contact the office of Continuing Education at www.divinity.duke.edu

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care has, since 1971, served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of five members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and one member from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance Program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of 22.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1992), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave.

Special circumstances:

Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, for surviving spouses of ministers, and for former spouses of eligible persons.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Counselors: Clinical members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and Social Workers: Certified Clinical Social Workers (CCSW) or equivalent licensure in the jurisdiction of practice.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form and instructions from the Chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.

In 1998, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted over $17,773.60 for counseling sessions. This represents 745 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year.

Grants were processed for 78 client units during 1998, representing 584 sessions for clergy, 52 for spouses, 3 for families, 71 for dependent children, and 45 for cleric/spouse. Of these 78 units, 17 received the 1998 maximum of $400 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND BACKGROUND CHECKS, COMMITTEE ON

The North Carolina Annual Conference requires and administers psychological assessment and evaluation of all who seek to enter ordained and licensed ministry in our Conference. Responsibility for this area is given to the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks. Members of the committee for 1998-1999 are: Trish Hicks, Merritt Jones, Larry Robinson, and Peg Witt.

Psychological testing serves two purposes. 1.) It offers the individual information, feedback and guidance toward psychological health and wholeness. 2.) It offers the Board of Ordained Ministry assistance in the discernment process about candidates. The Board uses this testing as only one part of the evaluation process. All potential candidates under The 1996 Discipline are required to be tested -- whether they are seeking to become Deacon or Elder or Local Pastor. Those under The 1992 Discipline (or prior Disciplines) are required to have the testing as they seek ordination as a Deacon and Probationary Member of the Conference. Probationary members of other annual conferences seeking to transfer into this conference must release information on their testing to the Transfer Committee of this Board.

The required tests are: Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), 16 Personality Factors (back-up to MMPI), Incomplete Sentences, and Personal Data Inventory. The cost of testing is borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for persons within the North Carolina Annual Conference. For those transferring into our conference, we also bear the cost when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

Testing services are provided by Dr. Gary Brown, a retired Elder from the Western North Carolina Annual Conference who has his doctorate in counseling. We are most appreciative of Dr. Brown for his faithful and effective work in helping our committee and our board to do its work for the well-being of Christ's Church and to the glory of God.

With the timbre of our society, the board realizes the necessity of doing background checks on candidates and those transferring into our conference. In late 1997, the board began seeking a company to conduct background checks, and an extensive search of companies was completed by Dr. Belton Joyner. At this time, a recommendation has been made to the board for a company which best meets our needs. We are now awaiting approval by our legal counsel of materials to be used with the Oxford Document Company of Minnesota. It is hoped that by the time this report appears in print, the Oxford Document Company will be in process of the first background checks for the North Carolina Conference. The reports will be made to this committee, which will then be shared with the Board of Ordained Ministry along with any concerns.

As a committee, we continue in our attempts to be good stewards of the responsibilities placed upon us. I am grateful for the work and support of this committee!

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶1317 - Probationary Service of Commissioning Ministers and ¶1417.3 in the 1992 Book of Discipline states:

"Each probationary member shall have an elder in full connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation."

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry program meets this requirement through the cluster group model. Probationers meet in small groups throughout the probationary period. Cluster leaders are elders who are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, and with the same leader, for the duration of the probationary experience. This arrangement provides a particularly important collegiality and support for the probationers.

In October 1998, the committee sponsored a pre-probationary seminar for candidates preparing for probationary membership. Representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry's interview committees presented overviews of the interview process.

Each year, Phase I Probationers, those in their first year of probationary relationship ('92 Discipline), meet for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, and practical concerns of pastoral leadership in the local church.

Phase II members are those in the second year of probationary membership with the Annual Conference ('92 Discipline). They work in their cluster gatherings to prepare for full conference membership and ordination as elders. A retreat is held at Duke Divinity School each fall to assist this group in their preparation.

Phases III & IV are designed to help Probationers who must reappear before the Board for Elders' Orders and full conference membership.

Within the RIOM program for the year 1999, a new tracking process has been approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry known as Phases A,B,C and D — created for the Probationary members seeking to become Deacons and Elders in Full Connection under The 1996 Book of Discipline which requires a three-year probationary period.

The new probationary period, approved by the 1996 General Conference outlined in The Discipline, ¶315, comes following the completion of one's educational requirements and prior to ordination. This period will be a minimum of three (3) years and a maximum of six (6) years. During Annual Conference, the Bishop commissions persons being recommended for the probationary period by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Clergy Session, inaugurates the probationary period and brings the commissioned probationer into the clergy covenant and into the new Residency in Ordained Ministry process of Phases A,B,C and D.

Those commissioned as Deacons/or Elders in Full Connection must serve full-time under Episcopal appointment for three (3) full annual conference years, following completion of their educational requirements. Those commissioned will be appointed to their appropriate ministries during the probationary period as well as required to participate in the RIOM process of Phases A,B,C and D.

The number of years a probationary member spends in either Phases I,II,III and IV or Phases A,B,C and D becomes CRUCIAL when a probationary member seeking full connection fails satisfactorily to complete the requirements of The Book of Discipline and the Board of Ordained Ministry. {Eight (8) year time-line for persons entering probationary membership under The 1992 Book of Discipline or six (6) year time-line for persons entering under The 1996 Book of Discipline}.

During the probationary period, a probationer under The 1992 Book of Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Elder's Orders within two (2) years by accepting a full time appointment and participating in Phases I and II of the RIOM process.

During the probationary period, a probationer under The 1996 Book of Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within three (3) years by accepting a full time appointment and participating in Phases A,B and C of the RIOM process.

During the RIOM process, certain probationary members may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more in Phases III and IV (under The 1992 Discipline) OR Phase D (under The 1996 Discipline). Continuance in Phases III and IV or Phase D does not mean that the probationer has failed or that he/she does not have the gifts and grace for Ordained Ministry. It is better understood as an opportunity for the probationer to improve in some unfinished requirements recommended by the Board. The purpose of the RIOM committee is to surround each probationary member with others in one of the phase groups. These phase groups are invited to face with their cluster leaders, (Elders who are not members of the Board), the possibilities and challenges of ordained ministry and his/her growth in that ministry for which he/she has been called.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee is committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

- IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

- I. Past Service Liability
- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 2000 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $43,487.
- C. The current rate is $385 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 2000 be increased to $404 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $27,437,440.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 2000 required by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is $2,445,816 (Due Date December 31, 2000). The amount needed in the 2001 budget to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $2,100,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 2001 budget request is $1,300,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.

B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$30,000.00
Add 25% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	7,500.00
Plan Compensation will be	$37,500.00

1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be items of local expense.

2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):

a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.

b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.

c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.

d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.

3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.

4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)

C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)

D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.

E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.

G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Study (Third Year Study, 1990 - 1993)

1. Interest assumption decreased from 9% to 8%.

2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.

3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).

III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.

1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 30% of the DAC upon retirement at any age. (The DAC for 1999 is $39,337.00 and for 2000 is $40,805.00.)

2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on Disability Leave.

3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.

4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)

- B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.

FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)

STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation

INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility

- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.

- C. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.

2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.

3. Upon the death of a clergy person, surviving spouses who married the clergy person after retirement may continue health insurance coverage at their own expense. Application should be made within thirty days of the date of death to the Conference Group Administrator in the Treasurer's Office.

4. Health care insurance is furnished for the dependent children of all deceased clergy who were active or retired full members of the NC Annual Conference at the time of death. This coverage continues until the age of 26 provided that the child is a full-time student and unmarried.

Disabled dependent children are continued on the Conference's health insurance program.

This coverage is funded through the Board of Pensions.

- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers

(The following Item V. was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains Medicare eligibility or the dissolution of the marriage.
3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.

- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 2000 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have the following hospital and life insurance benefits paid by the Conference Board of Pensions:

- a. Before the retired pastor and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired pastor will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the difference between the minister's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired pastor must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer's Office.

- b. If a pastor, who prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired pastor must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.

- c. Upon a pastor's or retired pastor's spouse reaching the age of Medicare eligibility, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay for the retired pastor/pastor's spouse's Medicare Supplement.

2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference is responsible for the individual health insurance premium payments as described in #1 above. When he/she attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay a share of the remaining health insurance premium costs by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%

4	20%	80%
2	10%	90%

This payment formula remains in effect throughout the participant's lifetime.

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 1996] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinue as Full-time Local Pastors, ¶345, or Probationary Members, ¶318.6, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶355.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶356; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶357.1; who surrender the ordained ministerial office, ¶357.2; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶357.3; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶358.3 are ineligible to receive health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits begin.
4. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the Medicare supplement paid for those covered under Medicare, provided the ineligibility is not due to a refusal to come under Part B. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
5. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.
- C. The North Carolina Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses is $1,000,000.

VIII. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

IX. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1999 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used:

"I received $_____ from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Incorporated in Missouri; and $_____ from the Duke Endowment (total $_____) as reported on the attached 1099 - R's. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because $_____ * has been excluded under provisions of IRC Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as a rental allowance exclusion. As a retired clergy person, I am entitled to take this rental allowance exclusion." (In this blank put the least of the 3 amounts on your Housing Exclusion Worksheet.)

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

(See New Sections under VIII.B(1)(e), XIA, XII.B(3) that are Written in Italics)

I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

A. Conference Contributions - Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items, and this amount shall become part of the Fund.

B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.)

C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions - The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.

D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

E. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

Any funds, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the lesser of the member's Exclusion Allowance as determined in subsection B of this Article VIII or the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection C of this Article VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limits on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code sections 403(b)(2) and 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with those Code sections.

B. Maximum Exclusion Allowance Pursuant to Code Section 403(b)(2) - The member's Exclusion Allowance shall, for any calendar year of the member, be an amount determined under whichever of the following rules (1), (2) or (3) are applicable:

(1) General Rule: Unless paragraph (2) or (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the member's Exclusion Allowance for the calendar year shall be equal to the excess, if any, of:

(a) The amount determined by multiplying 20% of such member's includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), for the most recent 12 months of service ending on the last day of the calendar year by the participants period of service as of the close of such calendar year; over

(b) The aggregate of the amounts which have been contributed by the member's employer, including allocations of base benefits or dividends to a member's accounts pursuant to Articles VI and VII hereof, to Qualifying Retirement Plans for such member, to the extent such contributions were excludable from the gross income of the member for all calendar years ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined.

(c) "Qualifying Retirement Plan" as used in this Article VIII shall mean and include:

(i) Any Code section 403(b) plan, but only to the extent that contributions to such plan with respect to the member are vested at the close of the calendar year ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined; and

(ii) Any pension plan qualified under Code section 401(a) or 403(a) whether or not contributions with respect to the member are vested.

(d) A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (1) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service which is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

(e) A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service under Section VIII.B(1)(d). Such term shall not include utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.

(2) Election to Have Exclusion Allowance Determined Under Code Section 415. If a member elects to have his or her Exclusion Allowance determined under the election provided in Code section 415(c)(4)(C), his or her Exclusion Allowance shall be the amount determined under subsection C, and for this purpose, contributions to any other defined contribution plan required to be aggregated with this plan under Code section 415(e)(5) shall be treated as contributions to this plan.

(3) Minimum Contribution Ceiling. The minimum Exclusion Allowance that shall be applicable to any member to a calendar year shall be the lesser of:

- (a) Three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) or
- (b) The excess of, (i) the amount of includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), received by the member for the calendar year, over (ii) any amount contributed to this Fund. In the case of a member performing services outside the United States, the amount described in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be zero.

If this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the limitations of Article VIII.C shall be treated as being not less than the limitation determined under this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B. This paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B shall not apply to a member for any calendar year in which the members adjusted gross income (determined separately and without regard to any community property laws) exceeds seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000).

C. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415 - A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (1) 25% of the member's compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3) in such calendar year, or
- (2) $30,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.C to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(4) or Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

D. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the ministers death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶1355.1, 355.2a, 355.2b, 355.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

(1) Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions.

(2) Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited.

(a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account including accrued dividends and interest and is subject to income tax.

(b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining principal balance and will be subject to income tax. This six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G) and Proposed Treas. Reg. section 1.401(a)(9)-2.

Under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four quarters ending prior to the date on which the minister terminates or retires. Any remaining payments will draw simple interest annually at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the member terminates or retires.

B. Direct Rollovers

(1) This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(2) Definitions:

(a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).

(b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, or an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code) that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.

(c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

(d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

(3) Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).

XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
- C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
- D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.
 - B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI.
- Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
- B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing Committee

A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

- (1) The specific reason or reasons for denial;
- (2) Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
- (3) A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
- (4) An explanation of the plans claim procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.

B. Delegation of Authority - The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.

C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member of beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.

D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the members beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.

E. Facility of Payment - Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.

F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.

G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

H. Limitations on Liability - The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

Peru Covenant, Task Force on

Ten years ago, the North Carolina Conference (NCC) first entered into the covenant we share with the Methodist Church of Peru (IMP). We are convinced that the vision for the covenant was a gift from God and crafted by God's grace from a mutual, earnest desire among Christians to be in relationship across cultural contexts. Through fellowship, love, worship, and study this covenant is one in which we seek to work out our salvation faithfully.

The differences of cultural experiences, how the Christian faith has been appropriated and shaped in very different contexts, and the differences in economic status challenge us to examine our churches and our own personal faith journey. This Covenant has found its model in the tradition of Wesley's Class Meetings, in a covenant of discipleship, in which we hold one another accountable for our spiritual growth while "watching over one another in love."

The Covenant has centered around two primary relationships: between the conferences (and local churches) and the seminary of our two churches Comunidad Biblia Teologica (CBT) in Lima and Duke in Durham. The integration of ministry with theological and biblical reflection has given spiritual depth to our work and life together.

We give thanks to God for broadening our vision in a year of mission imperatives: We welcomed four delegates and two visitors to our 1998 Annual Conference; six youth and three adults from three districts visited their counterparts in Iglesia Metodista del Peru last July; the North Carolina Conference responded to the Church's invitation to be present at their 1999 assembly in February; in April we sent a team from five districts to work with almost 200 pastors, laity, and youth from their seventy churches. These three teams represent our commitment to this outreach in many ways: Mutual dialogue and response, continued presence in exchange of delegates to our conferences, and an increased emphasis upon hands-on ministry that brings measurable results.

This has been a year of growth and response to the continuing guidance of the Holy Spirit. While our conference visitors were here, the Task Force took the opportunity to hold serious dialogue with them, looking at the state of the covenant among all the districts, the state of the IMP, and catching the vision that has since directed our work. While focusing upon the ordained ministry and better communication, the frank discussions about the shortage of ordained pastors (two districts are pastored entirely by lay pastors), the type of theological education needed by Peruvian pastors, and the training of pastors in Methodist identity, worship, and Christian education set the tone of our meetings. We learned that some districts have no knowledge or participation in the Covenant and while we have emphasized a mutuality in prayer, we heard that an equilibrium in all areas was desired: The Peruvian Church has much to give to our North Carolina Conference and wants to participate more fully in the giving of resources; and we have gratefully received a second Peruvian pastor to work in our Conference. From these dialogues, we determined that we had worked hard and well in the areas of biblical and theological reflection; the time had come for a new level of commitment.

- The three visits in the last year demonstrate the results of our June dialogue and our September hard look at where we were headed with this relationship:

- The youth team visited two schools founded by Methodists in Lima, fellowshiped with youth, spent a day at an orphanage, and learned about slavery and racism in another context. These experiences have increased their awareness of these issues at home.

- The delegation to the assembly in February observed the first ordination of three new pastors since 1986; one woman and two men who had waited ten years or more knelt in front of the bishop, supported by others all around. The assembly voted to reopen the seminary in Lima which has been closed for a year. Working through the night, the delegates and pastors listened to the reports that came out of the committees and responded to them on the floor.

- The April 1999, workshop team spent two weeks visiting and teaching Methodism, Christian Education, Spiritual Formation and worship, Games and Team Building, Communication, Bible Study, and Arts in the Church to a gathering of nearly 200 Methodists, including youth, from all over Peru, in a conference center. This comprehensive experience demonstrates our support of pastoral formation and laity training.

We have our sights set upon a specific plan for the '99-'00 conference year. Beginning a plan of restoring and building churches and parsonages, continuing to meet the needs of teaching Christian Education. Methodist identity and worship, and support of the Breakfasts and Lunches of Love in all of the districts are our priority. We are seeking to partner congregations from both churches so that this joy of mission may be shared as new relationships are built. These emphases, building, teaching, providing for basic human need, and partnering our local churches, together form a plan for the future of a deeper covenant, the future of the IMP, a future of growth both in service to God and the expansion of the Church to God's glory.

While we, in a sense, were the "first" to reach out to IMP since their autonomy was granted in 1971, in no sense are we alone in our desire to share ministry with IMP. Volunteers in Mission has designated two sites for building teams; we plan to work with these sites and others in districts outside Lima. The Methodist Church in England is a continuing presence; the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico also is in covenant relationship, particularly with the Northern District; the Mission Society for United Methodists, as part of their covenant, has sent four missionaries to open a pastors' training center outside Lima; and a Korean Methodist Church is actively working with IMP. The NCC is committed to sharing ministry with each of these groups. IMP has much ministry to share; in partnership and cooperation with others, we may find an even deeper level of our spiritual walk.

Perhaps, after ten years, the designation as a "Task Force" is long overdue for a change; however, God is leading us deeper into the work of "task forcing" as we allow God to pull us into new areas of ministry. We are thankful for the support we have received across this conference from districts and local congregations alike. We invite you to schedule a presentation, ask about partnering with a congregation, visit our display, and pray for this Covenant and the Methodist Church of Peru.

SEXUAL ETHICS, TASK FORCE ON

Preamble

Bishop Marion M. Edwards announced the formation of a Task Force on Sexual Ethics at the 1997 Annual Conference of United Methodist Churches. Bishop Edwards requested the task force to review and perhaps update the conference policy on clergy sexual misconduct; develop resources for church related personnel; identify resources of pastoral care; train persons who might serve as advocates for individuals and local congregations; and provide district seminars on sexual harassment and misconduct.

The Task Force, in consultation with the Cabinet, designed seminars for each district within the Annual Conference. All seminars were conducted by the Samaritan Counseling Center of Athens, Georgia, which had provided similar events in the North Georgia Conference. The seminars addressed background information on the issue of clergy misconduct; recognizing appropriate boundaries; ethical considerations; and information regarding how to reduce the natural risk inherent in the responsibilities of ministry. The mandatory seminars were offered August 28-30 and September 11-13, 1998. Two additional make up sessions were offered on October 9, 1998, and January 23, 1999.

The North Carolina Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration offered financial funding for the seminars through supplemental appropriations at the request of the Task Force. Financial funding for similar seminars for new clergy will also be made through supplemental appropriations for 1999, 2000, 2001. Seminars for 2002 and beyond will be placed within the Annual Conference budget.

All clergy appointed to extension ministries either participated in seminars on sexual ethics, or were asked to provide verification that they have already received similar instruction. Henceforth, all clergy new to our Annual Conference will automatically receive this information within the normal orientation process.

The Task Force has reviewed our conference policy, resources for church related personnel, and pastoral care issues, and has concluded its work. Appreciation is offered to the members of our conference Task Force for their continued work on behalf of our Annual Conference:

Carol Goehring, Paul Leeland, Co-Chairs; Bill Gattis, Ray Gooch, Susan Pate-Greenwood, Tom Holtsclaw, Rob Huckaby, Belton Joyner, Toni Small, Julie Southwick, Julie Steele, Brent Laytham, Carolyn Lucas, Ruth H. Stevens ('97-'98), Glenda Johnson ('98-'99), Cabinet Representatives.

The Task Force offers the proposed policy on professional sexual misconduct with the following recommendations:

1. We move the adoption of this policy for monitoring and correcting the misbehavior of North Carolina Annual Conference church professionals regarding their sexual conduct.
2. We move that a sub-committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry be named to oversee the implementation of this policy.

A PROPOSED POLICY ON PROFESSIONAL SEXUAL MISCONDUCT FOR THE NC CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

I. PURPOSE

A church professional is in a position of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. Church professionals sometimes violate the trust given them. Sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust.

This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by all church professionals, both men and women, who engage in sexual misconduct.

The intent is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct.

It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in matters of sexual misconduct.

This policy, which includes procedures for complaints, will serve to guard against inappropriate behavior and will outline a means for handling grievances should sexual misconduct occur.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

All persons are created by God. In the Genesis stories, as in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, it is affirmed that we are created in the image and likeness of God. God values human life, intending all women, men and children to have worth and dignity in all relationships with God and others. God calls us into covenant with each other in God. We are one connected body, holy in Christ, created equal. Where one part of the body is injured, physically, emotionally or spiritually, the entire body is rendered less than God's intended wholeness. We are called to use our bodies, including our sexuality, in a responsible way. Sexual misconduct of any kind violates a person's integrity and is an unjust use of status and power, and a sinful behavior against God and one another. The United Methodist Book of Resolutions (1996, p. 481) states:

"Jesus was sent into this world that we might experience whole relationships with each other and God. 'There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus' (Galatians 3:28 RSV)."

One who repents for sinful behavior is promised forgiveness. However, discipline should be distinguished from forgiveness. A church professional guilty of sexual misconduct needs and may receive forgiveness and be offered avenues for redemption and change. And yet, the church must still take steps to protect the people of God.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Sexual misconduct occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member or other person (adult, teenager or child) within the professional relationship. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment and any form of criminal sexual conduct.

B. Sexual Harassment includes unwanted sexual advances or demands, either verbal or physical, and may be demeaning, humiliating, intimidating, or coercive, often resulting from exploitation of power. Sexually oriented humor or language, questions or comments about sexual behavior or preference, unwelcome or undesired physical contact, inappropriate comments about clothing or physical appearance, or repeated requests for social engagements are sexual harassment in a situation where there is an employment, mentor, or colleague relationship between the persons involved. Sexual harassment may include the development or attempted development of a sexual or romantic relationship between a church professional and a person with whom he/she has a ministerial relationship, whether or not there is apparent consent from the individual.

C. Complainant is a person who communicates a concern regarding alleged sexual misconduct.

D. Grievant is a person who submits a written allegation of sexual misconduct. A grievant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

E. For the purposes of this policy, a church professional is a clergy person, diaconal minister, or local pastor whose appointment is set by the Bishop.

IV. SEXUAL ETHICS SUPPORT TEAMS

A. The purposes of the support teams:

1. To provide support to the complainant, the accused, and the congregation affected by allegations or incidents of sexual misconduct.
2. To provide the complainant with a safe, non-threatening environment within the church family in which he/she can reveal allegations of sexual misconduct and receive support, compassion, and direction.
3. To provide support, compassion, and direction for a person accused of sexual misconduct.
4. To offer congregations affected by incidents of sexual misconduct support and recommendations regarding care and healing for their community and the individuals and families involved.
5. To offer information about the sexual misconduct policy to persons who are referred to the support team.

B. The makeup of the support teams:

1. A support team or teams may be named by the Bishop.
2. A support team may consist of three or more persons who are sensitive to issues of sexual harassment, misconduct and abuse. A team may include church professionals (clergy or diaconal), mental health professionals and lay persons. Members of a support team may be chosen from within and beyond the North Carolina Annual Conference.
3. Training on issues of sexual misconduct shall be available and the names of persons receiving such training shall be made available to the Bishop. Such training shall be the responsibility of those to whom the Bishop assigns said responsibility.

C. Structure and Function

1. A team may be instructed by the Bishop to respond to the needs of any or all of the following: complainant or grievant, the accused professional, the congregation.
2. A team will:
 - a. explain the procedures available within the structures of the church for dealing with the problem;
 - b. offer resources and consultation to the accused professional, the complainant and/or the congregation and assist in any appropriate manner;
 - c. encourage the person making the allegation to keep a diary listing time, place, and nature of the offenses;
 - d. support the person if they choose to submit a written grievance;

e. accompany the person to meetings with the church authorities if he/she desires it.

V. PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING

AND RESPONDING TO COMPLAINTS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

A. Anyone who desires to discuss a concern regarding sexual misconduct may contact their pastor, another United Methodist clergy person, a district superintendent, the Bishop, or a person trained to function as a member of a Sexual Ethics Support Team.

B. The provisions of §§ 358, 413 and 2623-2629 of The Book of Discipline (1996) shall determine the procedure.

C. When an allegation of misconduct is subject to mandatory reporting requirements by the state (as in the case of a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting), it shall be reported to the Bishop, and to the appropriate authorities and agencies.

D. When appropriate the Bishop may utilize the services of one or more of the Sexual Ethics Support Teams.

E. Upon completion of the 2000 General Conference of The United Methodist Church (April 2000) if new judicial processes go into effect related to complaints against clergy or diaconal ministers, these changes shall supersede fair process and grievance procedures for clergy contained in The Book of Discipline (1996) which are referenced in this policy document.

SPECIAL CONFERENCE FUNDS, COMMITTEE ON

Proposed Structure for Funding the Unfunded Pension Liability

The NC Annual Conference is called by God to Jesus' work. That broad mandate includes many different ministries. One of the NC Conference's ministries is to fund the pensions of retired clergy whose pension benefits are provided under the pre-1982 pension plan. Those pensions are in part unfunded and so that ministry is called an unfunded pension liability. The NC Conference currently has a plan in place to pay that liability; that plan is underwritten in our apportionments in the line item called "Past Service Liability - Pensions."

While the annual conference is funding other ministries through our conference budget, the Church's Lord calls us to fund new and emerging ministries, as well as, its existing ministries. While fulfilling our commitment to the past service liability, we will continue moving forward in ministry, not retreating.

The future funding of the NC Conference's ministries will require new and creative means of explaining and promoting our connection's work. United Methodists will be approached at every level—the local church, the district, and the annual conference—with an on-going educational campaign to explain both the scope of our ministry and the call for each church member to support that ministry financially. This educational effort will be necessary to garner support for conference identified priorities by showing our priorities to be the call of Christ in our lives. The future funding of NC Conference supported ministries will require prioritizing our work and identifying both significant and new ministries which will require a focused effort from all the conference's constituencies to fund. The process of prioritizing and educating will be a large scaled effort. CF&A has appointed a task force to help the annual conference develop more comprehensive long-range plans for funding our ministries and to dialogue about our funding priorities. Growth in ministry and service for Jesus Christ are our goals.

To respond to all these needs for ministry, the following structure for funding the NC Conference's unfunded pension liability is proposed:

1. That the 1991 Plan for Funding Pensions for Pre-1982 Service will be continued. The annual conference will increase yearly the "Past Service Liability - Pensions" apportionments as set forth in the 1991 Plan. This increase is planned to be approximately $200,000 per year. In the 1991 Plan, the increases will plateau in approximately 2015, thereafter gradually decreasing until the past service liability is subscribed in 2021. Constant monitoring of the conference's position in terms of where we stand relative to the liability and our ability to pay it will be done to insure that when the liability is being adequately addressed we can begin to modify the 1991 Plan and its attendant apportionment increases.
2. The apportionment "Past Service Liability - Pensions" will be promoted as a chief responsibility of each charge. 100% payment of this apportionment will be upheld as a matter of the utmost importance to enable the conference to keep faith with its retired clergy and their families and to enable the conference to address other missions with its other apportioned funds.
3. That the Council on Finance and Administration will be asked to grant annually a supplemental appropriation to help fund our unfunded pension liability after insuring that the "Past Service Liability - Pensions" apportionment line item will be paid in full. That is, that CF&A will first be asked each year to insure that the past service line item is going to be paid at 100% and then will be asked to make an additional payment on the liability with a supplemental appropriation as funds permit. While no future CF&A can be bound by previous action, this proposal asks for an understanding of the imperative nature of satisfying this responsibility and a moral commitment that due consideration will be given to this need annually. Such supplemental appropriations will save the annual conference millions of dollars across the liability's over 50 year pay-out period, by accruing interest earnings which we can use as part of our pension payments.

4. That Retired Pastors' Day be an annual observance, held sometime during the fall in each charge, for the purposes of:
 - renewing each charge's understanding that our work with retired clergy and their families is a ministry, a mission;
 - honoring our retired clergy and their spouses;
 - interpreting to the local church or continuing support of retired clergy and their spouses through the conference's retirement benefits;
 - giving retired clergy an opportunity to share news of their continuing ministries and to witness to the support our pension program gives them.
5. That the bishop be asked to appoint a successor committee to the current Committee on Special Conference Funds. This successor committee shall be named "The Pension Funding Committee" and shall consist of one layperson representing the Board of Pensions; one layperson representing CF&A; one retired clergyperson; one active clergyperson; and eight others appointed for their expertise and willingness to raise funds to retire the unfunded pension liability. The Pension Funding Committee's major responsibilities shall be:
 1. To relate and to give oversight, in cooperation with the UM Foundation and its director, to the Director of Current Giving whose new title shall be Pension Funding Director.
 2. To assist the Pension Funding Director in cultivating all available sources of direct giving for the purpose of retiring our unfunded pension liability, including current and deferred gifts. The Director's work was authorized and approved by the 1997 Session of Annual Conference. The position is to continue as a part-time ministry until 2000 when it is to become full-time. The Director's work includes the promotion of annual conference efforts to fund our liability and to work to solicit gifts to underwrite the liability.
 3. To monitor our work in funding the unfunded pension liability, making periodic reports to the annual conference, the bishop, the Cabinet, the Board of Pensions, and CF&A. This action disbands the "Committee on Special Conference Funds," as well as, more accurately names the committee.
 4. That consideration of a capital funds campaign for the purpose of retiring a portion of our unfunded pension liability be delayed. The viability of a campaign should be re-evaluated:
 - a. When the future impact of the current funding plan on the annual conference's budget is more clearly known; and/or;
 - b. When the annual conference can better determine whether or not we will meet giving goals established by the Committee on Pension Funding. Meeting these goals, and the conference's response to the funding plan currently in place, may determine that a campaign will not be necessary. Or, not meeting such goals, and response to the current plan, may determine that a campaign is necessary; and/or;
 - c. In six (6) years (approximately 2005). In 2005 a review of the achievements of the previous five points will be made and the advisability of campaign determined. Such a determination should also consider actuarial projections then available and the status of the annual conference budget at that time. A delay will better enable us to assess our position relative to the unfunded pension liability. The last seven years have been ones of extraordinary earnings gains, as well as, some actuarial gains. An additional delay will probably give us a more accurate long-term forecast both of our assets and our liabilities.

(Current projections estimate that funding for the unfunded pension liability will have to continue through the mid-point of the next century. The 1980 General Conference mandated that our liability be current as of 2021. Our current funding plan achieves that goal and assumes that after 2021 we will fund the liability through the conference budget, making a sufficiently large payment each year after 2021 to remain on a current basis. Obviously, we will be better able to gauge the accuracy of these projections in the future. Future sessions of the General Conference may have other directions for the annual conferences, who like us, are currently funding their pension liabilities.)

(Approved and Recommended to the Annual Conference at a Joint Meeting of the Board of Pensions; Cabinet, CF&A, and Committee on Special Conference Funds.)

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference has continued to discharge responsibilities as detailed in ¶2512-2516 of the Book of Discipline. The primary responsibilities of Conference Trustees include holding legal title to Conference property, receiving donations and administering bequests, receiving closed or abandoned church property, and intervening in situations to protect the interest of the Annual Conference. Since the last regular session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the trustees have sold three church sites.

 Johnson Chapel United Methodist Church, Wilmington District – Oct. 16, 1998
 Evans United Methodist Church, Elizabeth City District – Nov. 3, 1998
 St. Frances United Methodist Church, Elizabeth City District – Nov. 23, 1998
 In the case of the St. Frances Church, title to the property was given to a local historic association. In addition, the trustees of that foundation have permission to move the building back to its original site for restoration. Both Evans Church and Johnson Chapel were conveyed to other valid Christian ministries.

A further role of the trustees is to recommend action to the Conference regarding sale, lease, purchase and other disposition of property for conference interests and mission. Currently, the Board of Trustees holds and manages the United Methodist Building (Conference Headquarters), the episcopal residence and five staff parsonages. In addition, the Trustees hold title to approximately fifteen closed church properties and maintains insurance on them.

At the last Annual Conference, the Board of Trustees presented a resolution which was adopted requesting our bishop appoint a task force to consider re-location of the conference headquarters. A separate report follows that details the work of this task force.

Your Conference Board of Trustees expresses gratitude to Dr. Allen Norris, Conference Business Administrator, Ms. Sharon Strother, Ms. Caroline Buckland, Ms. Alison Smith, Ms. Eva Mathers and other members of the staff for the execution of our work. In these days of change we seek your comments and suggestions and your prayers always for the work entrusted to us.

1999 REPORT ON THE UNITED METHODIST BUILDING by the NC Conference Board of Trustees

At the 1998 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Trustees asked that the Annual Conference request appointment of a task force to study relocation of the Conference offices. This resolution was adopted by the Conference.

In addition to Bishop Edwards, the following persons were appointed to the Task Force: Kermit L. Braswell, Belton Joyner, Allen Norris, Hope Morgan Ward, Steve Compton, Mack Parker, David Brownlee, Ed Wilson, Sandra Wilson, and from the Conference Trustees, Charles Carpenter, Jack Reed and William Simpson.

The current location of the Conference offices is in the downtown area of Raleigh. Due to the farsighted vision of leaders of this Conference 40 years ago, we have been blessed with a useful facility. Because it was built large enough for additional office space to be rented, income from these additional leases has funded maintenance and repairs through the years.

The present building was built in 1961, on 3½ acres of land obtained from the Methodist Home for Children. The building itself has almost 43,000 square feet of which some 40% of the office space is rented out. A recent appraisal shows the value of building and land at 2¾ million dollars.

The Conference also owns a one and one-half acre tract which joins the site of the Conference headquarters. This is the location of the Raleigh Towne Apartments which are wholly leased to a corporation for 50 years beginning in 1964. There are 51 townhouses on this tract and the Conference receives $10,500 per year in ground lease.

The Task Force and the Trustees recognize that the Conference United Methodist Building represents a valuable asset. It was built 38 years ago, however, and maintenance is a growing issue. We have spent between $300,000 and $400,000 on mechanical upgrades in the last few years. Soon a roof will need replacing. No longer do the lease fees cover the costs. We will have to turn to the Conference for additional funding to keep this building useable.

There is also the realization that a new facility could better serve our needs. While we are grateful for those who made this building possible through their vision, today we recognize that we need additional conference room areas and office space.

Discussion has centered on pursuing a joint venture with the Commission on Congregational Development utilizing property bequeathed by Mr. Olaf Wakefield, who was a member of the St. Mark's Church in Raleigh, for a new church. The Task Force has been looking at ways to develop the property for multiple use with the possibility of having a new church, the Conference Headquarters, and other related missions on the same site. The sixteen-acre tract on Six Forks Road is near the intersection with the northern loop, I-540. Because of legal issues regarding land use, the Falls of the Neuse watershed and zoning, the Task Force has retained Mr. Tom Worth, noted Raleigh attorney, as counsel.

This represents an interim report on the work of the Task Force. No specific action is required at this point. The Task Force will report on its progress and its continuing work at a future time.

RESOLUTIONS

OPPOSING A STATE LOTTERY

WHEREAS in The Book of Discipline in the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church 167g says "As an act of faith and concern, Christians should abstain from gambling...." And

WHEREAS in the same paragraph it says "The Church should promote standards and personal lifestyles that would make unnecessary and undesirable the resort to commercial gambling - public lotteries- as a recreation, as an escape or as means of producing public revenue and or funds for the support of charities or government." And

WHEREAS according to the Terry Sanford Institute for Public Policy at Duke University study on state lotteries showed that per capita sales of lottery tickets were twice as high in neighborhoods that had average household incomes under $20,000 a year than those neighborhoods where the average household income was over $40,000 a year. And

WHEREAS in that same study of public lotteries there were more lottery outlets in poor neighborhoods. And

WHEREAS in a article in Money magazine in May 1996 showed that of the $32.1 billion the states only kept $11 billion and Money's six month investigation showed that public lotteries had not lowered taxation nor boosted funding for education. And

WHEREAS a state lottery supports the notion of getting something for nothing. And WHEREAS a state lottery bill is likely to be debated by the NC General Assembly and it is quite likely to become a ballot referendum.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church goes on record as opposing a state lottery. And

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution go the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives and President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate and all members of the NC General Assembly along with a letter from the Bishop and cabinet. And

WHEREAS the Holy Scriptures reveal that disciples of Jesus Christ are accountable to God to provide those in their employ a just wage as declares in James 5:4, "Look! The wages you fail to pay the workman who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty."

WHEREAS many times these families that find themselves in this situation includes children, and in fact the average age of a homeless person is 9 years of age, and

WHEREAS we as United Methodists during this quadrennium are focused on children and poverty and

WHEREAS the best way out of poverty is the will of an individual to work and better themselves. Having a situation of employment that pays well enough to take care of necessities and not just live pay check to pay check and

WHEREAS we as United Methodists in our long social witness have affirmed the rights of people to decent working conditions and wages.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church encourage local churches and United Methodist related institutions to pay workers a livable wage based on local housing costs and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by our example we encourage all employers in North Carolina to pay their workers a livable wage. In partnership with government and local business we as a church do make covenant to confront our communities with a consistent message that hard work and individual responsibility are the tools we must take up to break the cycle of poverty so many are trapped in.

WHEREAS the recommendation of the GCFA/GCOM Joint Task Force on Special Sundays to combine Peace with Justice Sunday with Human Relations would cut annual conference proceeds in half from Peace with Justice Sunday and

WHEREAS there is no proof that fewer special Sundays would mean greater giving.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church goes on record as opposing the combining Peace with Justice Sunday with Human Relations Day and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference opposes any cuts in annual conference proceeds from Peace with Justice Sunday and sends this resolution as a petition to General Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church continue to join hands with our brothers and sisters in those countries to help rebuild them.

PETITION TO 2000 GENERAL CONFERENCE TO AMEND VOTING MEMBERSHIP IN ¶ 502, THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church emphasizes the ministry of all Christians through partnership in ministry between clergy and laity, and

WHEREAS, fairness in General Conference delegate representation is best achieved by each professing church member having equal weight (one person, one vote); and

WHEREAS, ¶502 of The Book of Discipline 1996 provides the formula for composition of the voting delegates of the General Conference which is based on both a 'clergy' factor and a 'lay' factor,' and

WHEREAS, this formula was adopted by the 1968 General Conference, when The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church were brought together through a plan of union; and

WHEREAS, the allocation of delegates under this formula has changed significantly over the last 30 years because the number of clergy has increased and the number of laity has decreased.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the General Conference of The United Methodist Church amend and revise the following subsections of ¶502 as follows:

"3.a) Change '140 clergy' to '375 clergy' in both places that this term is used in this subsection; and

- "3.b) Change '44,000 members' to '26,000 members' in both places that this term is used in this subsection."

REPRESENTATION ISSUES OF GENERAL CONFERENCE: A centerpiece of The United Methodist Church for decades has been its quest for fairness and justice. Each General Conference (GC) has expressed concerns and taken actions to ensure that our church is in the forefront of proclaiming justice and fairness to the world. And yet one of the most basic justice issues within the Church, the fairness of representation at GC, has been consistently getting worse during the last 26 years.

In 1968 the unifying GC established a formula for annual conference representation which allocated one-half of GC delegate's based on the number of clergy and the other half on lay membership. Under this 1968 formula each annual conference receives one clergy delegate and one lay delegate for each 144 clergy members as well as one clergy delegate and one lay delegate for each 44,000 lay members. Because of the makeup of our church in 1968, the 144/44,000 formula resulted in one-half of GC delegates being based on the clergy membership of all annual conferences and one-half being based on the total lay membership of the church. The Constitution also sets a limit of 1,000 delegates for any GC (505 laity and 505 clergy) and provides a minimum of two delegates (one lay and one clergy) for any conference too small to be allocated delegates under the formula.

The basic premise of the 1968 formula in effect defined fairness in representation as the one person one vote concept of democracy based on clergy and lay membership. Generally speaking, a democracy will either provide one governing body with voting members based on equality in representation or two governing bodies where one body is based on equality, of representation and the other based on equal representation from the authorized components of the organization or country. The UMC has one governing body. Justice in representation might be defined as making sure all parts of the body are represented while disenfranchising no one. Justice and fairness are without doubt very interwoven in the context of democratic representation.

The 1968 formula produced a relatively fair and just allocation of 1972 GC delegates. However, over the past 26 years several changes in our church have produced serious inequities in annual conference representation. One major change is that the number of clergy (which includes retired clergy, permanent deacons and lay pastors) has increased while the lay membership of the church has decreased. Another major change is that the decline in membership and increase in clergy has not been uniform throughout the church. The bottom line is that the laity of our denomination are significantly unfairly under-represented by the 1968 formula.

Here are a few (actual) examples of how the 1968 formula produced injustice at the 1996 GC and is not fair to all concerned:

1. Dakotas Conference had 48,651 members and 4 delegates while another conference with 6,000 fewer members had 6 delegates.
2. Louisiana had 12 delegates but another conference with almost 15,000 fewer members had 16 delegates.
3. Texas had 278,930 members and 24 delegates, while another conference with only 800 more members had 6 more delegates.
4. There were two conferences smaller by as much as 18,000 members than Western Pennsylvania, but each had two more delegates.
5. Mississippi is almost identical in size to another conference which had four more delegates.
6. One Central Conference reported a total of 395 clergy and 66,901 lay members and had 32 delegates while North Georgia with 986 clergy and 286,515 laity had 24 delegates.

None of the unfairness has been intentionally brought about by the GC or the annual conferences which are over represented. We should not think of this as an injustice being purposely perpetuated on a selected group of fellow Christians. It is a matter of our not focusing on the injustice as it evolved. We have not called fellow members of our Christian community to be intentional in correcting the problem as it intensified. We have not been proactive in looking out for one another. Those in disenfranchised conferences have been hesitant about bringing the problem to light for fear of being thought of as self-serving. However, not asking for justice or being complacent about known injustice are, of themselves, an accommodation to the problem.

There is some value in having the two-part formula and the provision for minimum representation. For instance, it is easier to measure the number of clergy under appointment and possibly even more accurate than total membership. We all desire input from central and provisional conferences. But when Annual Conferences, Jurisdictions and Central Conferences are so far out of line when measuring fairness in one legislative body to produce figures such as those mentioned above, our church through General Conference needs to be proactively finding better answers than a formula based upon the makeup of the Church 30 years ago.

HISTORY: Delegates to General Conference, prior to 1968, were allocated on the basis of the number of clergy in the Annual Conference. The "two factor formula" was created during the merger process with the Evangelical United Brethren. It worked well in 1972. However, no mechanism for modification was included in the Discipline. Therefore, as things have changed during the years, the formula has become more and more inadequate to the task of providing a fair and representative allocation of General Conference delegates. In a nutshell, two significant reasons for this are:

1. Retired clergy, permanent deacons and lay pastors, who are all included in the clergy count for the Annual Conference, have swelled the numbers of clergy while the membership of the church has declined within the US.

2. Non-US representation has increased dramatically as the number of central and provisional conferences have increased.

OUR RATIONALE: The resolution passed by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1996, which calls for one delegate for every 10,000 total (laity plus clergy) members, would require a full scale constitutional change in the Discipline. Given the likelihood that such a change might not clear the legislative committee, or might well be defeated on the Conference floor, or fail to be ratified by the annual conferences, we are recommending a modification to the Discipline which 51% of the General Conference delegates can approve.

Our numbers, one delegate for every 375 clergy and one for every 26,000 laity do not get us all the way to the goal of one person, one vote. It does, however, move us significantly closer to that goal.

We believe the issue of representation is a significant justice issue for the church. The laity of the Southeastern and South Central jurisdictions are unfairly under-represented. Our Resolution will not eliminate all the injustice and will even continue some injustice. Any formula other than one based on total membership will be deficient. However, we believe it will take us closer to equity among the jurisdictions, which is a first step.

OPPOSITION TO CHANGING WORDING OF DIVISION ONE, ¶ ARTICLE IV, THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE

WHEREAS, as reported by the UMNS News Desk on Tuesday, April 13, 1999, that the United Methodist Board of Church and Society has approved a resolution to be sent to General Conference that would incorporate sexual orientation in constitutional language about inclusiveness.

WHEREAS, the proposed substitute paragraph for Division One, Article IV, "Inclusiveness of the Church," reads: "The United Methodist Church is a part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. Therefore, all persons are welcomed to attend its worship services, encouraged to participate in its ministries, and, upon taking appropriate vows, received into membership in any local congregation in the connection. Acknowledging that all persons are of sacred worth, no local congregation, conference or other organization unit of The United Methodist Church shall exclude any person or any group because of race, color, national origin, age, gender, disability, (sexual orientation added), marital status, or economic condition."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church oppose the addition of "sexual orientation" to Division One, Article IV of the Book of Discipline.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that upon passage of this resolution a copy be sent to the General Conference for consideration.

OPPOSITION TO CHANGING 165G IN THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

WHEREAS, as reported by the UMNS News Desk on Tuesday, April 13, 1999, that the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has drafted a resolution for General Conference to amend ¶ 165G in the United Methodist Social Principles. The paragraph currently affirms homosexual persons as "individuals of sacred worth" but considers homosexuality "incompatible with Christian teaching."

WHEREAS, the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns' resolution would change the sentence from "Although we do not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching, we affirm that God's grace is available to all" to "although faithful Christians disagree on the compatibility of the practice of homosexuality with Christian teaching, we affirm that God's grace is available to all persons."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church oppose any change in ¶ 165G.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that upon passing of this resolution a copy be sent to the General Conference for consideration.

TO MAINTAIN THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

WHEREAS, a motion made by Miguel Cassanova, Jr. of Gardners UMC, Fayetteville; seconded by Tom Walden, Wake Forest UMC, Wake Forest and passed by the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men is as follows:

WHEREAS, we the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men, during our November 7, 1998 Fall Rally, do hereby resolve that we will abide by the scriptures, and that we affirm Bishop Edwards who supports the Social Principles as written within the Book of Discipline regarding the position of The United Methodist Church on the issue of homosexuality.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church hereby add its endorsement to the action made by the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men.

TO AMEND THE PREAMBLE TO THE SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

WHEREAS The North Carolina Conference Commission on Church and Society adopted, at its 1997 planning retreat, the following goal and vision statements:

"Our present goal is to teach the body of The United Methodist Church the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church, with the desire that the Social Principles be implemented by the people, with special emphasis on 'Children and Poverty: An Episcopal Initiative';" and

"Our guiding vision is to confront and inform The United Methodist Church, especially the North Carolina Conference, its districts and local churches, so that we might be a church inclusive of all people, offering all people equal opportunity for quality and vitality of life in Jesus' Name;" and

WHEREAS one problem in teaching and practicing our Social Principles is that most of even our own church members, if they are aware of them at all, perceive them to be a massive but scattered smattering of social statements. This often confuses and overwhelms our members, leading either to relative social inaction, mere re-action to whatever social issue society and/or the church is emphasizing, or conflicting actions on related issues even within our own United Methodist connection; and

WHEREAS the initial report of The United Methodist Church Connectional Processing Team, in Part V, Section D, 2d says that "Determining appropriate content for the Social Principles is another area of challenge. It is time to reexamine our Social Principles to determine their global applicability." This strongly indicates the need for our Social Principles to be based on, taught, seen and practiced as parts of one uniting principle that has global relevancy and applicability; and

WHEREAS there is one principle that potentially and ideally unites all of our present Social Principles, as well as any further ones we could adopt with integrity and wholeness. This is the principle of the sacredness of all human life as created in the image of God, Who created and desires to re-create us all in that image. If people can see and learn the Social Principles in light of the God-given sanctity of humanity, these Principles can better be practiced with consistency because the critical connection between them all, the vital theology behind them all, is clear; and

WHEREAS our present Social Principles are now inconsistent with one another, particularly in relation to this key ideal of the sacredness of humankind, and there is no clear statement binding the Principles together based on this ideal; and

WHEREAS such a statement and such a uniting principle seems basic to any attempt to add to, subtract from, or otherwise change our Social Principles without doing so in mere reactive response to our ever-changing contemporary social currents; and

WHEREAS we as Christians live in a world preoccupied with death: viewing more and more increasingly "realistic" deaths in our media; inventing a multitude of new methods and means by which to die and to kill; obsessed with gaining increasing rights to die and to kill; more and more immersed in deaths by violent crime, capital punishment, abortion, euthanasia, and so-called assisted suicide; and

WHEREAS the Gospel of Christ is a Gospel of resurrection from present and eternal death into abundant and everlasting life with God. We as Christians are people born again, raised out of death and into new life by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. We as members of the Church and Body of Jesus Christ are called to live in a world culture of death as a counterculture of life, to witness to the Gospel of Life and witness against death; and

WHEREAS The United Methodist Church is already, in part, prepared to be a counterculture of life, since we as a body emphasize the value of human life communally and in all its diversity. What we lack primarily is a primary principle that unites and empowers us to be a counterculture of life that respects the God-given sacredness of each and every human being, and to live consistently as citizens of that counterculture of life over death through all of our Social Principles and all of our Christian living;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that The Preamble to the Social Principles, as their opening and binding statement, be amended as follows (additions to the present text are in bold print, while deletions have been struck through; paragraphs are intended to be in The Discipline for easier reading):

"We, the people called United Methodist, affirm our faith in God our Creator and Father, in Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, and in the Holy Spirit, our Guide and Guard.

We acknowledge our complete dependence upon God in birth, in life, in death, and in life eternal. Secure in God's love, we affirm the goodness of life, and the sacredness of all human life as created by God in God's own image.

We confess our many sins against God's will of abundant life for us as we find it in Jesus Christ. We have not always been faithful stewards of all that has been committed to us by God the Creator. We have been reluctant followers of Jesus Christ in His mission to bring all persons into a community of love, to value the sanctity of all humankind and of each human being. Though called by the Holy Spirit to become new creatures in the risen Christ, recreated in the image of God our Father, we have resisted the further call to become the people of God in our dealings with each other and the earth on which we live.

Grateful for God's forgiving love, in which we live and by which we are judged, we affirm our belief in the inestimable worth of each individual as one who is made and can be uniquely remade by God in the very image of God. We renew our commitment to become faithful witnesses to the gospel of life in the risen Christ, not alone to the ends of the earth, but also to the depths of our common life and work, that our lives and our living may reveal God's image in all persons to the glory of God.

TO AMEND ¶68F, CRIMINAL JUSTICE

WHEREAS all human lives are valuable and redeemable, both for this life and for life eternal, but ¶68F does not mention this as a reason to oppose capital punishment; and

WHEREAS ¶68F emphasizes rehabilitation of the criminal to the neglect of reconciliation and restoration of people's lives, both criminals and victims. This fails to take into account that repentance and restitution are needed if one who has committed crimes against God and humanity is to be forgiven and truly free; and

WHEREAS the criminals' needs are overemphasized to the neglect of the needs of the victims' in ¶68F, and there needs to be punishment of criminal behavior in order for there to be true justice for victims as well as criminals;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that ¶68F in The Social Principles of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church be amended as follows:

To protect all citizens from those who would encroach upon personal and property rights, it is the duty of government to establish police forces, courts, and facilities for the confinement, punishment, and rehabilitation of offenders. We support governmental measures designed to reduce and eliminate crime that are consistent with respect for the basic freedom of persons.

We reject all misuse of these necessary mechanisms, including their use for the purpose of persecuting or intimidating those whose race, appearance, lifestyle, economic condition, or beliefs differ from those in authority; and we reject all careless, callous, or discriminatory enforcement of law.

We further support measures designed to remove the social conditions that lead to crime, and we encourage continued positive interaction between law enforcement officials and members of the community at large.

History demonstrates that the state is incapable of creating a reformatory prison environment. In practice, our corrections institutions alone can offer little more than pejorative incarceration. True inmate rehabilitation occurs not in institutions of government but in the work of the Holy Spirit to change the human heart.

We recognize that our national corrections philosophy can never match the reformatory success rate of the Gospel. We call upon every local church to become directly involved in, or supportive of, evangelical prison ministry. Also, the church should involve itself in "after-care" ministries that can help inmates following their release, as well as healing ministries to the victims of crime (violent or otherwise).

We urge the passing of laws by which, wherever possible, actual material damages and court ordered emotional and other damages should be translated into monetary values and repaid to crime victims. This would be done by those who had wronged them, through work restitution in which they work at various supervised jobs, to repay their victims and to ease the tax burden of their crimes and incarcerations.

We encourage incarceration as a social demonstration to violent or habitual criminals that they have done wrong and are being punished. Then they can make the kinds of restitutions with victims and with society that might lead to reconciliation with them, with themselves, and with their God. Such reconciliation, not mere rehabilitation, should be the ultimate goal of incarceration.

Capital punishment does not allow the opportunity for such reconciliation and restoration of life. We believe capital punishment to be contrary to the principle of the sanctity of human life as created in the image of God. For these reasons, we oppose capital punishment and urge its elimination from all criminal codes.

TO AMEND THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE'S ¶65J ON ABORTION

WHEREAS, the Church has witnessed and worked, through the ages, to protect "the least of these" (Matthew 25:40), including unborn children and their mothers; that is, from the Didache to the Church Fathers, from Martin Luther and John Calvin and John Wesley to Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer, from Albert Outler and Paul Ramsey to Mother Teresa, the teachers and teachings of the Church have consistently promoted protection of the unborn and their mothers;

WHEREAS, the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty charges us that "Nothing less than the reshaping of The United Methodist Church in response to the God Who is among 'the least of these' is required. The evaluation of everything the Church is and does in light of the impact on the children and the impoverished is the goal." Thus our policy and practice of abortion must also be reshaped for the sake of the very least of these;

WHEREAS, Children and Poverty continues: "Communities of faith shaped by God's presence with the most vulnerable represent alternatives to [not compromises with] the values and visions of the prevailing culture of might makes right, which favors the powerful over the powerless, [the born over the unborn]";

WHEREAS, ¶65J of the 1996 Book of Discipline states belief in "the sanctity of unborn human life" and "the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother;"

WHEREAS, ¶65J on abortion, as it now reads, is morally ambiguous; therefore, this paragraph is incapable of rendering moral guidance on abortion that is consistent with historic Christian teaching and with its own affirmations; this is particularly tragic in American society, which has counted over 35 million abortions performed since 1973 and now averages approximately 3,800 abortions performed each day;

WHEREAS, ¶65J's moral ambiguity has allowed The United Methodist Church's General Board of Church and Society, along with the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries, to affiliate with and support the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice, a political lobby that advocates abortion on demand in American society and contradicts ¶65J's own assertion of "the sanctity of unborn human life;"

AND WHEREAS, ¶65J is sufficiently ambiguous to allow United Methodist leaders to support, in a public way, the continued legal status of partial-birth abortion, a procedure which only the most radical advocates of abortion approve;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 1999 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church hereby charges its Conference Secretary, using the entire rationale stated above, to petition General Conference 2000, in a timely and appropriate manner, to amend ¶ 65J of The Book of Discipline to read:

¶ 65 J) ABORTION — The beginning of life and the ending of life are the God-given boundaries of human existence. While individuals have always had some degree of control over when they would die, they now have the awesome power to determine when and even whether new individuals will be born. Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion. But we are equally bound to respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother, for whom devastating damage may result from an unacceptable pregnancy. In continuity with past Christian teaching, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortion, and in such cases we support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures. We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection. We call all Christians to a searching and prayerful inquiry into the sorts of conditions that may warrant abortion. We commit our Church to continue to provide nurturing ministries to those who terminate a pregnancy, to those in the midst of a crisis pregnancy, and to those who give birth. Governmental laws and regulations do not provide all the guidance required by the informed Christian conscience. Therefore, a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel. We call upon the civil authorities to enact laws, beginning with a ban on so-called partial birth abortions, that will offer protection to the unborn human life. In a culture which devalues human life, the Church is a community of life, offering the life-giving, life-transforming gospel of Jesus Christ.

PETITION FOR A JUDICIAL COUNCIL DECLARATORY DECISION ON PORTIONS OF ¶ 602

In accord with ¶ 2616.2(j) of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the North Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina on June 9-13, 1999, petitions the Judicial Council of the United Methodist Church to issue a declaratory decision relative to the following question.

Does the requirement that a local pastor be appointed to a Pastoral Charge (¶ 602.1 and 1.d) by the Bishop to become a member of the Annual Conference violate Section VI, Article II (¶ 31) of the Constitution of The United Methodist Church which states in part, "The annual conference is the basic body in the Church and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of clergy and lay delegates to the General and the jurisdictional or central conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its clergy members."

REPORTS

BISHOPS' INITIATIVE ON CHILDREN AND POVERTY, TASK FORCE ON

We have been meeting throughout this quadrennium and have evolved from a Task Force to sub-committees to the present nine persons entitled CORE, signifying Committee on Oversight, Review and Encouragement.

District and Sub-District Hearings of resources and ministries have been held throughout the Conference. As our congregations have heard stories of changed lives, many of the churches have caught a vision for ministry to children and the impoverished of their communities. The souls of our congregations have been set on fire as our people minister to the needs of those most at risk in their own neighborhoods. In addition to the Hearings, some churches have participated in small group studies specifically designed to prepare them for involvement in the Bishops Initiative.

United Methodist churches have become involved in day care, after-school ministries, tutoring, faith mentoring, gleaning, Meals on Wheels, foster care, adoption, inner city Vacation Bible Schools, city-wide summer camps, Hispanic Vacation Bible School, Communities in Schools, Shoes to Africa,, Disciple Bible Study in Prison, AGAPE ministries, and ministries to children in Russia, Haiti, Guyana, Africa, and Peru .

During Annual Conference there will be a "Ministry Fair" where 40 ministries to children and the impoverished will present workshops to inform and inspire both lay and clergy members. As a networking tool, a booklet will be provided entitled "Beyond The Four Walls," which will describe each ministry and provide follow up information for interested congregations.

We are excited about the moving of God's Holy Spirit in the lives of our churches as we reach beyond our four walls and minister to children and those in need. Many thanks to all of you who work so diligently in response to God's call to this ministry.

1998 COMPENSATION OF CLERGY IN EXTENSION MINISTRIES

The 1996 Discipline, ¶1625, states: "Every clergy member of the Annual Conference appointed beyond the local church shall furnish annually to the conference secretary, at such time as the secretary shall direct, a statement of his/her total compensation (including base compensation, travel, automobile, housing, and other expenses allowed and paid) for the year then ending, and said compensation of all clergy appointed beyond the local church shall be published in the journal of the Annual Conference. When this information is not furnished, the appointment of the clergyperson shall be subject to review by the resident bishop and the Cabinet."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORTS

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

The purpose of the annual conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God. (The Book of Discipline, ¶601)

The Conference Council on Ministries embraces the threefold mission of the annual conference: 1) to make disciples, 2) to equip local churches for ministry, and 3) to provide a connection for ministry. We give thanks to God for all that God is doing through us and among us. We rejoice that God is using our shared ministry as a channel of blessing. "We are God's servants, working together" (I Corinthians 3:9) It is good to be in ministry together in these days.

We give thanks for the connectional nature of the United Methodist Church. In this past year, we have experienced the strength of connection. We rejoice in the generous support of the Jurisdictional and General Agencies, particularly in the areas of Restorative Justice Ministries, Hispanic Ministries, Global Ministries, Shalom Ministries, Higher Education, and Discipleship Ministries. We give thanks for collaborative efforts with the Western NC Annual Conference, especially in the areas of the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty, Restorative Justice Ministries, campus ministries, communications, and Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries. With all United Methodists, we celebrate "a common purpose" (I Corinthians 3:8).

At the February 18, 1999, meeting of the Conference Council on Ministries, great concern was expressed for clear and strong United Methodist voice in opposition to the lottery in North Carolina. A motion was made and passed overwhelmingly that the CCOM ask the Annual Conference to approve $10,000 to be used for opposition to the lottery and that these funds be channeled through the North Carolina Council of Churches for this purpose only. It is the belief of the CCOM that our strongest avenue for opposition to the lottery is an ecumenical effort in an organization in which we have voice and vote. This matter will require vote of the Annual Conference.

The report of the 22 committees, councils, and commissions of the Conference Council describe the breadth and depth of our shared ministry.

Together we give thanks for effective leadership, loving partnership, and a joyful sense of accomplishment, acknowledging "God who gives the growth" (I Corinthians 3:6).

Hope Morgan Ward, Executive Director, Conference Council on Ministries

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The spring meeting of the Commission was held at Mt. Zion UMC, Johnston County, Garner, on Saturday, March 28, 1998. We met following the NC Conference United Methodist Historical Society morning meeting at the same location with a wonderful lunch provided by the church. The program sharing the history of the church, tour of the historical displays and the church cemetery was a richly rewarding experience for all in attendance. We were all pleased to see such an outstanding commitment to historical preservation and education. We were delighted to have Mrs. Gerry Reiff, Director of the Heritage Center, Lake Junaluska, in attendance with us.

There were several people from our Conference, who attended the meeting of the SEJ Historical Society this past July 14-17, 1998. The Society was hosted by the WNC Conference at High Point University, High Point. The Rev. and Mrs. Maness Mitchell and Mr.

John Mitchell were participants at the meeting of the Historical Society of the United Methodist Church held at Little Rock, AK, September 10-13, 1998.

The fall meeting of the Commission on October 17, 1998 was hosted by the Plymouth UMC at Plymouth. The Historical Society met in the morning and experienced a presentation of the church's history with each presenter dressed in costume for the period shared. After this enjoyable and enlightening presentation, we then traveled to historic Rehoboth Church to tour the facility and the grounds. Dr. Arthur L. Whitehurst presented an informative account of the church history and present vision. Plymouth UMC provided a delicious meal for our lunch. The Commission carried out its business session completing a wonderful day in the Plymouth community.

We are continuing to offer training sessions for historians at the district training events for the local church, to give annual grants to support two historic churches in our Conference and to encourage membership in the Conference Historical Society. We have expressed concern for adequate space for storage of conference records. The Commission appreciates the work of Rev. Frank Grill, our Conference Historian, and especially his efforts to update the records of our local churches.

We appreciate the work of Mrs. Ann Veazey Davis, Editor of Saddlebags and the work of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann D. Powell, with our Conference website. Ann's address is PO Box 353, Zebulon, NC 27597-0353 and her e-mail address is annveazeydavis@mindspring.com. Our new website address is <http://www.nccumc.org/archives-history>. Membership dues for the Society are: Students, $3; Regular, $7; contributing, $25; and Patrons, $10. Send your check to John C. Mitchell, Sec-Treas., 622 Wimbledon Dr., Raleigh, NC 27609. Membership includes the Newsletter, Saddlebags, published biannually.

We pray for God's continual blessings upon the churches of our conference as we fulfill the ministry of historical preservation and the sharing of our heritage.

W. Arthur Warren, Jr., Chairperson

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns seeks to give witness to the unity in Christ which is a gift of the Holy Spirit to all Christians. This year our priorities have continued in several areas: 1) continued dialogue with other denominational bodies, 2) supporting the diversity dialogues, and 3) exploring new avenues for discussions of Christian Unity.

We continued our annual meeting with the Roman Catholic Diocesan Ecumenical Commission this fall with a shared day of service for Society of Saint Andrew. We gleaned just over 2000 pounds of sweet potatoes on a fall morning, then met for lunch in Snow Hill, NC. We continue to invite each other to high moments in our churches' life and to encourage United Methodist and Roman Catholic churches in local communities to develop relationships.

Several Commission members also serve on the Episcopal-United Methodist Dialogue, the only statewide dialogue of its kind. This year Rev. Bruce Robbins, Secretary of the General Commission on Christian Unity, and Midge Roof, a national ecumenical officer of the Episcopal Church, met with us at St. Titus Episcopal Church in Durham for a day of reflection. Commission members participate as delegates to the North Carolina Council of Churches, where continued opposition to a state lottery is voiced and supported. Commission members attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity, held in Rochester, NY this year. We continue to invite persons from other denominations to be present with us for our ordination service at Annual Conference.

We continue to explore possibilities for Pan-Methodist conversations and may participate in a pilot study project with the General Commission. Commission members have supported the conference-wide Diversity Dialogue process leading up to Annual Conference.

The Commission continues to be thankful for the leadership of Bishop Edwards in calling for the Diversity Dialogues, and to Jimmy Cummings, Council Associate Director, for their leadership and assistance with the work of the Commission.

Claire Clyburn, Chairperson

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Church and Society continues to speak to the needs of the less fortunate within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Through our grants to various agencies we have been able to help at-risk youth, the elderly and migrant farm workers. We have become keenly aware that many people in our conference do not understand the work of our commission and the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. It was our pleasure to have the Reverend Thom White Wolf Fassett, the General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society to come speak to us about the Social Principles and the work of the General Board of Church and Society. The General Board of Church and Society does much work that goes beyond the "hot button" issues. We hope to help people understand why we need such an agency in the Church.

We continue as a North Carolina Conference Commission to encourage prophetic ministries in our conference. Last year we were proud to award Reconciliation United Methodist Church the Jack and Kay Crum Award for Prophetic Ministry. We hope this award encourages churches to cross the lines of racial and economic divisions and become agents of healing and reconciliation. Indeed, this is the work of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the hope of the Commission on Church and Society.

Henry Jarrett, Chairperson

COMMUNICATIONS, COMMISSION ON

The Communications Commission has had another busy year. Bill Norton, associate director for communications, LeeAnne Thornton, administrative assistant in communications, and Laura Bailey, Media Center director work together as your communications team. They spread the Gospel through news releases, photos, stories and articles about conference, state and world events. Each month Connectings is sent to each pastor and certain local church leaders. Included with this mailing are fliers, brochures and registration forms and other current materials for church life and work. This resource keeps the local church in "connection" with the rest of the Church.

The commission published and distributed 45000 copies of the Mission and Service Commitments budget paper. This resource is used by local churches and commissions to interpret the mission and ministry of our conference and church. This paper conveys the depth and breadth of our work together, using budget detail, pictures and personal "testimonials."

Laura Bailey continues to guide and direct the work of the Media Center. We provide a vital resource to the local church with over 1000 Christian audio visual aids and lesson materials. Over 200 local churches are members of the Media Center. Members may borrow resources for the modest cost of return postage. Is your church a member? Call 1-800-849-4433 and join today.

Everywhere we turn today there is another reference to the Internet. The North Carolina Annual Conference web site is an award winning site. This past year Bill Norton and Robbie Pollock received awards for organization and design of the conference web site and a best in category award. You may visit the conference web page at: www.nccumc.org. Each pastor is encouraged to get their own conference E-mail address. This is a free service. The conference is planning to reduce postage costs by sending all notices by E-mail. Encourage all pastors to apply today. Your local church can also have their own "Home Page" on the conference server. Call Bill Norton for more details.

LeeAnne Thornton received an award of excellence in the Special Sections or Supplements category for "Our Response" and received a best in category award. Bill Norton also received an award of excellence in the Video and Films category for annual conferences for "Responses to God's Call." The commission has been an integral part of the Bishop's Task Force on Communications and the Information Highway. You will be seeing and hearing more about your denomination and conference through new and varied media sources. Keep a sharp ear and eye open.

If you have any questions, or if the commission can be of any help to you or your church, let us know.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries meets at least three times a year often at a prison unit within the bounds of the Conference. This year the Committee met at Burgaw (in Pender County) and at McCain. The McCain unit houses an older population of inmates.

One goal of the CJAMM Committee is to bring Disciple Bible Study to prisons. In 1998 there were 17 prison facilities in the North Carolina prison system which offered Disciple. A goal of 87 units offering Disciple by 2002 has been set. The committee is working collaboratively with the Western NC Conference to form Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of North Carolina. Rev. Mark Hicks, a member of the Western NC Conference, has been hired as the executive director. His office will be in High Point. Both Conferences have designated this ministry as a Conference Advance Special.

The CJAMM Committee has addressed the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty in at least 3 ways:

1. The Committee encourages support of the MATCH program which provides a homelike setting for incarcerated mothers and their children and also provides training in parenting skills for the mothers.

2. The Committee promotes the Prison Fellowship Christmas "Angel Tree" which provides incarcerated parents with Christmas gifts to give their children. This Committee has more information on how your church can have an Angel Tree.
3. The Committee is promoting and encouraging Epiphany events in youth facilities. Epiphany is an Emmaus-like event similar to Chrystalis. Like all Emmaus events, a youth prison Epiphany requires a large number of Emmaus experienced volunteers. It takes 50 volunteers for 25 "stars" -- youth inmates.

The Committee offers an updated booklet entitled "Prison Ministry Opportunities" which is available through the Conference Office, your District Superintendent, or from a member of CJAMM.

Through the various prison ministries supported by the CJAMM Committee, a tremendous mission is being carried out. Yet, as the numbers of incarcerated persons continue to increase in our state, the need for local church participation grows. The writer of Hebrews bids us to "Remember those in prison as though in prison with them." John and Charles Wesley visited Newgate prison. And Jesus reminded his disciples, "I was in prison and you visited me." The CJAMM Committee encourages every church to support prison ministries by visiting our brothers and sisters there.

DISASTER RESPONSE, COMMITTEE ON

The lives of the people of North Carolina were disrupted as Hurricane Bonnie traveled through Eastern North Carolina in the fall of 1998. The Conference Disaster Response Committee organized as the storm approached. The storm hovered over Jacksonville for several hours, then caused damage in the Elizabeth City and Greenville Districts. Bishop Marion Edwards invited UMCOR to help in our response. Before the winds stopped, a Disaster Response office was set up in the Methodist Building in Raleigh to receive teams and donations. A Disaster Recovery center was set up in the Pilmoor United Methodist Church under the leadership of Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons. The damage was localized and the districts had ownership of Disaster Response, according to the Conference Plan.

Our conference was challenged to respond to other disasters through the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission program of our conference. The Disaster Response Committee is working on a closer relationship with the UVMIM Committee.

The committee is online daily with the NC Department of Emergency Management, The American Red Cross, the UM Committee on Relief and the National Volunteer Agencies On Disasters. In 1999 our committee will assist in forming a North Carolina VAOD. Information is passed on daily to the District Coordinators and the District Superintendents when their districts are affected by disasters.

The committee this year has sent representatives to the UMCOR Training Session in St. Simeon Island, The National Hurricane Conference, and the Governor's NC Hurricane Conference. We plan to repeat this in 1999 as we continually develop leadership for disaster response. Churches were urged to take a special offering for the One Great Hour of Sharing and UMCOR's Hurricane Relief.

The Committee urges every church to appoint a Disaster Response person and to seek the help of their District Coordinator in developing their own church plan. The Committee wishes to thank all of the people who joined in disaster response in 1998. The people of the North Carolina Conference will rally to help rebuild. With your help, prayers and support, we will be ready to respond again to the needs that arise from the next disaster.

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

To grow is to be in a constant state of change! As a commission, we realize that, at times, we may need to change how we have done things to open ourselves to new and wider possibilities. Our previous concept of a "Director of Christian Education" in every district, may not be the most effective way to provide localized leadership development opportunities with the resources we currently have at hand. We are seeking discernment as we discover, encourage and intensify efforts to develop "home grown" leadership. We are open to identifying new ways to equip gifted persons with tools for nurturing ministry within the pews and communities of our local churches. Seeking to equip and empower local leadership for sharing in life-long spiritual growth and discipleship continues to be a focus of the commission. As districts continue to assess the feasibility of local "district directors of Christian education," additional equipping opportunities have been provided this year, including:

Annual day/child care providers workshop; Older adult conferences; Older adult roundtables in 3 locations; "Welfare Reform" workshops in 4 locations; "Questing for the Best" local church scholarship awards; Youth conferences and special events; Consultant leadership development and localized training; Singles retreat; Cluster area curriculum consultants; and Scholarship support for leadership development.

The "International Year of Older Persons" is 1999. Resource books will be distributed during Annual Conference '99; roundtable discussions were held on the campuses of our retirement homes; annual "Older Adult Conferences," and, "Caregiving Workshops" are being scheduled to provide concrete examples of our comprehensive commitment to equipping ministries.

Striving to provide opportunities in all corners of our conference, our popular "Day/Child Care Providers' Workshop" will be held at St. Paul Church, Goldsboro on September 25, 1999. The directors' retreat will be held at Camp Rockfish during April 2000. An intentional effort is being made to provide leadership development in each of our districts in diverse ways to best meet anticipated needs.

Collaboration, partnership, networking and cooperative learning experiences are keys to effectively utilizing the resources and energies of our local churches and communities. We celebrate the efforts to expand Bible study through a new link between Disciple Bible study participants and faith sharing with incarcerated persons.

May we continue to be open to the movement of the Spirit within us as we encourage one another in spiritual growth and discernment.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The ELCC Committee worked tirelessly to develop and distribute guidelines for Inclusiveness Grants. The grants become available in 1999 and we are happy that all of the Committee's deadlines regarding preparation for distributions have been met. To God be the glory!

In keeping with ¶626 of the Book of Discipline (1996), and, consistent with the Annual Conference's Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness, the grants will:

- * Strengthen programs/projects developed by one or more United Methodist Local Church(es) with priority given to ethnic churches.

- * Provide seed money to support mission projects that address social problems or concerns as they impact and empower racial/ethnic persons.

- * Provide programs/projects for people to work together toward a better understanding of inclusiveness.

The Committee rejoices that the vehicle is now in place whereby we strengthen ethnic ministries and churches and provide encouragement, coordination and support for conference agencies, districts and local churches in their ministries of nurture, outreach, and witness in accordance with the mission of The United Methodist Church (¶ 626).

The latest statistical data relative to certain ethnic populations in the North Carolina Annual Conference area yield projections that by the year 2004, African-American (non-Hispanic) persons will remain relatively constant at 28.3% (compared to 28.4% for 1999). However, the greatest increase in populations occurs with the Hispanic/Latino groups (3.3% in 2004 vs. 2.6% in 1999) and Asian/Other (non-Hispanic) groups (3.8% for 2004 vs. 3.4% in 1999).

These figures suggest that the role of the ELCC, along with other committees, commissions and task forces, e.g., Religion and Race, Status and Role of Women, Native American Ministries and Hispanic Ministries, et. al., is now more important and the part the Committee plays in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ within the Annual Conference's territory and beyond is now heightened. Consequently, we affirm the idea of combining and streamlining of efforts between some of these committees/commissions.

We are deeply grateful to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, for the continuing opportunities presented for ministry and for the sake of the Gospel. Likewise, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to Bishop Marion Edwards, Dr. Jimmy Cummings, and Simone Whitaker for their unwavering support and commitment to the ELCC and its mission.

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The North Carolina Conference continues to be blessed by God with growth in both numbers and Spirit. Within the bounds of the Conference, workshops were held by Rose Sims, Roger Swanson and others. Members of the Commission and CCOM staff did consultations with churches of all sizes in a variety of ministries - relational evangelism, visitation evangelism, marketing the church, worship evangelism and mission evangelism. The Commission even extended its reach overseas, helping with evangelism workshops in Lithuania.

The Commission continues to place great emphasis on the education of the clergy in the area of evangelism. The Commission held training events again for all the new pastors, participated in the License to Preach School and the Course of Study at Duke Divinity School, and with M.Div. students at Campbell University Divinity School. In addition to these in-Conference opportunities, the Commission sent a delegation of 24 to the Congress on Evangelism and sponsored pastors at other training events. The continuing efforts to educate and inspire laity and clergy are making a difference in the North Carolina Conference.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, COMMISSION ON

One of the most central ministries of Jesus was the ministry of caring and healing. Whether restoring sight to the blind, making the lame walk and lepers lose their spots, our Lord practiced what might be termed holistic healing. In his days, for example, the source of sickness and suffering were often attributed to divine punishment for either the sins of the individual or his or her parents, even grandparents. The afflicted were often ostracized by the religious community.

Consequently, in his healing ministry Jesus often focused on offering to the afflicted not only words of comfort but also the assurance of God's forgiveness and grace. The fact that he personally touched and conversed with those deemed unworthy and unwanted by the community was more than symbolic. It spoke to the presence and healing power of God made available through Jesus.

It is this healing model of ministry that provides both the rationale and impetus for the ministries of the Commission on Health and Human Services. Even as Jesus proclaimed the mandate of his ministry as to "proclaim liberty to the captives and the recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed and to announce that the time has come when the Lord will save his people" (Luke 4:19-20), so the Commission rejoices in the outstanding ministries of the agencies sharing in this God-given ministry of the church. This ministry is to the whole person, body and spirit. Ours is a ministry of holistic health.

Because the reports of the various agencies sharing in the ministries of the Commission already appear in this Journal, there is no need to duplicate what already is printed. Various trends and directions will simply be highlighted.

The Commission continues to be grateful for the outstanding leadership of Dr. Reginald Ponder, his staff and the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Home Inc. A large part of the energy of the Board has been devoted to arriving at a mutually satisfactory arrangement with Duke University Health Services and the UMRH. At this writing, the Board has discontinued the process of negotiation with Duke University Health Services.

Among the most heartening developments is the positive trends occurring within the development and marketing of the Croasdaile Village project. Because of the intentional and creative efforts in sharing the Croasdaile story, the percentage of units being sold is dramatically increasing. Facilities at Cypress Glen and Quail Village are also developing well. Dr. Ponder's reports provide greater detail of the above.

The Commission is grateful to the Reverend Michael Safley, his staff and the Board of Trustees for The Methodist Home For Children for the exciting vision for the future that has been developed. At this writing, the Board is ready to adopt the Planning and Resource Committee and Leadership Report for 1999-2000. The Childhood and Family Enrichment Center is in the process of launching a Capital Campaign. An exciting concept, the Center will not only include a twenty-four hour a day Childcare Center but will also help train day care workers. The vision to interface with local churches seeking to set-up day care centers is to be celebrated. Again, the attached report of the Reverend Safley provides fuller details of this area of ministry.

Another emerging health care ministry is that of the Parish Nurse. Under the energetic vision and leadership of Sue Kirkland, R.N., local congregations are being made aware of the possibilities of this holistic health care ministry for both church members and the community. In Wake County, the Duke Endowment is working with the Wake Medical Center to finance a staff person to work with local congregations in not only setting-up parish nurse ministries but also helping to fund appropriate local church staff positions.

The Duke Medical Center Chaplaincy continues. One of the compelling, developing visions of this ministry is with both AIDS patients and families. This Christ-centered ministry is a dramatic reminder of the challenges and opportunities God is giving to the church in reaching out with caring love and concern. We are saddened to see the Reverend Jim Rawlings leave Duke. We wish him God-speed and offer our gratitude for his fruitful years of ministry among us.

Again, the Golden Cross Ministry, under the leadership of the Reverend Richard C. Vaughan, continues financially to assist laity having difficulty meeting medical expenses by making appropriate grants. The attached report from Reverend Vaughan reveals how through its connectional ministries, the NC Conference seeks to be an agent of grace and care.

The Asbury Homes continues to meet both financial and structural challenges on its ministry for the mentally handicapped. We are grateful to Philip Brown and the Board of Directors for making their vision for this health care ministry a reality. Again, the attached report from the Asbury Homes provides more in-depth details. The Commission has included in its annual budget $4,000 towards the ministry of the home in Tabor City.

Under the leadership of the Reverend John Crowe, the Commission again sponsored a health check-up center at Annual Conference. This ministry has been well received and we are grateful to John for his work.

The Commission continues to encourage local congregations to observe Disability Awareness Sunday. It is important that churches seek to be sensitive to who they exclude from worship and the life of the local congregation because of facilities that exclude the disabled.

At its Fall, 1998, meeting, the Commission responded to the Conference Task Force on Restructuring by reporting that it is the belief of the Commission that its continuing existence is strategically important as an advocate for the health and human welfare ministries of our N.C. Annual Conference. We celebrate the historical role of this Commission and rededicate our Commission to forwarding the ministry of healing of Jesus Christ.

Brian G. Gentle, Chairperson

The Asbury Homes, Inc.

The year 1998 was a time of transition in three major areas for the Asbury Homes ministry in the North Carolina Annual Conference as follows: First - the Board of Trustees reorganized by decreasing the board to 18 members, elected new officers and restructured the financial system to enable the Board of Trustees to monitor the financial position of The Asbury Homes on a timely basis. The Board has in place a sound management system which strengthens its fiscal responsibilities and puts in place a system to expand the ministry of Asbury Homes in other areas of the conference. The Board of Trustees' program is built upon the work and leadership of our first President - Thomas Walden. Tom pioneered the development of the first group home, Goremont in Tabor City. His dedication, enthusiasm, faith commitment and personal gift of time and talents are second to none in the ministry of Asbury Homes. Tom laid the foundation upon which we are building in 1999!!

The ministry of our first group home - Goremont in Tabor City is recognized by the local community, area mental health supervisors and family members as a high quality, Christian and caring home for the physically and mentally challenged adults. Our program director, Lisa Hayes, provides professional leadership and Christian commitment to the daily program of supportive services and needs of the residents to include but not limited to personal dignity, privacy, self-direction and a personal sense of security to our five residents and their families. The Goremont home has weathered hurricane Fran, the loss of its heating system and the radical change in the state's reimbursement system for care given under North Carolina's Mental Health Program in 1998.

Asbury Homes works closely with its consultant, The Rev. Dr. Robert Pitzer of SEMAR, and with our sister agency in the Western Annual Conference, UMAR. During 1998 the Asbury Homes contracted with UMAR for payroll/accounting services, staff training, licensure compliance and program monitoring. The Board of Trustees has found this to be both cost effective and an enhancement to our quality assurance program.

During 1999, the Board of Trustees will be working with Lisa Hayes on ways of educating the conference membership on the homes' ministry, the opportunities for volunteer services and the need for financial support as a Conference Advance Special. The Asbury Homes' system needs support for the daily operational budget to meet reimbursement short falls, to purchase the facility for our group home and to expand its ministry in the conference. We give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve and for all the support of prayers and gifts of money and time. Conference members our invited to visit Goremont, a ministry of the North Carolina Conference!

Philip S. Brown, President

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity in our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of great emotional stress and financial need.

1998 was a good year for Golden Cross. During 1998 we assisted 22 families from 8 of the 12 districts in our Conference. We had $28,458.00 budgeted for 1998, and we paid out $25,227.23. Remember, that as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, that Golden Cross is a special ministry. Encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. With God's help, and your generosity, we will meet every eligible request with the funds we have. In the past, we United Methodists in the NC Annual Conference have been most gracious in making funds available to all United Methodists.

In closing, please remember that if your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, c/o Caroline Buckland, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605 and God bless you.

Richard C. Vaughan, Director

Methodist Home for Children Child & Family Services

In service to God, our mission is to build upon the social, physical, emotional, and spiritual strengths of children, youth, and families, and to affirm their worth.

What a whirlwind of change and activity the Methodist Home for Children has experienced this past year! With the adoption of our new strategic plan and specific moves to put it into action, we've come face to face with change at every turn. Families are changing. We are increasingly aware that families come in all sizes and combinations; and that today's families face very different problems than families of the past.

To be truly helpful to the people we serve, we have to make some changes, too. We're determined to position ourselves to be a major partner with the public sector in meeting the needs of children, young people, and families. Laws of nature teach us that to be fully alive, we must constantly grow, develop, and change. The same is true of our life as an agency.

At their annual meeting in Baltimore on April 9, 1999, the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries presented the Innovation Award for 1999 to the Methodist Home for Children for implementing the Church and Community Services Department to assist individual congregations and local communities to form and carry out ministries to children and families.

100 Years of Service

In 1999 the Methodist Home for Children will commemorate a century of helping children and families. We can all take pride in this heritage. At the same time, we must look forward with great expectations to the many changes for the better we'll see in the future. The implementation of our strategic plan will enable us to provide relevant care to children and their families in the new century. But changing to fit the times is nothing new to our "home", which has constantly adapted to the growing needs of children and families in an ever more complex world.

Our Services

In 1997-1998, we served children and families from 48 North Carolina Counties.

Residential Care

In these complex times, troubled young people need guidance and caring more than ever. Through Residential Services, we create a warm, positive environment where they can observe and learn necessary skills for living. Hugs, laughter, encouragement, and shoulders to lean on are offered. It's a powerful mixture that brings new hope and opportunity to these young people and their families. In 1997-1998, 648 children benefitted from the Methodist Home for Children's Residential Services.

Our Residential Care includes the following programs:

- Emergency Receiving Homes (1)
- Juvenile Homes (5)
- Youth Homes (12)

Family Based Services

Today's rapid changes bring new stresses to everyday life. Constant demands, ever-increasing pressures, problems that seem insurmountable....it's a combination that can weaken and even shatter families. Our Family Based Care provides immediate and effective support, intervening to prevent a problem from becoming a crisis.

Our approach for the future will continue to emphasize prevention and intervention. Through Family Based Care, we can move into a home or community and change lives providing the nurturing and education that help families deal with the challenges they face. Keeping the unity of the family and strengthening its relationships are at the heart of our mission. We served 190 children in Foster Care and 126 families through Family Based Care in 1997-1998.

Our Family Based Services includes the following programs:

- Bridges (Substance Abuse Aftercare)
- Childcare Consultation
- Church & Community Services
- Family Preservation
- Family Resource Partnerships
- Foster Care & Adoption Services
- Substance Abuse Services

The Future

I look forward to growing with you as we begin the next century of bringing healing and wholeness to a world desperately in need of both.

Michael W. Safley, President/CEO

The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

As we entered 1998, we knew it would be a year of great change. We saw figures from the North Carolina Division of Aging which predicted an astounding growth in the senior population, not only in North Carolina, but nationally and internationally. We witnessed a senior population which is younger, more active, more concerned with quality and service, and yes, more demanding. We had to rethink our goals and had to modify our plans to make sure we could meet the needs of this most important population. It has been quite a challenge but one we grasped with excitement and enthusiasm.

The Board of Trustees has been a source of strength and light as it has guided us through the time of struggle and this year of growth and change. Their wisdom and support have been invaluable assets. We are indebted to the support of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for our ministry. We share with the annual conference a relationship of faith and a commitment to serve.

As I outline the transitions that have taken place within the corporation during the year, I start with significant personnel changes, in chronological order. On April 15, 1998, Beverly V. Smith joined UMRH as the Director of Corporate Communications. Ms. Smith comes to UMRH with 15 years experience in the field of health care, public relations and communications. She previously served as Executive Director of Business Ventures for the President Emeritus of Duke University, Terry Sanford, and Director of Public Relations for Nash General Hospital/Nash Health Care Systems in Rocky Mount. Under Ms. Smith's leadership we merged the division of public relations into the Department of Corporate Communications to more efficiently serve our campuses in the areas of marketing, sales, public relations and advertising.

On April 20, 1998, Daniel L. Cuthriell joined Methodist Retirement Community as Senior Administrator and then moved over to serve as Senior Administrator for Croasdaile Village, on October 1. Mr. Cuthriell comes to UMRH with 15 years of experience in the retirement living and long term care field. He previously served as Associate Administrator at Carolina Meadows in Chapel Hill, a continuing care retirement community serving over 650 senior adults. Mr. Cuthriell has been a tireless worker and a gifted and adept administrator in his service to our two Durham communities. He is an enthusiastic individual whose interpersonal skills are an invaluable asset to our corporation.

The third major personnel change took place on November 1, 1998 when Richard E. Faught became Senior Administrator for Methodist Retirement Community. Mr. Faught came to UMRH after having served 25 years in the health care and retirement industry, 20 of those years being with the Evangelical Lutheran Good Samaritan Society of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Through the strong leadership of Mr. Faught, Methodist Retirement Community is making great strides positioning itself as an affordable, caring Christian community dedicated to mission of Abundant Living. As our original campus, MRC carries on our legacy of 45 years of service to senior adults.

One of the major accomplishments of 1998 was the acquiring of chaplains for each campus. For the first time we are able to conduct regular on-site campus worship services and provide a Christian life network for our residents. Herman Winberry serves at Wesley Pines, Bill Lowermilk serves at Quail Haven, Milton Hadley and Denise Waters serve MRC and will jointly serve Croasdaile Village, and Kevin Taylor serves Cypress Glen.

In addition to these personnel changes, the year of transition has included significant progress on the Croasdaile Village project. By September 30, 1998, construction had reached 50% completion status and pre-sales had reached the 80% goal. By February 28, 1999 the first 15 "pioneer" residents had moved on to the campus. While all of the 47 pioneer cottages have been completed, no new pioneers will be moving in until June 1999. Our most recent statistics show that on March 1, the construction project reached an 85% landmark. Full completion and occupancy is expected by July 1999.

At Cypress Glen, Phase II of the expansion project on the new 30-unit apartment building was completed in April 1998 and all units were reserved and occupied by the end of January 1999. In addition to the nine cottages already occupied at Cypress Glen, the community is now marketing and has pre-sold the first five of 50 additional cottages and duplexes.

In 1998, we continued to make movement toward the acquisition of Quail Haven Village. All of the parties involved have agreed on the nature and terms of the transfer of the ownership to a UMRH-controlled Board of Directors, but the final legal terms have not been completed. Quail Haven Village has made significant progress in occupancy rates during the year and plans are underway to convert the assisted living (adult care) facility to a skilled nursing facility.

The financial reports and audit indicate that the corporation is in a sound financial position. There are, however, areas of concern that management is addressing that should strengthen our financial position considerably by the end of fiscal year 1999. Cypress Glen has made significant improvement after experiencing a difficult 1997 year with the bringing on line of the new additions and less than projected occupancy. Wesley Pines continues to be a profitable community and for the second consecutive year has attained a deficiency free report from The Division of Facility Services. A major financial concern for 1999 is the ability of MRC to maintain a consistently high census with the opening of Croasdaile Village which will draw approximately 50 residents from that campus. It will be a challenge to operate two campuses in one community but we are optimistic that these sister campuses will complement rather than compete.

Over the past 18 months, a significant amount of time has been devoted to conversations with the Duke University Health System. These conversations are the result of many years of positive relationships between DQHS and UMRH. There are significant issues yet to be considered in these discussions in the future. The Boards of Trustees of The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. and Duke University Health System, respectively, are continuing to work toward a partnership agreement, an affiliation that will strengthen our ability to serve now and into the twenty-first century.

Finally, I have spent a great deal of time this year working with NCANPHA (North Carolina Non-profit Homes for the Aged) to correct the 1998 tax legislation which eliminated tax-exempt status to our CCRC's. This tax exempt status was challenged in 1998 by a for-profit retirement community. We believe that this issue has been corrected and that the new legislation should pass when the legislature convenes in May.

In closing, I share with you the figure of 1.9 million dollars which is the amount of benevolent care we sustained in 1998. I know many of you helped support this important mission and I thank you for all that you continue to do. It is my prayer and my goal to lead our corporation in 1999 into new and better paths of service to our residents in the name of our Servant-Savior, Jesus Christ.

Reginald W. Ponder, President/CEO

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

The United Methodist Church and its predecessor denominations have always demonstrated a deep commitment to learning. Our heritage is steeped in a tradition of close connections between the church and its schools, colleges, universities, seminaries, and campus ministries. The tradition began on the North American continent in 1784 when members of the Christmas Conference, American Methodism's founding event, decided to build a college. That early emphasis on education has been maintained through the years, leading our denomination to establish more than 1,200 schools, colleges, and universities--of which 124 remain today. Additionally, we have approximately 700 campus ministers and college/university chaplains engage in ministries on our behalf.

Presently, we are in a supportive relationship with three colleges (Louisburg, Methodist, and North Carolina Wesleyan), with the Divinity School at Duke; and with Wesley Foundations and ecumenical campus ministries at various campuses throughout our state. The work of United Methodist campus ministry in North Carolina is shared between the two annual conferences in the state through the State Commission on Campus Ministry.

The Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry is the church's representative in this ongoing interaction between the church and its educational ministries. We seek to help the institutions claim their uniquely Christian character. Likewise, we work to encourage the church to claim these institutions as valid extension ministries and to support them to the appropriate level.

In recent years we have expressed growing concern that funding for these ministries, particularly for our colleges and Duke Divinity School, is diminishing. Because of our partnership with the WNC Annual Conference in the State Commission, we have not experienced reductions for our campus ministries. However, we have made repeated and substantial reductions in support for our three colleges and Duke Divinity School.

The Commission is aware of the pressure on our annual conference budget and acknowledges that we must look critically at all of the conference's ministry involvements. However, we believe that we must continue to place a high value on our historic work in higher education. We believe that the future health of the church necessitates a sustained investment in the lives of young women and men through our ministries in higher education.

As the funding we provide to our colleges and Duke Divinity School continues to be reduced, we encourage the Annual Conference to seek other ways to maintain our faith relationship with these institutions. The Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry believes that one of the ways to maintain our connection to these institutions is by allowing and encouraging them to have direct contact with our local churches. If we are not going to continue to fund these ministries through our apportionments, then we should allow these institutions to build relationships directly with local churches. The colleges and the divinity school should be encouraged to "tell their stories" to our congregations, to actively recruit students from our parishes, and to invite financial assistance through the congregations' second-mile giving programs.

If we are not going to fund these historic ministries in a significant way through our apportionments, then it is only fair that we lift the restrictions that prohibit these institutions from contact with our congregations. Indeed, it is imperative that we allow connections to be made with the local church if we are to continue to have a shared ministry with these schools we established.

On behalf of the men and women whose lives are being shaped by our campus ministries, our colleges, and the Duke Divinity School, I want to thank the Annual Conference for its vision in establishing these ministries. Let us continue to have vision and courage as we look for new ways for nurturing our ministries in higher education and campus ministry.

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

The State Commission on Campus Ministry is the collaborative organization of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences for oversight of United Methodist campus ministry in 16 campus settings: UNC-Asheville, Winston-Salem State University, Central Piedmont Community College, North Carolina Central University, UNC-Pembroke, UNC-Wilmington, UNC-Charlotte, Duke, NC A&T University, Wake Forest-Salem-School of the Arts, East Carolina University, UNC-Greensboro, Appalachian State University, Western Carolina University, North Carolina State University, and UNC-Chapel Hill. Some of these campus ministries are UM Wesley Foundations, and some are organized cooperatively in ecumenical settings.

The Commission, comprised of representatives from the NC and WNC Conferences, meets three times a year to give guidance to campus ministries across our state. In addition, the finance committee meets to recommend the annual budget and the executive committee meets as necessary. The total Commission budget is funded through the two conferences, with 40% coming from the NC Conference and 60% coming from the WNC Conference. The commission budget is used largely for salary support for campus ministers. Commission funds are supplemented by local boards for local program and ministry.

The Handbook for North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry, developed and continually updated by the Commission, serves as a working guide to local campus ministry committees, to campus ministers, and to the Commission.

A review process has been established to assist local campus ministries in self-evaluation and planning for the future. Two campus ministries are reviewed annually. In 1998, facility reviews will be conducted at all campus ministries with buildings in order to evaluate facilities needs and to project budgets for needed repairs and renovations.

Ministries on our campuses are vibrant and varied: students participate in Bible study, covenant discipleship groups, music ministry, volunteer-in-mission workteams, tutoring, regular worship, service projects, and leadership conferences. Students attend state, regional, national, international, and ecumenical meetings. Campus ministry alumni leave the campus, prepared to serve Christ in the world, in lay and ordained ministry and in careers of loving service.

The State Commission on Campus Ministry urges every lay and clergy member of the Annual Conference to interpret the ministries on our campuses supported through the budget of the Annual Conference, to inform youth of campus ministry opportunities as they leave high school and transition to campus life, and to lead local churches to offer gifts of prayers, partnership, and support to students, campus ministers, and campus ministry units.

Candler School of Theology

Candler School of Theology is enjoying a time of deepening relationship to the church as the school strives to fulfill its mission to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries. We want first to express our thanks for the support of the church. We had a record number of applicants, which helped us enroll 536 students this past fall.

Our concept of excellence is rooted in formation of church leaders. This year, Candler began its Contextual Education program, a new and unmatched approach to field education. Among its new features, it draws heavily on John Wesley's "ordinary means of grace" as a springboard for conversation about faith, theology, and service. Contextual Education continues, perhaps uniquely, to involve all full-time faculty members, a sign of our faculty's commitment to preparing effective ministers.

In December, Candler was honored to host the William R. Cannon Conference on the Future of Wesleyan Studies in Theological Education. This meeting of scholars and church officials from Wesleyan traditions worldwide, honoring the late dean and bishop, explored how better to prepare leaders of a faithful way of living.

Obviously, such a mission requires that faculty appointees bring not only academic excellence but also a commitment to preparation for ministry and a passion for the church. In fall 1998, Dr. Charlotte McDaniel, an authority in leadership and professional ethics, joined us as director of contextual education and lecturer in pastoral theology. Dr. Alton B. Pollard III, an experienced Baptist pastor and professor, became director of our Program of Black Church Studies and associate professor of religion and culture.

Dr. Karen D. Scheib, assistant professor of pastoral care and counseling, is a United Methodist elder who holds a certificate in gerontology. Dr. Joy Ann McDougall, instructor in systematic theology, is an Episcopalian and a scholar in contemporary theology. Dr. Brian J. Mahan, already teaching at Candler, was appointed to a tenure-track position and the directorship of the Program in Christian Education. Professor Theodore Brelsford, visiting instructor in Christian education, is a Ph.D. student who has been a youth pastor and college chaplain. This spring, Dr. James F. White, a noted figure in United Methodist worship, is visiting to teach two courses.

As many of you know, we are especially honored to have Archbishop Desmond M. Tutu of South Africa among us as Robert W. Woodruff Visiting Professor of Theology. Archbishop Tutu, the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize recipient, has taught two courses and has spoken at several occasions.

In addition to faculty, students, and supporters, a key part of any school is its library. Pitts Theology Library continues to gain recognition internationally. With more than 490,000 volumes, including 94,000 in Special Collections, it is the second-largest theological library in North America.

Candler's professors also gain valuable insights in their steady schedule of appearances at churches, other seminaries, and conferences both domestic and international. The faculty's high participation in church and scholarly matter is a clue to the quality of education in Candler's classrooms.

Besides the heavy involvement of Candler faculty and students in churches, our own worship schedule has grown to morning prayer four days a week and chapel three days. Spiritual life events have increased, and one often hears song or prayer from classrooms.

Finally, I bring personally bittersweet news of my own appointment effective July 1 as President of Simpson College, a fine United Methodist-related school in Indianola, Iowa. My new role will offer an exciting opportunity for mission, but I will miss the wonderful people and cherished ties I have known as Dean at Candler.

Candler will continue, I am sure, to treasure its bond with the church, for we share a life of nurture, outreach, and witness. Pray for your school, as we pray for you. Accept our thanks for your financial support, individually and through the Ministerial Education Fund. It is crucial in preparing students for the most faithful and creative ministry they can offer.

R. Kevin LaGree, Dean/Professor of Divinity

The Divinity School of Duke University

Incoming Divinity School seminarians began a new year-long immersion in spiritual formation outside the classroom as they covenanted and met weekly in small groups under the leadership of area pastors or faculty. The 33 groups focused on spiritual disciplines, giving first-year students support for a journey into prayer and reflection on service. Student-initiated spiritual formation groups continue this valuable experience during the second and third years of seminary.

During the 1998-99 academic year, the Divinity School community included 484 students from 31 states and six foreign nations, holding degrees from 232 colleges and universities. Among the incoming class of 150 students, 45 percent are female, 16 percent ethnic minority, and 3 percent international, with a median age of 27. Twenty students enrolled in January. Currently, 60 percent of the student body is United Methodist, and the remaining 40 percent of students represent 35 other denominations. Total enrollment includes 373 M.Div., 32 Th.M., 13 M.C.M., 41 M.T.S., and 16 special students.

Faculty appointments included J. Deotis Roberts, who had been a visiting professor, to research professor of historical theology; David Aers, James B. Duke professor of English and professor of historical theology; Lewis Ayres, assistant professor of Christian theology; Michael Battle, assistant professor of spirituality and black church studies; Amy Laura Hall, assistant professor of theological ethics; and Reinhard Hütter, associate professor of Christian theology. Janice Virtue joined the Divinity School as associate dean for continuing education and strategic planning. Greg Duncan assumed responsibility for student life and is now director of admissions and student life. Tracy Anne Allred was named assistant director of admissions. Sarah W. Pickens has been named assistant director of development and director of the annual fund.

Richard P. Heitzenrater was named the William Kellon Quick professor of church history and Wesley studies and presented an inaugural lecture, "Tradition and History," in March. Acknowledged as the major Wesley scholar of his generation, Dr. Heitzenrater is best known for his discovery of the key to John Wesley's Oxford diaries. Professor of Homiletics Richard Lischer has been invited to deliver the Lyman Beecher Lectures, one of the oldest and most distinguished lectureships in American Protestantism, for the 1999-2000 academic year at Yale Divinity School. Thomas A. Langford was presented the University Medal for Distinguished Meritorious Service in October. Langford, William Kellon Quick professor emeritus of theology and Methodist studies, is former dean of the Divinity School and university provost emeritus.

Duke President Nannerl O. Keohane appointed five new members to the Divinity School Board of Visitors: Carla C. Badgett of Houston, TX.; J. Keith Kennedy of Falls Church, Va.; Charles H. Mercer, Jr. of Raleigh, Mary A. Stevens of Greensboro, and William Vann York of High Point. The chair of the board is Harold J. Wallace, special assistant for minority affairs at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The Rev. Dr. Norman E. Neaves, pastor of Church of the Servant, Oklahoma City, OK., received the 1998 Distinguished Alumni Award. Convocation and Pastors' School will be held Oct. 11-13 and feature Richard Mouw, Abuna Elias Shacour, and Barbara Lundblad.

Support for all causes in the Divinity School during fiscal 1997-98 totaled $4.8 million, a new record high, according to Wesley F. Brown, associate dean for external relations. In October, the Divinity School joined Duke University in the kick-off of a five-year $1.5 billion fundraising campaign, the largest in the university's history. The Divinity School seeks $35 million, which includes funds for attracting and supporting students, recruiting and retaining top faculty, enriching the campus and community environment, and for annual and long-term unrestricted support. These funds will help the Divinity School sustain its leadership role in the preparation of women and men for diverse ministries in the Church and the world.

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Laity provides a support process for the primary task of our local church congregations and our annual conference. The primary task is the mission of the United Methodist Church and that is "To Make Disciples of Jesus Christ." We gather hopes and concerns from the laity about the effectiveness of the annual conference in providing leaders for local churches to fulfill our primary task. The concerns are communicated to annual conference leadership as we try to encourage laity involvement at the conference, district, and local church levels.

Training the laity for their leadership roles in the local church is an important task of the Commission. The January/Leadership Workshops were held in the districts to provide training for the laity in local church leadership positions. Each district now has the responsibility for this training and it receives limited assistance from the conference. Each district plans the training that they determine best meets their needs. Several districts now complete the training before January in order for persons to be trained before they take their new positions.

Our District Lay Rallies continue to be a time of celebration and recognition of the ministry of the laity throughout our conference. A variety of themes have been used and the speakers, lay and clergy, have been dynamic. Local church lay persons of the year were recognized as well as the outstanding high school seniors. The district lay leaders and laity committees are providing outstanding leadership in the rallies.

The Conference Director of Lay Speaking, Tom Walden, continues to provide outstanding leadership in this program; he also continues to serve as one of the outstanding instructors of the lay speaker courses. Our lay speakers continue to fill pulpits when called and serve as worship leaders in their local churches. Each year some of our certified lay speakers become part-time lay pastors. The commitment and willingness of our lay speakers is greatly appreciated.

The Conference Associate Director, Rev. Carol Hayes, has been a valuable resource to the Commission. We are thankful for her leadership and willingness to serve not only the Commission but also throughout the Conference. She has always been supportive of the ministry of the laity.

The Commission is always ready to hear concerns related to our responsibilities. We must continue to identify, empower, and support lay leadership.

Robby Lowry, Conference Lay Leader

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate offers more than 13,000 subscribers a wide range of local, district, conference, state, national and international United Methodist news in a 16-page tabloid format that is printed 24 times a year. The paper, funded by a combination of subscriptions, endowments and grants from the North Carolina Conference and Western North Carolina Conference, attempts to capture the spirit of North Carolina United Methodism through features, breaking news, letters to the editor, a column by NCC Bishop Edwards, and columns by key NCC laity and clergy such as Hope Morgan Ward, Steve Compton, Debra Murphy, Ruth Lucier, Paul Stallsworth, Sillar Smith and others.

The Advocate is recognized as the voice of United Methodism in North Carolina, and recent upgrades such as full color on the inside spread and back pages have enhanced its appearance, readability and general appeal. The paper will concentrate much of the fall of 1999 and into 2000 reporting on pre-General Conference activities and their potential effect on both NC conferences. Through the Advocate, the vision of mission, and ministry of NC United Methodism is reported and celebrated.

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Missions and Outreach functions to provide front line, immediate service in mission for our Annual Conference, and direct aid around the world. Our scope includes: 1) support for international mission initiatives, 2) support for mission and service projects within the NC Annual Conference, 3) support for new mission initiatives by local churches and mission organizations connected to The United Methodist Church, 4) education and cultivation for mission, specifically including the UMVIM program, mission saturation events, the Rainbow Covenant Program, speakers for local church education events, and district mission initiatives.

The members of the Commission on Missions and Outreach also function as an institutional lending body, The Board of Missions, Inc. This institution provides loans to local churches for land acquisition, repair, and new construction. In the 1998 Conference year we provided over $875,000.00 in loans for NC Conference churches. In addition we employ a Conference Construction Coordinator, Mr. Gary Smith. With his help local churches may "build their own" additions and renovations. Through his service the NC Conference churches saved over $500,000 in construction costs in the past year.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR PAST YEAR OF SERVICE INCLUDE:

Russian Initiative: We have supported the development of church life in Lithuania, former Soviet Union. Our mission focus continues to expand there through support of local churches and the growing seminary in that country. Our $10 Club has pledged support for a church construction project in Vilnius.

Africa Children's Initiative: We have raised over $180,000.00 towards our goal of $280,000.00 set by our Bishop to meet our goal in the new church-wide Africa Children's Initiative.

Armenia: With the WNC Conference we supported Project Agape, Inc., including the shipment of five sea-going containers with over $300,000 worth of commodities.

Liberia: We supported the work of Mary and Herbert Zigbuo, sending from the WI District a sea container with a vehicle and food and school supplies. The Zigbuos are committed to restarting thirty-five mission schools destroyed during the recent civil war. Edenton Street UMC supports the work of two doctors at the Ganta Mission Clinic.

Peru: Working with the Peru Covenant Task Force, we supported ministry initiatives there including purchasing Sunday School curriculum for every church in the Peru Conference.

Chile: Working with John Wesley Center in Santiago, Chile, we supported Shana Harrison in work with developmentally disabled young people.

Obras De Wesley: We are a founding partner in the translation of the works of John Wesley into Spanish. The General Board of Global Ministries has joined in partnership, providing to date $50,000 towards this effort.

World Hunger: Through support of Stop Hunger Now, a Conference Advance Special, the Commission supported direct food aid to Southern Sudan and Hurricane Mitch Relief in Honduras and Nicaragua.

CONFERENCE PROJECTS: Robeson County Church and Community Center: We are the backbone funding for the executive staff of the Center

Siler City Hispanic Ministry: We are the primary funder for the executive staff of the ministry.

EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION: Our Volunteers in Mission program continues to be a model for that effort in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Rev. Butch Huffman provides leadership. In the past 12 months we have sent over 50 VIM teams from the NC Conference.

Rainbow Covenant Program: By encouraging local churches to give to all five lanes of missions, we have moved mission education forward in the Conference in the past year.

Disaster Response Giving: Our Conference was a lead giver to the Hurricane Mitch appeal with over $250,000 raised in 1998.

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY GRANTS: The Commission is able to make small to moderate grants to enable and encourage mission activities in our Conference. In 1999 we supported: Society of St. Andrew: a gleaning and hunger-fighting agency, whose state-wide organization is based in the bounds of our Conference

Wake Interfaith Hospitality Network: a collaborative program by which local churches house homeless families.

Harbor House Ministries, Brunswick County: A faith-based short-term housing facility for homeless children, which housed over 60 children in 1998

Trinity UMC Day Care, Wilmington: a day care program for high school parents.

NEW INITIATIVES:

TEN NEW MISSION PERSONS FROM OUR CONFERENCE: Dr. Randy Nugent, General Secretary of GBGM, has made a commitment to place 10 persons in missions from our Conference. We submitted an initial list of persons and placements, and we have rejoiced in the first four of these placements. We believe we have a great gift to share with the General Church in showing how such a model can work for the future of missions in our denomination.

STOP HUNGER NOW: This new international humanitarian aid ministry has a direct connection to the North Carolina Annual Conference. With recognition by the Commission, initial grant funding, and appointment of staff by the Bishop, this new agency was able to deliver over $7 million worth of food and humanitarian aid supplies to over 17 different countries in 1998.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The 1998 conference goal of $15,000 for Native American Awareness Sunday was reached and surpassed. A total of $17,313 was given by our churches. This indeed is a cause of celebration.

Half ($8,655.00) remained in our conference to support Native American Ministries. Monies were given as a grant to SEJANAM; a scholarship was given for one Native American pastor to attend the Pastors' Course of Study at Duke; two grants were awarded to Pleasant Grove UMC and the Native American Co-operative Ministry in the Rockingham District, and a stipend was given for one pastor to attend a Spirituality Workshop. Also, monies were given to send Native Americans on the Emmaus Walk and to receive training to teach Disciples I and II studies.

In 1999 three districts (Durham, Elizabeth City and Raleigh) were saturated with Native American pastors and laity on Native American Awareness Sunday. These districts were asked to raise $1,700.00. Further, our goal for 1999 is $20,000.00 for the entire conference.

The goal for 2000 is $27,000.00. Three districts (New Bern, Rocky Mount and Rockingham) will be saturated with Native American clergy and laity. In addition, the Committee on Native American Ministry will have a representative from each district. As we enter the 21st century, let us work together to strengthen Native American Ministries.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me," Psalm 51:10.

This scripture must be lived out if racism is to be removed from The United Methodist Church and the larger society. This was the primary message of the fall workshop sponsored by the Commission on Religion and Race entitled "Racism-The Church's Unfinished Agenda." The leader for the workshop was the Rev. Fred Allen, Chief Church Relations Officer for the American Bible Society and an ordained elder of the United Methodist Church. Those who call themselves Christians must ask God to cleanse their hearts of poisonous assumptions based on race, culture and prejudice.

Our 1999 fall workshop is scheduled for October 16th in Goldsboro. The workshop leader will be the Rev. Chester Jones, the General Secretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race.

The Commission on Religion and Race has implemented those activities assigned to it from the Conference Plan of Inclusiveness. The Plan called for a "Design for Inclusiveness" program to be included on the program of the 1998 Annual Conference. The Commission on Religion And Race invited a clergy and lay person from three inclusive congregations to share their stories and ministries. For the 1999 Annual Conference, the Commission on Religion and Race, along with the ELCC Committee, has planned an inclusive worship service featuring Hispanic praise songs, a Native American storyteller, and African American singing and liturgical dancing. An Asian American pastor will proclaim the word. The Commission on Religion and Race will be preparing an evaluative report of the Conference Plan of Inclusiveness implementation and effectiveness. Recommendations for future activities and programs to move this Annual Conference towards inclusiveness will be included in the report.

For 1999, Commission members are reading and studying the book, Ending Racism in the Church by Susan Davie. The Commission commends this reading to the members of the Annual Conference and to the larger church constituency.

LaNella Smith, Chairperson

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

"For as in one body we have many members, and not all members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us." Romans 12: 4-6

There are two major functions of the Status and Role of Women ministry area:

1. Encouraging the church's continuing commitment to the full and equal participation of women in the total life and mission of the church.
2. Recommending program opportunities for worship, fellowship, witness, study, nurture and service that confirm anew the liberating message of Jesus Christ and recognize every person, woman or man, as a full and equal part of God's human family.

COSROW continues to support:

1. Implementation of the Plan of Inclusiveness, assisting women in attending enrichment conferences, and sensitizing local congregations in areas of race and gender relations.
2. Advocate for "Clergywomen in the Pulpit" emphasis in the spring of each year. The Commission applauds those churches who have opened their doors to clergy women.
3. Monitor the availability of child care services at district and conference meetings.

Clergy women of the NC Conference are very appreciative that Bishop Marion Edwards has met with them on two separate occasions. They look forward to future meetings with him.

One major concern of COSROW is the scarcity of clergy women as Senior Pastors in the larger churches. During our February meeting COSROW took a close look at the twelve districts and the appointments of clergy women. The Commission hopes for the increase of clergy women leading in our larger churches. With their gifts and graces, they have much to offer.

COSROW also has in place resource people available for district and/or conference workshops to empower women.

The Commission has been blessed with the leadership of Jimmy F. Cummings as the staff representative. He is an excellent resource person and is very supportive of the work of COSROW.

The Commission will continue to stand with women and share the pain and joy as women grow.

Annie L. Fairley, Chairperson

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

In 1997 the Commission on Stewardship offered our first Retreat for Pastors New to the North Carolina Annual Conference. It was well received and offered again in 1998. Participants who were new in the ministry as well as persons with many years of experience reported that it was the best presentation of stewardship concepts they had ever experienced. The Commission on Stewardship believes that we are moving in the right direction as we teach Stewardship concepts to our pastors. As we train more pastors, we believe the Annual Conference will benefit in significant ways.

We are continuing to prepare a stewardship event for the entire Annual Conference. This event is planned for 2000, and will be open to clergy and laity alike.

The members of the Commission on Stewardship offer ourselves as resource persons for Leadership Training Workshops, Lay Speaker training courses, and as resources for local church seminars. We have a number of persons available to assist any local church that requests help with stewardship matters. We consider our commission to be a leading source of resource persons in the field of stewardship for the Annual Conference.

We also offer information on the latest and best printed materials on stewardship. Bill Norton, our staff stewardship contact, keeps us supplied with new, as well as tried and true, programs on funding the ministry of the local church. A call to Bill Norton's office in the Methodist Building (1-800-849-4433) can put a person in touch with the latest materials on the market.

I. Lynn James, Executive Director of The United Methodist Foundation, is a key person to help churches with information on gifts and wills. He can help answer the complicated and often difficult questions about estate planning.

In summary, the Commission on Stewardship is prepared to offer innovative and experienced leadership. We have sound, proven programs available to meet the needs of our local churches. We are willing and eager to help.

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

The Conference Commission on Worship continued to focus on creating and conducting the worship services for the Annual Conference session. Through the elimination of costly overnight retreats, the Commission on Worship has been able to concentrate its activity in a few concentrated work sessions. This format has resulted in considerable savings with no reduction in quality of service.

As reflected in the 1998 Proceedings of the Annual Conference, Annual Conference began with an executive session which took the form of "A Worship Service in the Wesleyan Tradition." Bishop Marion Edwards urged the commission to make the annual conference a time of holy conferencing, not just a business session. Members of the Commission on Worship entered into serious research, reflection and prayer as they attempted to honor historical Wesleyan antecedents to produce the type of holy conferencing which Mr. Wesley might recognize, were he alive today. The result was a fusion of music, prayer, and report. Several other annual conferences have asked to use our "A Service of Holy Conferencing in the Wesleyan Tradition" as a model for their own executive sessions.

In 1999 the annual conference session will move from Methodist College in Fayetteville to the Cumberland County Auditorium/Arena complex. The Commission on Worship was attempting to adjust its worship services to the new facilities. The early morning Eucharistic services will move from Hensdale Chapel to the Cumberland County Arena. Since this facility will also be used for meals and other meetings during the day, a portable worship center will be constructed. At the formal Eucharistic service some 2,400 persons will be served. In addition to the worship services that the commission provides, a Conference-Wide Lay Rally on Saturday will be held. With the inclusion of praise bands and contemporary music, the commission plans to give this event the definite flavor of a pep-rally as distinguished from a traditional worship service. Long range plans call for a similar rally in the year 2000 drawing as many as 8,000 participants conference-wide. The commission is confident that it will be able to adjust to the new environment.

Although the primary mission of the Commission on Worship now is to plan and conduct the services at the annual conference session, this body still fulfills its traditional educational role as well. Members of the commission have been called upon to provide district and conference workshops on worship. Members also serve as resource persons for their several districts. However the call comes, the Conference Commission on Worship is grateful for the blessed task of creating contexts in which the people called Methodists can express their praise to God, and through which God can speak again the Word of grace and glory.

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE, TASK FORCE ON

The Task Force on Conference Structure was formed by the action of the 1997 North Carolina Annual Conference in response to the 1996 General Conference freedoms given for structure and in an effort to seek the highest level of faithfulness and effectiveness in our conference structure. The Task Force has examined our current conference structure, has been in dialogue with the Connectional Process Team of the General Church and with other annual conferences in their restructuring processes, has been engaged in a process of discernment, and will share at Annual Conference a proposed new structure for our Annual Conference.

The Task Force, in working together and in proposing structural change, voices hopes for: 1) the participation of all voices in the conference, including lay and clergy voices, theologically diverse voices, cultural and racial diversities, and churches of all sizes, 2) the creation of a leadership circle where all ministry groups and all constituencies of the Annual Conference come together for conferencing, visioning, and implementing ministry, 3) the strengthening of local congregations and faith communities in making disciples, 4) the development of a stronger and more meaningful connection, 5) an interactive structure in which the global and local natures of the church speak and listen to one another.

The Task Force seeks the input of all United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference as we discern the ways God is calling us into the future. An overview of the new structure will be presented to the Annual Conference, and a process of dialogue will begin and continue until the 2000 Annual Conference. There will be dialogue in district settings in fall, 1999, in response to the structural proposal. The Task Force will continue to refine the plan with final presentation to the Annual Conference in June, 2000. The plan, if adopted by the Annual Conference, would go into effect in July, 2001.

The Task Force on Conference Structure welcomes your input at any stage of this dialogue process. Written feedback can be mailed to Robby Lowry, 2056 NC Highway 710 South, Rowland, NC 28383. The members of the Task Force on Conference Structure are Gloria McAuley, Anna Workman, Tom Holtsclaw, George Johnson, Ed Morrison, Susan Pate-Greenwood, Luis Reinoso, Kong Namkung, Kim Lamb, Bob Frazier, Jeanne Rouse, Regina Henderson, Jimmy Sutton, Sam Wynn, Allen Norris, Beverly Small, Ron Gooding, Albert Shuler, Belton Joyner, Hope Ward, and Robby Lowry.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Congregational Development continues to work in three principle areas:

I. New Church Development

We continue to be impressed with the urgent need for the development of new congregations to assist the Conference in meeting its mission of making disciples. In 1998, chartered new churches started since 1979 contributed more than 68% of the new membership increase realized by the North Carolina Conference. Among those churches, 31% were started among low income and or ethnic minority populations.

With nineteen new churches planted in the last four conference years, we are nearly reaching the conference goal of five new churches, on average, each year. New churches started since last conference session were: New Song (UMC-New Bern District-Jeff Severt, pastor; New Beginnings (UMC-Raleigh District-Mack McMillan, pastor; The Rock (UMC-Fayetteville District-Barry Drum, pastor; Mighty Wind (UMC-Elizabeth City District-Camille Yorkey, pastor.

- A. Leadership - Prospective new church pastors are being tested and trained to be available to lead new churches. The Director of the Office of Congregational Development continues to give leadership to the Duke National Institute for New Church Development.
- B. Location - A number of communities and locales across the Conference are being identified as likely sites for new churches. The Percept Program continues to provide demographic profiles of the under-churched people that would require a new church mission.
- C. Funding - The Emerging Church Salary Support Fund is currently providing partial compensation for the pastors of new congregations.
- D. The John Wesley Endowment for New Church Development in Low Income Communities raised nearly $400,000 in pledges from local churches to be paid by annual conference in the year 2000. Our goal is to establish a $1,000,000 endowment.
- E. The Ten Dollar Club encourages new members to purchase multiple shares at $10 each.

II. Congregational Redevelopment

- A. On average, about 100 churches are assisted each year by the Office of Congregational Development with workshops, consultations, and small grants.
- B. In 1998, Grace and Sunset Park UMCs merged as a part of the "Revisioning" project aimed at clarifying their future roles and missions in the Wilmington community.
- C. A "Change Conference," for churches in transition, led by Tom Bandy, is planned for September 10, 11. This event is co-sponsored with the Evangelism Commission and will be held at Fuquay-Varina UMC.

III. Churches of Small Membership

- A. The Office of Congregational Development assists small membership churches and cooperative parish ministries each year.
- B. A task force within the Commission is guiding the work in this area: Jeff Arthurs, Julie Steele, and Jimmy Weaver led a Conference Team to attend a Vital Congregations Workshop in Atlanta. A workshop on this topic will be offered to our Conference in 2000.

The 1998 North Carolina Annual Conference voted to align the Director of the Office of Congregational Development with the Bishop's office and to work directly with the Cabinet. Dr. Steve Compton continues to give strong leadership to the Commission and the Conference efforts of Congregational Development and Redevelopment.

DATA PROCESSING SERVICES, COMMITTEE ON

Organized in 1991 the Committee on Data Processing Services supervises the work of the Conference Information Systems. With rapid development of computer capabilities, and with impending personnel changes, the committee has determined that the Conference will be able to provide the required computer services with less than a full-time position. Beginning April 1, 1999 this work will be outsourced on a part-time basis, and we have contracted the services of Capital Business Solutions to handle computer/data processing needs. This move will save monies but will continue to assure quality and the appropriate separation of administrative responsibility.

The committee expresses its appreciation to Robbie Pollock for his excellent work in the computer services area and looks forward to his continuing to work with us as a representative of Capital Business Solutions.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

As one looks across the NC Annual Conference having a composite report in mind, the place to begin is with the number of people who were won to Christ in this past year. Numbers are important because they symbolize the growth of the Church and the primary reason for the Church. The numbers are higher this year than in years past with each number representing a person for whom Christ died and each person adding a significant dimension to the meaning and mission of the Church.

It is significant to see the work of the office of Congregational Development and the work of the New Church starts under the auspices of that body. We offer our thanks to God and give God the glory for victories in this area, and for the vision and comprehension of this area of the church's ministry.

However, we must also look at the successes in this area of the pastors and lay persons who are not strategically placed in the growing areas, or hot-beds of opportunity. We must also give God praise for that one soul who has been sought out and who has given his or her life to Christ in the cross-road church, on the three point charge where growth is almost non-existent. We thank God for those who persevere in those places!

One of the major fields of endeavor for the NC Conference is in the area of mission and ministry—service to people: people who are down and out, people who are cast aside, folks who are homeless, or struggle to be single parents. People who are alone or who struggle to save broken families. These along with many others need the love and ministry which the church alone supplies. Yes, the word in mission and ministry is the word compassion or the word love.

While we sometimes disagree with one another through dialogue sessions, or in our talking about what constitutes sin, or what God calls the church to be, grace still abounds and the needs of persons run rampant across our souls as we talk. Yet, still sometimes as we talk with vision that "...sees through a mirror dimly," grace-filled mission and ministry occurs in spite of us. As we disagree about whether the church says things properly or not the sin is still there, the longing is more acute, and sometimes from somewhere comes the right word of grace, the appropriate touch of healing, or the ministry of Jesus going about doing God's business out of the most unexpected places.

From across this Conference hammers can be heard as churches build Habitat Houses. Hispanic Ministries are begun or enhanced in order to enable our Hispanic brothers and sisters to live a higher ordered life even as they worship in their own new setting. These ministries are coming alive or beginning in at least five of the 12 Districts in the Conference.

Disciple Bible Study is taking hold in many churches large and small across the Conference, some joining together to share this study time together across church lines in towns and communities.

In at least one of our districts a new heightened focus zeroes in on mission and ministries that can be seen in sub-district groups. These lay led groups are operating in a four county area to make the gospel a joy that can be seen as well as felt.

Then, mission and ministry is not moving outside the environs of the local church only. Eyes are turned inward and hearts are focused on the need to be better persons, God-called and God-led persons work at home also. Therefore mission and giving funds are up for the second straight year, local budgets are higher and are being met at a higher level and with more enthusiasm. Spiritual renewal is taking place in order that spiritual renewal can be spread across the world. This means, then, that our attention to our own spiritual renewal must be dealt with in order that we can be instruments of God's love. We can see examples of that spiritual renewal.

More than 45 churches are either in building programs or have completed them. New Church starts reflect a new dimension just by their names: The Rock, New Song, Mighty Wind, and New Beginnings! Maybe the Holy Spirit is trying to tell us something!

One evidence showing itself in many districts is what I will call the sign of blatant faith! This is the faith of some of our ministers that their understanding of God's call is so great in their lives and the God-felt mission is so real it is hard to budge them from where they are until that mission is complete. Not higher salaries, not taller steeples or larger congregations, not power or sought after prestige but God's call to a place, a task, a mission, a work that is not left until it is finished and God's call moves them on. A new beginning!

Maybe the NC Conference is on the verge of reclaiming the truth that first things must come first. "This commandment I give to you: love God with all your heart with all your soul with all your mind and with all your strength and love your neighbor as you love yourself."

Everywhere we look we see caring, but we see more need. We see sad eyes in our land, heart sickness in low places. Around us there is the call to "come over and help us," to touch, to feel, to even suffer for Christ's sake.

Indeed this is not a time for division, but clarity, not a time for name calling, but soul healing. Now is the time for the NC Conference to clasp the robe of Christ around us and live out our calling in mission and in ministry. Now is the time to be the Church of Jesus Christ without whose spirit in us we shall ourselves surely die.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

On behalf of The Duke Endowment let me express our deep gratitude for the life and ministry of the 926 United Methodist churches in the North Carolina Conference. In 1924, when James B. Duke created The Endowment, rural Methodist churches were named as beneficiaries - that is, eligible to receive grants. Since that time, the Endowment has made grants to assist rural churches in building projects, to support programs and outreach ministries of these churches, to support retired ministers, and to aid certain agencies and programs in their work with rural churches. In particular, this has meant support of Duke Divinity School in both its Field Education and Continuing Education programs.

I am please to report to you some of the specific expenditures The Endowment made to the North Carolina Conference in 1998, and alert you to some of program possibilities and policies for 1999.

Building Grants. The Duke Endowment wants to assist churches that need our help, show promise for ministry, and are actively involved in outreach to their communities. In 1998, The Duke Endowment assisted 32 rural churches in building projects, making expenditures of $893,500. We anticipate even more applications over the next year, for several reasons. First, as many of you know, this region - and therefore the Methodist Church - is experiencing rapid growth. Many churches have moved forward with building projects in response to the demands of this growth, and in hopes of attracting newcomers. Second, because rural status is determined by Census figures, many churches currently eligible for grants will become ineligible by 2001. We are seeing numerous churches in this category making construction plans. Because of this great increase in the number of churches seeking assistance, and because we want to aid as many churches as possible, we have decreased the grant amounts from 30% of cost, or $90,000, to 25% of cost, or $75,000.

Outreach Ministry Programs. We are pleased with the response of so many churches to the needs of their communities - especially those needs articulated in the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty. The care children receive before the age of three greatly affects their potential as older children and adults. We recognize the shortage of quality child care programs in rural communities, and strongly encourage churches to use their many resources to try to meet this need. The Duke Endowment made grants of $93,200 to churches engaging in various outreach ministries, including 6 child care programs, 3 after-school programs, and 4 preschool programs.

Numerous churches have responded creatively and faithfully to other community needs. We have assisted several churches with programs to care for the elderly, and to provide an emergency teen center. One church is participating in a family resource center, one is offering a music academy for children, and several churches are operating food pantries.

In addition, several grants were made to individual districts or conference agencies to enable ministries serving larger geographic areas. Examples of these projects include Rural Advancement Foundation International-USA (RAFI) to assist the Tobacco Communities Project to build links between rural churches and community leaders to enable tobacco communities to survive and thrive under change; the Jubilee Project of the North Carolina Council of Churches, which assists churches in ministry to persons affected by Welfare Reform legislation; and two districts in support of Hispanic ministries.

We invite churches, districts, and conference agencies to direct inquiries to our office for grants to assist in outreach ministries.

Collaborative Programs. In recent years, The Duke Endowment has worked internally to make changes that would enable us to serve our beneficiaries more fully. There are three other divisions of The Endowment in additions to the Rural Church: Health Care, Children's Homes, and Education. For some projects, it has been helpful for two or more divisions to work together. I'd like to highlight three of those programs in this conference.

Duke University Medical Center Pastoral Services Department: to provide pastoral care to HIV-infected patients who reside in rural settings, working with rural United Methodist churches in Vance, Warren, Person, Granville and Franklin Counties, and in training rural churches as caregivers for patients and families.

Nash Health Care Systems: to improve health in an impoverished community.

Onslow County Hospital: a joint effort with Onslow Community Ministries to improve services for the homeless and indigent of Onslow County.

Duke University Divinity School: The Endowment has made grants of $905,000 in support of Summer and Winter student interns and Student Pastors across the state. This summer 40 Duke Divinity School students are working in rural United Methodist Churches in the conference. These students offer a wonderful service to the churches, and in return they gain valuable experience and training in the rural church. Grants totaling $75,000 went to continuing education programs at Duke. These grants help both rural clergy and laypeople gain new skills and knowledge for effective ministry.

The staff of The Duke Endowment is committed to helping the clergy and laity of our rural churches provide leadership for service and mission in North Carolina. Please call and tell us about your rural church's outreach program or your dreams for mission in your community. The Rural Church Office is located in Durham at 3329 Durham-Chapel Hill Boulevard, Durham, NC 27717-1307, telephone 919-489-3359, Fax 919-489-3350, e-mail jmann@tde.org or vrosenquist@tde.org. We hope to hear from you to see how we might be of assistance as you engage in ministry in your rural community.

W. Joseph Mann, Director, Rural Church Division

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

The Episcopacy Committee is analogous to the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church, in that it works with the bishop, our chief pastor, to assist, encourage and enable his work among us. We provide a sounding board for his concerns and those of the churches of the Conference.

Two hundred years ago, almost to this very day, Francis Asbury was presiding over the Annual Conference at Philadelphia. It did not go well and Asbury received some rather unkind letters about his administration. A bishop's life is not always easy! In fact, he wrote that he planned to resign from the episcopacy, and as he said, "join the ranks of my brethren on the floor." On June 10, 1799, he wrote to Ezekiel Cooper, who was somewhat unhappy with his new appointment as book agent of the church (somewhat like being head of Cokesbury). In that letter he said,

"My dear Brother,

Your letter came to hand in the haste and distresses of conference, I confess I have not had such a shock since I received yours in Charleston. It is enough! My own children are risen up against me. I have suffered much of late in labour and loss of my health [and my] horse; and perpetual crowds of brethren. My Christian doctors say rest, rest or death, or great danger! I have resigned the pulpit, I am weaning the conferences, I am absent whole days at a time; I keep no minutes now, never preside, seldom speak in conference, only when called upon in a special manner by the conference."

Bishop Asbury shows us how human he really was. I would remind you, that he came back from this low point of his ministry and served another 17 years and established some of the most significant ministries of our church. But he needed the love and support of all his brothers and sisters to accomplish this.

How grateful we are for Marion Edwards. We believe that God is using him to shape the focus of our ministry in NC. We have already seen the effects of his leadership. The Committee has met twice with Bishop Edwards since our last Annual Conference. As we are charged to do, we have been engaged in an evaluation of the work of the episcopal office in NC and will be preparing a report to the Jurisdictional Committee on the Episcopacy as we come to the time of assignment of bishops for the next quadrennium.

We would be remiss if we failed to note the great blessing his wife, Linda, has been to us all. It is clear that these two are a team whose combined ministry is far greater than the sum of them separately. Linda Edwards is a gracious and beautiful person who touches the lives of so many.

May God continue to bless and use Marion and Linda Edwards. May he undergird the health and strength of our bishop and sustain him for many years of ministry before us. As a footnote to my earlier citation from Bishop Asbury, I would remind us that seven years later he was conducting Annual Conference in south Georgia, not far from our bishop's hometown. What a difference we see. He writes in his Journal,

"We began our conference. The subject of the delegated Conference [a structure we employ to this very day, including the election of delegates to General Conference as we do this year] was adopted, with only two dissenting votes. These members, however, cheerfully submitted, and one of the dissenters was elected a member. All was peace respecting the appointments! We had prayer meeting at six o'clock; at 11, at three, and at seven o'clock we had preaching. [December 29, 1806]"

We sang together Charles Wesley's traditional hymn for the opening of Conference, "And Are We Yet Alive," and in it we said, "What troubles have we seen, what mighty conflicts past, fightings without and fears within since we assembled last." But we also joined in a great affirmation: "Let us take up the cross till we the crown obtain, and gladly reckon all things loss, so we may Jesus gain."

Bishop, I would like for Linda to join you on the stage and I have our host DS, Glenda Noble Johnson, to escort her to your side.

We have a small token of our appreciation from the Committee on the Episcopacy. We would like to present to you a picture that I think you will recognize. This was taken on the grounds of the Effingham County Methodist Camp Ground in Springfield, GA, your hometown. For over 209 years, Methodist folk have gathered here in the summer to camp and to have their hearts stirred by faithful preaching. Here songs of praise have rung forth and hearts have been won to Christ. We wanted to give this to you as a reminder of your home and the heritage of faith you brought with you to NC. We have been enriched and blessed by the spirit of our Lord that touched you in Effingham County, the same spirit that unites all of us in one Connection.

Now, it would be my privilege to offer a prayer for you and your leadership among us. Let us pray:

Our Father and our God, we are truly thankful for your servant, Marion, and for his helpmate, Linda. Bless them both as they live and move among us. Give to our bishop wise counsel and courageous judgment. We are grateful that love is such a real part of all he does. Continue to pour out your love upon him and through him. Anoint him afresh for leadership in these days, that the challenges of his work would never be more than the spirit of Christ that fills his life. May these be days that future generations will look back upon and know that the Holy Spirit was at work here in this Conference. Through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen

HISPANIC MINISTRIES, TASK FORCE ON

Bishop Marion Edward recently quoted these words from Oscar Romero, Roman Catholic martyr and Archbishop of San Salvador: "We plant seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted. . . We lay foundations . . . We provide yeast . . ." These words describe so eloquently the work of Hispanic ministries in the NC Conference. Many seeds are being planted and watered daily.

An estimated 66,805 Hispanics reside in the NC Conference according to Percept Group, Inc. By the year 2000, the number is estimated to be 117,930. This is a very conservative estimate because of the constant influx since 1990 and the large number of Hispanics who are undocumented. Areas of the largest numbers of Latinos are Fayetteville, Jacksonville, Raleigh, Durham, Havelock, Sanford, Goldsboro, Burlington, and Greenville.

Over the past year, the Conference has continued its commitment to reach out to the Hispanic community by re-appointing pastors serving in Chatham, Lee and Durham counties. Chatham-Lee Hispanic Ministries, two Hispanic mission churches in Sanford and Siler City, NC share a full-time appointed Hispanic pastor, the Rev. Hector Millan. Sunday worship services and Sunday school is held at El Camino in Siler City and La Trinidad in Durham. Various outreach ministries are offered, including language interpretation in emergency situations, assistance in job application, banking, driver's education, etc.

Durham Hispanic Ministries, Durham, NC: This ministry is led by a full-time appointed Hispanic pastor, the Rev. Edgardo Colon-Emeric. A worship service was started in October, 1998. Bible studies are offered in several faith communities. In addition, various outreach ministries are provided to address food, clothing, language, and housing needs. Worship services averaging 40 in attendance are held Sunday afternoons at Duke Memorial UMC.

In addition, ministry with Latinos is occurring in the following areas:

Fuquay-Varina UMC, Fuquay-Varina, NC: An outreach ministry led by a staff member provides Bible study, ESL classes and response to basic needs to nearby Latinos.

Avent Ferry UMC, Raleigh, NC: This year members started an outreach ministry serving nearby predominantly Hispanic neighborhoods. Members of AF UMC are mentoring students from the ESL classes held at the church. Kid's Cafe is an after school program for about 20 Latino children once a week. Children come for a time of recreation, tutoring, and a hot meal. Latino neighbors have also been included in the SHARE ministry which gives them quality groceries at about half the price.

Trinity UMC, Jacksonville, NC: Sunday worship services are offered led by a Hispanic pastor.

Front Street UMC, Burlington, NC: Members have sponsored a Vacation Bible School for the Hispanic community for the past two years.

Mebane UMC, Mebane, NC: The church has helped with a VBS for Hispanic children and held a worship service with Hispanics last spring (1998).

Hertford UMC, Hertford, NC: In October, 1998, this church began a Sunday worship service led by a trained Hispanic lay missionary.

Chadbourn-Evergreen UMC, Chadbourn, NC: A Sunday worship service led by an Anglo bilingual pastor has been held weekly for the past year.

Edenton Street UMC, Raleigh, NC: Beginning in November, 1998 the Council on Ministries has sponsored a Latino Assistance Center on Saturday mornings where Latinos can be referred to social services.

Two Hispanic pastors are currently serving predominantly Anglo congregations: Luis Reinoso, an elder in the NC Conference, is associate pastor of Mebane UMC and Rosanna Panizo, an elder in the Methodist Church of Peru Conference is pastor of Butner Community UMC (non-Hispanic).

National Plan for Hispanic Ministries Training: The NC Conference, in collaboration with the Western NC Conference and the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries, offered Module I and Module II training for Lay Missioner/Pastor -Mentors. In 1998, the following pastors and lay persons received Module I training: Clarissa Reinoso, Greg Nace, Donna Elium, Stanley Gilbert, Kathie M. Hendricks, Guillermo Flores, Tom Ortiz, Louise Miller, JoAnn Stanford, Delia Scott, David Ross, Sadot Mendez, Rev. Mark Wethington, Rev. Lawrence Johnson, Rev. Kevin Baker, Rev. Carolyn Lucas, and Rev. Alice Kunka. Rev. Hector Millan, Rev. Edgardo Colon-Emeric and Rev. Luis Reinoso facilitated the training along with other trained facilitators from across the US. An additional Module I workshop is planned for the fall of 1999.

Module II training for the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries was held in March-April, 1999 at Camp Mundo Vista near Asheboro. Those from the NC Conference who completed the training at this time included Donna Elium, Juan Hercilla, Rev. Alice Kunka, and Sadot Mendez. Another Module I training is scheduled to be held October 21-23, 1999, continuing November 18-20, 1999 at Camp Agape near Fuquay-Varina. In addition, national consultants from the General Board of Discipleship will lead a workshop on Hispanic worship, "Mil Voces Para Celebrar" November 16-18, 1999 at Camp Agape.

Spanish/English Scholarships: The Hispanic Ministries Task Force is grateful for a grant from The Duke Endowment for the purpose of tuition assistance for language instruction (English or Spanish) for UMs who are currently active in Hispanic ministry or intend to be active in the near future in the NC Conference. The scholarship program is called HABLES! Hispanic Awareness By Learning English/Spanish. Five recipients were funded for the spring, 1999, funding cycle. Other scholarships will be awarded for the fall, 1999, funding cycle.

Implementation of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry: In November, 1998, the NC Conference and Western NC Conference received a joint grant from The Duke Endowment to allow us to continue to offer Lay Missioner/Pastor-Mentor training, as well as the Spanish/English Scholarship program and partial funding for a conference coordinator of Hispanic Ministries.

Dr. Aida Irizarry-Fernandez was assigned to the NC Conference in 1997 to provide consultation in planning and in applying for funding from the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry. In December, 1998, Dr. Irizarry-Fernandez and Dr. Jose Palos, director of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry, provided training for the Cabinet to familiarize them with the concepts of the National Plan.

In the spring of 1999, the task force received a three-year $50,000 grant from the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry and received approval from the General Board of Global Ministries to enable the task force to fund a full-time conference coordinator of Hispanic Ministries. A search committee chaired by Rev. Edgardo Colon-Emeric has been formed which will interview candidates for the position in the fall of 1999.

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The award for the Annual Conference Lay Person of the Year is very important in that it represents the many types of ministry by laity in our churches, communities, districts, annual conference and throughout the world. It is always exciting to read the nominations when the executive committee of the Commission on Laity meets to select the person from the district lay persons of the year. We see the image of Christ in each of them. We honor them and say "Thank You," for their inspiring witness, reflecting the spirit of Christ. I would like to introduce our district lay persons of the year and ask that they stand as their name is called:

Burlington - Kathy Ray Dixon is a leader in district events such as "Outreach Ministry Expo." She reaches beyond the Clover Garden UMC walls through Kairos Women's Prison Ministry and the Community Food Bank.

Durham - Jo Ellen Nowell is a leader in First UMC and the Henderson community. A talented singer, she works with both youth and children in music and drama ministries.

Elizabeth City - Kyra Hicks looks for ways to bring joy to others, especially those in need. She led Edenton UMC in the adoption of a Bosnian family, organized a Church World Service Blanket Program, and is a leader in the UMW.

Fayetteville - Susan Hunt is creative and an energetic leader, lay speaker, UMW leader, and community organizer. She shows her love for children, by planning Bible lessons, carnivals, special programs, projects in Roseboro UMC, and the local schools.

Goldsboro - Rudy Peedin is an enthusiastic teacher, counselor, and role model for youth as a high school teacher and church leader. He serves as president of the UMM and leader in the administrative committees of Providence UMC.

Greenville - Judy Murad "makes things happen," often behind the scenes. A servant leader, she has been the moving force in a missions saturation weekend and the Faith Promise program while serving on many administrative committees of St. James UMC.

New Bern - Elizabeth Moore has been a Sunday School teacher in Shady Grove UMC for 23 years. An accomplished musician, she continues at the age of 80 to direct cherub, chancel, and handbell choirs.

Raleigh - L. Merritt Jones, Jr., is a Stephen Minister, Sunday School teacher, and leader in the areas of church building, finance, and administration. He demonstrates vision for the future as he attends to the day to day needs of Hayes Barton UMC.

Rockingham - Yvonne Dial follows her call to teaching as a high school English teacher and as a worker with youth in First UMC, Pembroke. She is a writer published in Response and Upper Room, a volunteer-in-mission in Bolivia, and a leader in Native American ministry.

Rocky Mount - Ronald C. Fleming humbly and faithfully works behind the scene at church functions, regularly welcoming all to worship, and serving as a exemplary steward in Scotland Neck UMC. He encourages his church to faithfulness by word and by example.

Sanford - Randy Hussey is a lay speaker, teacher of young adults, vocalist, and leader in the building and administrative committees of Smyrna UMC. He "gathers up prayer requests" for congregational prayer and lovingly visits those who are homebound.

Wilmington - Glenn David Humbert is a leader of the youth, UMM, and missional outreach of Camp UMC. "Glenn exhibits the patience and self-denial that mark believers in Jesus Christ."

Our Conference Lay Person of the Year is one who has identified her God-given gift of ministry, developed that gift to do the ministry to which she has been called. In her local church she is the Director of Music and directs the Cherub Choir, Chancel Choir and Handbell Choir. She also is the organist for all services. She also is a Sunday School teacher.

She is active in the UMW and is a district officer. She also has also been an officer on Conference boards and agencies and has often played the piano or organ for many conference and UMW events.

Weekly she visits those in the hospital and nursing homes. She plays the piano at the nursing homes and a senior center; she also does the devotions when needed. She is a coordinator for Meals on Wheels. She finds the time to tutor piano students in her community.

You might ask, "How does she find the time to do all of these acts of ministry?" Yes, she is retired; she retired 20 years ago as a teacher of music in the public schools. However, she did not retire from her Christian duties to God and her church. Some of our most productive years of ministry can come after we retire from our vocation.

If you are one who attends the early morning Communion Service at Annual Conference, you would have observed that she was the organist. She has served in this capacity for many years. Our Conference Lay Person of the Year is Elizabeth Moore of Shady Grove UMC of the New Bern District.

Robby Lowry, Conference Lay Leader

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES, TASK FORCE ON

The United Methodist Church (UMC) is not a "young church" in terms of its membership. Approximately 62% of the UMC membership is 50+ years of age. By next year, 2000, it is estimated that nearly 50% of UMC membership will be made up of persons 60 years of age and older!! It is important as we work to strengthen our ministry with children, youth, and young adults that we remember the other end of the lifespan--where there are so many United Methodists.

The role of our Task Force is to help our Conference remember the possibilities of older adult ministry. Specifically, we exist "to enable and empower the districts and the local churches of the North Carolina Annual Conference for ministry and mission by, for, and with older adults."

We have two goals:

(1) To assist districts and local churches to be more sensitive to the varying issues and needs of older adults.

(2) To promote and provide resources to initiate ministries to, for, and with older adults. Several things have been done this past year to fulfill our mission:

(1) We co-sponsored, along with First UMC in Cary and the Conference Commission on Education, a "Conference on Older Adults and Older Adult Workers", November 6-7, 1998, at First Church. Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., Director of the Office of Adult Ministries for the General Board of Discipleship, provided the leadership. Approximately 40 persons attended the conference.

(2) A series of three Roundtables on Older Adult Ministries were held during February and March, 1999: February 11, Pinick Village Retirement Community, Southern Pines; March 4, Methodist Retirement Community, Durham; and March 18, Cypress Glen Methodist Retirement Home, Greenville. The purposes of the roundtables was to help persons (lay and professionals) interested in older adult ministry to network with each other, discover new resources for ministry, to discuss possibilities for ministry, and to explore how local churches might emphasize 1999 as the International Year of the Older Adult.

(3) We have called attention, through various means, of the fact that the United Nations has declared 1999 as the International Year of the Older Adult. This is an excellent opportunity for the UMC to emphasize the contributions of older adults to the life and ministry of the Church. It, also, is a chance to emphasize possibilities of ministry by, with, and for older adults. There are numerous possibilities for congregational worship, study, service, and advocacy. Helpful suggestions can be found in a publication entitled 1999 International Year of Older Persons Resource Materials for Congregational Ministry with Older Persons compiled and edited by Richard H. Gentzler, Jr. of the General Board of Discipleship. Copies can be secured from his office at P. O. Box 840, Nashville, TN 37202-0840. Further information may be secured from the Rev. Carol Hayes with our Conference Council on Ministries, 1-800-849-4433, or carolhayes@nccumc.org.

Our Task Force has begun plans for a series of three workshops across the Conference on "Caregiving." These conferences will be open to any person interested in learning more about the issues related to being a caregiver for an older person. Topics such as Stresses and Satisfaction of Caregiving, Coping Skills, and When To Consider a Long-term Care Facility are among the topics to be dealt with in the workshops.

Each year the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Older Adults has an excellent conference at Lake Junaluska. This year's conference will be held August 9-12, 1999. Plan on taking a group from your local church. One trip will bring them and others back for another year.

We urge those districts in Leadership Development Workshops/January Workshops for local church leaders to plan a workshop on older adult ministry. Our Task Force has developed a lesson plan relating to Older Adult Ministries for use in such leadership enterprises. The lesson plan is designed with ideas and resources so that someone in the local area can take the plan and lead the workshop. If you prefer to have someone from outside the local area to conduct the workshop, contact the Rev. Carol Hayes at The Methodist Building about possible leaders. Copies of the lesson plans also can be secured from Carol Hayes.

Our Task Force is the focal point for older adult ministry within our Conference. We urge you to let us know of ways in which we can be of help in keeping this ministry before the local churches and districts of the Conference. We, also, would welcome new persons with a passion for older adult ministry to become a member of our Task Force. Let Carol Hayes, your District Superintendent, or some member of our Task Force, know of your desire to serve.

OUTDOOR, CAMPING AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

This year brings exciting additions to the outdoor, camping, and retreat ministries programs with United Methodists of eastern NC. Though our Jubilee year has concluded, we continue to celebrate the opportunities provided at each camp and retreat center for group and individual experience, and time apart to enable growth in a relationship with God in the natural world. Chestnut Ridge is 40 this year. We lift up our thanks for such a rich history and praise for a future brimming with possibilities. As we lay the groundwork to realize these possibilities, we continue with the process of reconnecting with former campers and staff and strengthening the ties between each camp and retreat center and local churches. We encourage camp alumni whether as a camper or staff person to contact us with names, current addresses, and special memories you share.

Four different camping locations across the NC Conference area are provided for campers of all ages so that the young and the old alike, may come and enjoy family time, opportunities to learn about themselves, their relationships with each other and most importantly their growing relationship with God. Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish are open year-round. Kerr Lake is open on weekends in the spring and fall and all week between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

Outdoor, camping and retreat ministries are not just about summer camp anymore! Weekend retreats, environmental education and cooperative learning for school groups, and group meeting facilities are offered throughout the year at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish. These camps offer a variety of accommodations with facilities to meet the needs of groups from 6 to 250 providing programming for retreats, specializing in spiritual growth, individual growth, group building and cooperation, and environmental education. Camp Kerr Lake located north of Henderson has 24 waterfront water and electric hook-up camp sites, six A-frame cabins, two bathhouses, a pavilion and Conference room which offer both groups and individuals a place to get away from the hectic pace of everyday life.

Each of the camps this year has continued to grow with new programs centering around the outreach of year-round programming, including school groups, day camps, special needs camping, retreats for all ages, and camping experiences for campers in the year-round school programs. In September, the Bergland Retreat Center at Rockfish Outdoor Center will be completed and mark a new day for adult retreat planning in the Conference. A special thanks goes to the volunteers who envisioned the plan and worked to make it a reality. Plans are underway for growth, expansion and new facilities at each of the other camps: Chestnut Ridge with a bathhouse, Don Lee with a sewage system for which the permit was approved earlier this year, and Kerr Lake with major campsite expansion. We have seen a growth in utilization, in programming and our service to God through outdoor ministries.

We are thankful for the leadership of each of our manager/directors: Bill Howington, John Farmer, and Dennis Tawney in addition to their support staffs. We are also thankful for the hard work and dedication of each camp's local committee and the endless hours of service that they have given. We are thankful for the leadership offered from the Board of Directors of the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, INC. We are most thankful for the addition of Executive Director Wray Stephens, who officially began his duties in January, and immediately had a positive impact on the leadership and direction of outdoor, camping and retreat ministries. Initially, his main focuses have been on learning about the programming of each camp, strengthening the ties between camps and local churches, and ensuring financial stability and accountability. We are fortunate to have four thriving camp and retreat centers that necessitated full time leadership and are blessed to have Wray in the position.

As our camps grow in ministry, each one continues to have very real needs which local United Methodist churches can help meet. Aging facilities stand in need of significant repair and in some cases rebuilding altogether. Financial resources are needed to do this as well as volunteer labor. Wish lists exist for each camp as to items needed to be donated for furthering their ministry. Support of our camping ministry by local churches having retreats, group meetings and outings at our camping facilities will be a blessing to all. Encouragement of children and youth to come to summer camps, promoting the camps as a place of summer employment for dedicated college students and youth adults can support our camping ministry. Local church groups can also support camping ministries through participation in spring or fall workdays at camps or by financial contributions through the Advance Special or the Campership Fund. We look to the faithful and dedicated support of the NC Annual Conference for camping ministry.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

NC Annual Conference Members of SEJAC: Bishop Marion Edwards, Hope Ward, LaNella D. Smith, Robert Huckaby, Jr., Sam Dixon, Jr.

At the end of 1998, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council completed 10 years in service to some 2.8 million members and over 12,000 churches in 15 annual and missionary conferences of the southeast. SEJAC, created to coordinate and provide missional direction to a range of ministries that had arisen in response to expressed needs, was confronted by significant fiscal problems and societal shifts. Today SEJAC reports:

- A pattern of innovative ministries cooperatively responding to requests for help in areas of spiritual formation, leadership training, and missional outreach.
- An inclusive policy-making council that seeks to unite annual conferences and general church agencies in shared ministry.

- A missional focus on assisting annual conferences to help congregations make disciples and share in God's redemptive mission.
- A strong fiscal condition including enhanced facilities, responsible operations, increased annual conference support, and planned growth in plants and endowments.
- A covenant connection strengthened by interactive communication, responsive consultative services, innovative programming, and sensitive resourcing.

In 1998, the Annual Conferences expressed confidence in SEJAC's ministry by giving a record 84% to the apportioned Mission & Ministry Fund which supports Jurisdictional administration and programming, Lake Junaluska development, and our seven Agencies. The $1,555,492 from the Fund combined with other income from fees, grants, and gifts to total over $12,000,000 expended in a shared ministry by all units.

Ministry Division

In 1998, Ministry Division training and service activity involved 67,194 persons. 36,094 participated in activities at the three jurisdictional conference centers: Gulfside, Hinton, and Lake Junaluska.

- 12,308 were engaged in field activities of the Lay Ministry Center.
- 9,062 volunteers were coordinated through UMVIM.
- 7,759 persons shared in conference-sponsored activities led by SEJAC staff.
- 1,971 took part in SEJAC-sponsored events at other sites within annual conferences.

SEJAC staff provided 833 consultation/program days in the annual conferences. Missional priorities were evident in efforts to strengthen racial ethnic networks, train in reaching the unchurched, meet needs of marginalized persons, enable spiritual formation by studying Biblical and Wesleyan traditions, enhance servant leadership skills, create a supportive resource center, and establish communication processes.

In this latter case, a new magazine-format was adopted for the SEJ periodical, interactive web pages and chat rooms were established, and a pioneering distance learning project, Nicodemus, has opened classroom walls to the jurisdiction and beyond.

The work of SEJ Agencies and Program Units continues to be a vital component of Ministry Division service. Reports from these groups include the following and more:

- UMVIM coordinated work of 489 teams involving 9,062 volunteers
- SEMAR supported 51 group homes for 342 retarded adults
- SEJANAM served 5,088 persons and sponsored drug awareness training
- IGC involved 3,801 persons including those in DISCIPLE Bible Study Celebration
- Hinton Rural Life Center reports 5,204 participants and a Colleague Covenant Forum
- Gulfside Assembly celebrated 75 years in ministry and served over 5,100 persons
- Archives and History served 4,075 guests, 29 researchers, and 1,849 confirmands
- Lay Ministry Center enrolled 11,437 persons and served as advisor to 32 church units
- Korean-American Mission networked 54 congregations, raising $48,000 for extension

As part of a SEJAC Capital Funds Campaign, the Ministry Division is seeking endowment to underwrite much of this ministry as well as to establish foundations for preaching, lectureships, and scholarships. In tandem, Gulfside and Hinton are engaged in specialized campaigns and the other agencies and units continue fund-raising emphases.

Lake Junaluska Division

Lake Junaluska Assembly continues to perfect a division of its work into two interrelated segments: Conference Center operations and Residential Services to over 720 property owners who share in creating a mission-oriented community.

The Conference Center reports 113,109 guest nights in 1998 with operations income $4,440,827. An intensive marketing emphases is being implemented.

A superior team of department leaders is in place. Planned process improvement, appropriate training, caring personnel initiatives, upgrades to telephone and computer systems, and scheduled renovation of key facilities point to continued growth.

Current facility improvements totaling almost $2,000,000 in costs include $1,750,000 in renovations at the Apartments, Terrace, and Lambuth and over $225,000 in the Junaluska Associate's Rose Walk Project and related lakeshore work. Of this total, 60% will come from a maintenance reserve derived from revenues, 17% from Associates gifts, and the balance from Mission and Ministry allocations. In addition, volunteers are currently working to upgrade Mountainview and Sunnyside.

These improvements, added to previous renovations to Stuart, the Youth Center, the swimming pool, and other recreational facilities, set the stage for a comprehensive Capital Funds Initiative to be launched in 1999. The vision includes plans for renovation (Shackford, Childrens, Jones Cafeteria, and the Colonial), new construction (Welcome/Registration Center, Staff Housing Complex, and Mid-sized auditorium), and endowment for ministries, special programs, and common area maintenance.

The Habitat House approved by the 1996 SEJ Conference envisions an April 11, 1999 dedication with a qualifying staff family as owners. The 120-unit Hickory Hill Subdivision is on schedule as sales prompt opening the next stages. Plans for a new bridge and road over the dam are in development.

In 1999, Residential Services Department has a new director and a team of experienced and trained field workers headquartered in a new shop facility. Delinquent Accounts Receivables have been reduced, needed equipment has been obtained, and steps are being taken to implement the 10-yr plan for infrastructure renewal and financing.

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS

When I came to be bishop in the North Carolina Conference, I was overwhelmed by images of water. First, I saw a conference rich with water: ocean, sounds, bays, lakes, rivers, wetlands. The picture was inviting to me, one who loves to fish, who loves the sight and sound of water.

Then the deluge. Hurricane Fran came through with unexpected power. The neighborhood into which Linda and I had just moved became a forest of fallen trees. And rain came. And rain continued. I recalled the Samuel Taylor Coleridge poem, "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner." "Water, water everywhere," and "all the boards did shrink; water, water everywhere, nor any drop to drink."

But I also recall another day rich with water and with great power for me. It was the service at Edenton Street Church which celebrated my coming to be in ministry here. It was a service of power and focus. One of the things dear to me in that service was the time to remember our baptism. Not only did my heart and mind go back to Springfield, Georgia, where I was baptized, but the very waters brought together for this service included water from Ebenezer Creek at my home church in Springfield, water from the Chattahoochee River at Columbus, Georgia, where I had most recently been pastor. There was water from the Jordan River, water from the Wesley Chapel in London, and water from every one of our twelve districts. Water.

Rich North Carolina water emerged yet again soon after our arrival. It was during the aftermath of Fran, I stood on the roadsides of eastern North Carolina, holding up jugs of water made available through the United Methodist Committee on Relief. Since then, during the days of preaching and teaching and traveling across this conference, I have sipped water from the fountains of literally hundreds of churches. "Water. Water everywhere."

Water is key in the unfolding drama of the Bible. The Bible says God in creation swept across dark waters and brought light. The Bible says that in the days of Noah those on the ark were saved in the midst of water. The Bible says God led God's people to freedom across the Red Sea. The Bible says the children of Israel reached the promised land by crossing the Jordan. The Bible says Jesus was nurtured in the water of Mary's womb. The Bible says John baptized Jesus in the waters of the Jordan. The Bible says in baptism we take on the death and resurrection of Jesus.

"Water. Water everywhere."

Refreshing. Cleansing. Sometimes stormy and out of control. Sometimes sustaining. It is our common memory, our common beginning.

As your Bishop, I borrow Peter's baptismal wisdom as we begin this 1999 Annual Conference: "Once we were no people, but now we are God's people." Scholars tell us it was surely a baptismal liturgy. Peter reminds us: We have turned from darkness to light. We have put our trust in Christ. We have been born anew to a living hope. We are people of baptismal water. "Water, water everywhere."

May baptismal water be everywhere as we meet this week and as we prepare to move into the 21st Century. May baptismal water be everywhere, not past memory, but present reality. May baptismal water be everywhere, overcoming evil with good. May baptismal water be everywhere, binding us together in a family of faith.

At the beginning of my life among you, I was overwhelmed by water. May it be so again this week. Let us be reminded with Martin Luther who often stood at difficult and complex moments and affirmed, "remember, Martin, you have been baptized! God's baptismal waters have claimed you and named you." What Martin Luther was saying is what Peter affirmed, "Once you were no people, now you are God's people." As we join with Martin Luther in remembering our baptism, I invite you to journey with me through an array of opportunities and challenges which face us at this pivotal point in our conference and denomination's history.

Theological Diversity

Consider with me the journey this year with theological diversity. Last year, as we gathered, a motion was made and passed to have opportunities for dialogue across our annual conference focusing on our theological diversity as it relates to the issue of homosexuality. The cabinet and I appointed a planning team for the dialogue. The movement into this venture was not an easy one. The journey of the planning team was very difficult. We struggled to listen and learned to respect one another. Over 800 of the lay and clergy members meeting here today gathered in four regional settings - Fayetteville, Graham, Wilson, Greenville to engage in worship, teaching, testimony and dialogue. I must confess that having made the journey, I give thanks.

What we have discovered is that the clouds we so much dread sometimes contain the waters of God's baptism. In the midst of things we feared would divide us, we were drenched by a water which united us. We have gathered at the Lord's Table, that central place, to the table of teaching, witness and dialogue. We have heard again the clear stand of our Church. We have listened to one another. I am grateful to you for your prayers, participation and willingness to enter into this process. It was truly a time of living into our baptism.

However, baptismal water does not wash away our uniqueness. Baptismal water does not fade us away like cloth washed over and over. Rather, baptismal water cleanses, renews, refreshes who God created us to be. Good news. But, challenging news. We have discovered that it is easier to "be one" with those who agree with us. It is easier to be comfortable with those we like, who like us, who agree with us.

Long ago, St. Augustine, reflecting on the language of the Holy Meal, Communion, remembered the words, "We, who are many, are one in Christ," and mused also that "We, who are one in Christ, are many." Many gifts, many callings, many points of view, many life experiences, many filters to our hearing, many interpretations of scripture. God has planned it so. We emerge from the baptismal water in a new family with a common hope and destiny.

As I clearly delineated in my teaching of the Church's position in the four dialogue sessions, I believe The United Methodist Church is right when it says that the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. No doubt my own human journey shapes the ears with which I hear the Word of God. However, I find the evidence of Scripture and the authority of the Church's teachings to be clear. The practice of homosexuality is not God's intended will for the use of the gift of sexual relationship. The created order calls for a male-female monogamous relationship in a covenant of marriage as the context for the fullest expressions of our sexuality.

But I stand before you today, knowledgeable and in frequent contact with some brothers and sisters in the faith who do not agree with me. I think they are wrong, dangerously wrong. They think I am wrong, dangerously wrong. Nevertheless, I honor and respect many of those who differ with me on this issue and see in their Christian witness ample evidence of the fruits of the Spirit. I do not hear any call from God for me to shun them, to stop hearing them, or to close the table of confrencing to their testing of the Word. I do not fear that I must protect God's Word from untruth. I think God's Word can stand on its own ground. Only as we confer around the Word will the full authority of that Word take root, as you correct me and as I correct you and as the Word corrects us both. Let's stay at the table. It just might be that the water on the table is not from our sweating brows of disagreement; it just might be that the water on the table is from a common font of baptism.

After much consultation, thought and prayer, I have decided to put into place next year a smaller planning group to continue the process we have begun. This planning group will be charged with the task of resourcing districts, local churches and individuals who wish to go deeper into the issues surrounding this subject. I especially charge this task force to provide (1) resources dealing with the authority and interpretation of scripture around this issue and (2) resources for helping local churches and pastors to develop ministries to homosexual persons and families consistent with the Church's position outlined in its Social Principles. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all people and making local churches welcoming places for people who may not agree with us on this issue. Although we do not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching, we affirm that God's grace is available to all. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons. (¶65G, Human Sexuality)

Multi-cultural Diversity

I am increasingly aware of the growing multicultural character of our region. A Multicultural Dialogue group was also put in place a year ago, made up of lay and clergy, Korean Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans, African Americans and European Americans. We will continue to meet together to explore ways to grow in our outreach to all of God's people of every race and culture. I will report on this further in the agenda of the Annual Conference. However, I affirm again my commitment to the growing inclusiveness of our mission and ministry.

Our communities - rural, suburban and urban - are places where persons of various races, cultures and backgrounds live. Our local churches must find their future ministry in the realities of the multicultural setting in which we find ourselves. The Conference Plan of Inclusiveness, adopted in 1995, laid out a plan of action through the year 1999. We are now at a time of reflection, evaluation and new visioning. On Friday evening, we will celebrate our ministry of inclusiveness, realizing that there is much to celebrate - 26 cross-racial pastoral appointments and 171 churches reporting membership of persons of more than one race. In addition, we have 4 genuinely multicultural churches.

Nevertheless, amid the celebration of this progress, we acknowledge that the sin of racism abounds across our society. As a white Anglo person, I confess my participation in this sin, which I inherited from my forefathers and mothers and still participate in through "white privilege." I dream of a day when the gatherings in our churches reflect the multicultural rainbow of persons living in our communities. I have a vision of a time when every local church missional outreach intentionally moves across barriers of race, color and economic status. I am asking the cabinet to develop guidelines for assisting local churches in developing ministries of outreach that will indeed move us toward the crossing of these barriers. When completed, each superintendent will engage local churches in a serious reflection of multicultural ministry opportunities.

There is a powerful and probing question in our baptismal liturgy: Do you promise to serve Christ as Lord, in union with the Church which Christ has opened to people of all ages, races, and nations? I urge you to ask the baptismal question over and over - is your church open to "God's people of every age, race and nation?" I urge you - Put the baptismal question in the middle of your missional agenda!

Increased Stewardship and Giving to Apportionments

Let's not overlook a very productive stewardship journey! Bishop Ken Carder in recent days has coined a phrase that describes well many United Methodists. He says that we know well how to be "two-thirds Wesleyan." He is playing with that often recited trilogy of Mr. Wesley, "Earn all you can, save all you can, give all you can." We are indeed "two-thirds" Wesleyan because we have the first two concepts somewhat mastered. We are willing to earn all we can, we are willing to try to save all we can. The last third is tougher: Giving all we can. However, we are making good progress in putting the last third into place. We are moving to get in line behind Zacchaeus, who demonstrated that a changed heart meant immediately a changed plan of personal expenditure of funds. Down from the tree, with Jesus at his dinner table, he moved immediately to the "most generous" list in Jericho.

We are following Zacchaeus' example. As an Annual Conference, we are growing in generosity. In 1998 we achieved a 92.44% pay out on apportionments, an improvement of nearly 6% since 1996. That is good news! I am grateful to you for your good work, and your servant leadership. I dream of a day when we are a 100% conference.

Yet, there is crucial stewardship work before us! First, there will be presented to you this week a seven-year plan for management of our unfunded pension liability for retired pastors. This plan will call - among other requirements - for 100% payment by each local church of our pre-1982 pension apportionment line items.

Our dreams and visions abound for ministry with the poor. Yet, many may never be able to fund pastors and church buildings. Included among these is a growing population of children and youth to be welcomed, won and nurtured, many of them poor. In addition, North Carolina is experiencing mushrooming population growth calling for the establishment of new congregations. Wherever there are such mission opportunities, there are stewardship opportunities. We need to apply creativity in the funding of mission and ministry which will challenge baby boomers and their posterity to give. A long range planning committee of the Council on Finance and Administration is in place to look at how we shall fund ministry in the years to come.

Congregational Development

Almost every Sunday Linda and I are moving somewhere within the districts of the North Carolina Conference. We see diverse signs of congregational development and transformation. Do you know that we have several congregations in this conference now where it is not at all unusual for over a thousand people to gather for worship on Sunday? That's congregational development!

We see it on those Sunday morning drives when we pass the unpaved parking lots of small congregations where an expectant sign reserves two spaces: "Welcome, visitor. Park here." That's congregational development.

I see it when I ask a pastor to show me his or her membership prospect card and the pastor happily shows me a card with names now checked because those prayed for--sought after--warmly welcomed persons have come now into the community of faith. That's congregational development.

I see it as we pass a school or a shopping center or a movie theater and find a sign that says, "Temporary location of a new United Methodist congregation. Come, grow with us." That's congregational development.

But I want to let you in on a secret. The congregational development that thrills my soul the most, the congregational development that splashes the cool waters of our baptism upon the heated places of human lives, is that congregational life that scatters into the world, that reaches beyond the walls, that lets love reflect from the light of stained glass windows into a world of neglected children, abused spouses, hungry people, unemployed bread-winners, a congregational life that lets the shadow of the steeple cross the crowded ways of new languages that bring gifts to eastern North Carolina, a congregational life that lets the benediction door open to pour its blessing into the lonely places of farmers who feel forgotten, of urban generations who feel misplaced, and empty persons who know not the saving power of our Lord Jesus Christ. That is when I know congregational development is real in the North Carolina Conference.

Pastoral Life

Now, I want to say a word to our pastors and families. (And I want the laity to eavesdrop.) These days in pastoral ministry are not easy days. I read in the paper that the funeral of a fourteen year old killed in an automobile wreck is going to be at one of our United Methodist churches, and I know there is a pastor who is under stress and strain.

I hear on the news that an investigative reporter has found some scandal filling the life of a pastor--not one of our pastors, perhaps an independent pastor--but I know that each one of you feels that just a bit more of the trust in clergy has ebbed away. Your ministry is weakened because of it.

I get a phone call from an irate parishioner, upset because the pastor has invited persons of other languages or other races into the life of the church and things are not like they used to be. And I feel a strain in your family life because they not only call you names, but they call your children names.

I hear you tell your bishop that when your morning starts at 5:00 AM to be with a member having surgery and ends at 10:30 PM when you get home from the trustees meeting, your children are already asleep; your spouse no longer waits up. The fabric of your family becomes more and more frayed. It hurts. (One of our colleagues was asked by a new pastor, "Don't you worry when your children say, 'Daddy, have you got to go out again tonight?'" "No," the seasoned pastor replied, "I worry when they stop asking.") Family life in the parsonage is under the pressures of expectations and the dangerous and difficult balancing of the covenants to family and the call to ministry. Sexual misconduct is often the shadow side of a vulnerability brought on by loss of boundaries and our inability to practice self-care.

So I asked a task force from our cabinet to send a questionnaire across our Annual Conference to clergy families. The report that came back is amazing. You are going to hear more in a report this week. I hope you will listen carefully. Pastors need to be nourished and counseled. Time for spiritual formation. Confidential places we can go for the care of our own souls. People who have nothing to do with our appointments who can hear our pain and help us find light in darkness. So when this report comes from the cabinet task force, I hope you will listen carefully. The report is bringing some recommendations on how we can stop shooting our wounded and can provide safe places for healing and wholeness among the clergy. Here is another mission opportunity which will call for a stewardship response.

Importance of a Common Table (Conference Structure)

You will hear this week a report from our Conference Structure Task Force. For two years, this task force has been looking at how we might best restructure our ministry throughout this annual conference. This is not about replacing light bulbs that have not burned out; it is about focusing our work so the light might more completely shine. Restructure is about being good stewards of our time, talents and money. Restructure is about enabling our conference to grasp and articulate a vision for where God is calling us to go in the 21st century! Restructure is about focusing on where we are going - not where we have been. Restructure is about prayerfully sensing God's future vision for our conference's mission and creating a structure which best allows the vision and mission to happen. Fundamental to this restructuring will be the clear scriptural mandate calling us to make disciples.

Over the next year we will be conferencing in each district over the concepts in this report. You will be given opportunities to contribute your own creative thinking and visions. We will come back to the 2000 Annual Conference to vote on our conference structure for the 21st century.

One central theme appeals to me: the common table, a covenant table. At the center of our life together can be a covenant table, where the Conference family talk can take place. I hope we can find such a table, such a place. I hope we can sense God's call as we go about the work of making disciples. I celebrate our movement in the direction of a covenant place for the whole church.

Importance of General Conference 2000

From many voices and many parts of the globe comes the plea: remember how important the 2000 General Conference is for The United Methodist Church. God has indeed trusted us to be faithful United Methodist people in such a critical time! Our baptismal waters have washed us up on some interesting and challenging shores!

Few responsibilities bring more honor to a lay person or to a clergy person than to feel the trust of colleagues who say, "If you are there, I shall feel that the North Carolina Conference is there." We are fortunate in the North Carolina Conference to be able to choose ten lay persons and ten clergy persons, so we can capture all of the gifts we need in the delegation. I will be praying for you as you make these decisions.

Conclusion

Now as I come to the conclusion, will you dream with me for a bit about where we go in this 21st century. I dream about what might happen if we believe the Holy Spirit will empower us as the Holy Spirit empowered Wesley in the 18th century. I believe it's our finest hour. I believe the great day of opportunity is before us. I dream of churches reinventing themselves in mission and ministry for the third millennium. The Gospel never changes, the Bible's message is always constant and clear but how we deliver that ministry and how we preach that ministry and how we communicate that ministry is going to be vastly different in the 21st century than it has been at any time in the 20th century. And churches are going to have to reinvent themselves. Pastors are going to have to reinvent their ministry if we are going to reach boomers and busters and Generation Xer populations. Think about what your church is going to be like when all the pre-World War II people die and it's going to happen. I wish there was a way to stop the clock on it and I'm among them.

I dream of churches that will reinvent themselves to meet a ministry. Otherwise there are going to be churches across this annual conference that will be closed by the year 2025, many by the year 2050, unless we reinvent ourselves for ministry in a new kind of world.

I dream of churches where every time the Word of God is taught, something supernatural happens, souls are converted, lives are transformed, minds are expanded, bodies are healed, prejudices vanished, sin is exposed, and relationships are healed.

I dream of churches using varieties of music, art, media, dance, drama, any medium we can imagine to proclaim the Gospel while grasping hold of the great traditions of our hymnody, doctrine, and faith and carry them into the 21st century.

I dream of churches where worship is never boring but is a weekly explosion of joy, excitement, and power. Pastors, it won't happen without your leadership.

I dream of churches where every committed follower of Jesus Christ is in a small group where people are praying together and studying the Bible and supporting each other and serving in mission together from the perspective of their spiritual gifts.

I dream of churches where members are passionate in their determination to join Christ on the front lines of human need, injustice, and ignorance, remembering what Mr. Wesley said: it's personal holiness and social holiness joined together.

I dream of churches that gather for worship, learning, and nurture, then scatter out beyond their four walls into the mission fields that surround their churches.

I dream of churches as centers of apostolic mission, where the Great Commission drives them forth with prospect cards in hand to win the world under the banner of the Great Commission.

If dreams come true, what will our churches look like? They will move from maintenance ministry to risk-taking ministry. They will become vibrant centers of worship and praise. They will develop multifaceted, lay-led ministries of nurture, learning, and outreach. They will be undergirded by an infrastructure of caring and discipling that provides for spiritual formation similar to Wesley's class meetings.

There will be a redirection of church resources and energy to engage the world beyond the four walls of church property and programs. One measuring rod will be the goal of the 50/50 church: 50% of the church's time, talent, and resources given to outreach ministries, in the backyard, in the county, in the state, and in the world.

What will it take for the Holy Spirit to lead us into such ministries in the 21st century? Begin with earnest prayer that God will shake us to our foundations. It will begin with repentance, to confess our sin, our lack of imagination, our mediocrity, our weak work-ethic that lets us spend too much time at home and in the church office. It will begin when we ask God to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves. I pray that God will empower us and entrust us beyond our comfort zones and our self-interest, into a world hungering for the Gospel.

I have said a lot, covered a grand expanse of territory in this address. Now at the conclusion, I would like to step back and take the long view. The baptismal water at our beginning is also promise of our destiny. "As in baptism we put on Christ, so shall we be clothed in glory," the service proclaims. Our beginnings and our endings are in the hands of a mighty God, whose vision is always beyond us. No statement says it all. No prayer fully expresses our desire or our hope. No confession says all that we believe. No sermon is adequate to proclaim God's love and power.

The water of baptism flows from an eternal place, far beyond us. We emerge from the water of baptism, new creatures, workers in God's vineyard. If there is one thing of which I am more confident than ever, it is this -- God is the master builder, the owner of the vineyard, the Lord of the Church.

Hear these words of Oscar Romero, bishop and martyr of the Church:

We plant seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted . . .

We lay foundations . . . We provide yeast . . . Yet, we cannot do everything.

And there is a sense of liberation in knowing that. This enables us to do something, and do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning. A step along the way, an opportunity for God's grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker.

We are the workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own.

As we begin this week together, let us entrust ourselves and this Church we love again to God. And let us remember our baptism and be thankful.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

Each year the United Methodist Foundation reports to Annual Conference the what and the how of 12 months of accomplishments. This what and how details new total assets, new investment partner numbers, numbers of new accounts and total financial gain. This information is very important. Considering the magnitude and impact of the mission and ministry of United Methodist Foundation, however, it is even more important to lift up the who involved in all that the Foundation accomplished in partnership and service with the North Carolina Annual Conference.

This year the Foundation is privileged to focus on the who in its accomplishments by extending a very special and heartfelt thank you to Rev. Douglas Byrd who, after 13 ½ years as the Foundation's Executive Director, retired on December 31, 1998. Douglas, through his great vision, benevolent leadership and expert administration has guided the Foundation through its most dramatic and significant growth in assets and service since its founding in 1955. Douglas's leadership has extended far beyond the North Carolina Annual Conference as an officer and leader in the Southeastern Jurisdictional Association of United Methodist Foundations. During his tenure as Executive Director the Foundation has grown from 37 accounts with assets of $13.7 million in 1984 to over 500 accounts and over $67,000,000 in total assets today.

On behalf of its Board of Directors, its investment and donor partners, Conference clergy and lay membership, and the entire North Carolina Conference, the Foundation expresses its deep and sincere appreciation to Rev. Douglas Byrd for the great vision, expert benevolent leadership and wise guidance he has so generously given as Executive Director of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

In addition to his leadership with the United Methodist Foundation, the North Carolina Annual Conference and United Methodism nationally, the Foundation celebrates the many lifelong friendships that he and Carolyn have made and the many significant contributions they have so generously given through 40 plus years in service to the Church. The Foundation honors both Douglas and Carolyn and extends to them its very best wishes as they begin their new journey. May the joy of their new journey be shared with their many friends throughout North Carolina and beyond for many years to come.

The change in executive leadership at United Methodist Foundation is being successfully accomplished due to the excellent leadership that Douglas provided Foundation staff, the Board of Directors, individuals, missions and ministries in churches all across the North Carolina Annual Conference over the years. United Methodist Foundation, Inc. entered its 44th year of stewardship ministry for United Methodism in the North Carolina Conference on January 1, 1999 with assets of $67,855,239. This represents an increase in assets of approximately $6,600,000 during 1998; one of the largest annual increases in assets since the Foundation was established in 1955. Forty-five (45) new accounts were established in 1998: Eleven (11) new endowments; three (3) new charitable gift annuities; one (1) new charitable remainder trust; and thirty-one (31) new revocable investment accounts. These statistics, in dollars invested and numbers of new "Investment Partners," point to significant increases in financial support for various missions and ministries throughout the North Carolina Conference. The growth of United Methodist Foundation can be attributed to a better awareness and acknowledgment of the importance of long-range planning and long-term funding of mission and ministries of the Church, as well as the value of prudent gift and estate planning on the part of individuals and families.

In 1998 the net income credited to or paid out to unit-holders was $1,558,260 while the net realized and unrealized gains on investments amounted to $4,331,169 for a total 1998 investment return of 9.17%. Annual average rates of return on investments for the Foundation have been: 3 years . . . 12.56%; 7 years . . . 10.79%; 16 years . . . 11.59%.

Since 1996 The Consulting Group of Salomon Smith Barney has been the investment consultant for the Foundation. The present asset allocation model provides for wide diversification of investments and consists of 60% equities and 40% fixed income investments. The equity investment managers are: Oppenheimer Capital (Large Cap Value), Montag & Caldwell (Large Cap Growth), Furman Selz Capital Management (Small Cap), and Brandes Investment Partners (International). The fixed income managers are Invesco Capital Management (Intermediate Term Securities), Davis Hamilton Jackson & Associated (Intermediate Term Securities) and Oxford Mortgage Corporation (Mortgage Loans).

More than 500 accounts make up the Foundation's portfolio and provide strong financial support across the spectrum of mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church. Each account is comprised of gifts from donors supporting causes of the Church. These funds are prudently managed and invested by the Foundation in its role as custodian and/or trustee.

The Foundation continues to provide a continuum of planned giving resources and services to assist donors in making gifts and establishing gift plans in support of their local church and other causes of the Methodist Church. Planned Giving Handbook for Churches of the North Carolina Conference, a resource published by United Methodist Foundation has been a vital tool for local churches to establish planned giving and endowment programs. The 1998 revised edition has been distributed to every charge. Additional copies are available upon request by calling the Foundation office. Educational workshops, supportive consultation, printed resources, and hands-on assistance are also available to every church that is working to make planned giving and endowments a part of their total stewardship program.

Through the distribution of stewardship education information and materials, workshops on leadership development in estate and gift planning, and through other planned giving presentations the Foundation welcomes invitations to bring this wider and deeper dimension of Christian stewardship into every local church. A significantly positive difference is being realized in those churches that are including long-range planning and funding in their total stewardship program.

Approval from the 1997 Annual Conference allowed the Foundation's Board of Directors to revise and restate its Charter of Incorporation and create new Bylaws. This has been accomplished and the Foundation's Board now consists of 15 Directors representing a cross-section of the Conference. A 10-year goal of the Board of Directors to position the United Methodist Foundation as a financially self-supporting ministry has been completed and the Foundation no longer receives direct financial support from the North Carolina Conference. However, the Foundation gratefully acknowledges the Conference's continued support through the provision of Foundation office space and financial accounting services.

The Foundation welcomes telephone calls and visitors to its office in the West Wing of the United Methodist Conference Building in Raleigh. The street address is 1307 Glenwood Avenue / Suite 153 in Raleigh. The mailing address is United Methodist Foundation, Inc., PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Contact the Foundation by telephone at (800) 555-4718 or locally at (919) 836-0029. The Foundation FAX number is (919) 836-0092.

The United Methodist Foundation welcomes opportunities to assist persons who wish to make gifts or plan their gifts to benefit their local church, Conference Institution or other mission ministry of the Church. In addition, the Foundation encourages local churches to strengthen their stewardship programs by including the components of planned giving and endowments. The Foundation is also pleased to continue providing assistance and support services for any and all causes of the Church upon request.

The Board of Directors and staff of United Methodist Foundation extends to the North Carolina Conference its deep appreciation for the faithful support so generously given to this stewardship ministry through the years, and expresses its sincere gratitude to the many donors it has been privileged to assist in their gift planning in response to the blessings which God has entrusted with them.

I. Lynn James, Executive Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

United Methodist Men is a creative, supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually and to seek daily His will. In 1998, 204 NC Conference fellowships were chartered under the General Commission of United Methodist Men. There are many other organized fellowships within the NC Conference who meet on a regular basis, but are not nationally chartered. Structured under the theme of Evangelism, Mission, and Spiritual Life, it is the goal of United Methodist Men to be servant leaders at home, at church and within our communities.

On a national basis, the General Conference of United Methodist Men provides training sessions, video studies, and programs to assist fellowships in completing their mission. The EMS program, of which there are 367 members in the NC Conference, is the main financial support for the General Conference of UMM. Through the General Conference, programs such as the "Moving Methodist", the "Upper Room" Prayer Ministry, and youth scouting are supervised and funded. It should be noted that through the support of UMM, the Methodist Church is the largest supporter of The Boy Scouts of America. Many fellowships also fight hunger in the USA by supporting the Society of St. Andrews Meals for Millions program. Started by United Methodist Men, the Society of St. Andrews currently provides 25 million meals annually for the nation's hungry. Within the conference, districts and local churches, UMM are visible through the work they do to support the needs of their church, community, state, and country. Many of the districts and the conference schedule retreats, prayer and fellowship meetings to share their faith and provide support for one another.

Conference goals include:

1. Providing for the spiritual and physical needs of our world, wherever needed.
 2. Uniting Methodist Men by increasing the number of "chartered" units to 500 by the end of 2001.
 3. Increase support of Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life, through membership in the EMS program. There is no reason every member of every fellowship should not be a member of this outreach ministry.
 4. Continue to bring awareness to each fellowship of the importance of support for the Society of St. Andrews through the Meals for Millions program and the Society's gleanings network.
 5. Support the work of the Upper Room Prayer Ministry through financial assistance and naming and training a local prayer advocate in every fellowship
 6. Increase support for scouting ministry in our churches through support of the UMM foundation and sponsorship and participation in scouting programs.
- My personal goal is to increase awareness of the need for men to be in fellowship with each other under the guidance of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The 1997-2000 Quadrennial Theme for United Methodist Women in the NC Conference is "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry." The focus for 1997 was "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Loving." The focus for 1998 is "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Living" as the UMW of the NC Conference strived to be living witnesses and as we strived to be His hands in ministry around the world.

In January, newly elected Conference Officers were trained at the Leaders In Training Event in Chicago. The Conference Executive Committee, Program Committee and District Presidents met at NC Wesleyan College to make plans for the year. Also in January the District Officers held training sessions to train local officers. Special emphasis is still on the Visitation Program and the Membership Campaign to seek to involve teens, college and university women, women 19-39 and newly retired women. Teen Circles are growing, more 39 and Under women are involved and the starting of new circles in general was encouraged. Four new units were started in 1998 and inactive units were reactivated. Though we are excited about the growth in 1998, we must not cease to work on membership. In 1998 we lost 564 to death.

The 1998 Conference 39 and Under Event was held February 20-21st at Haymount UMC in Fayetteville. The Carol Goehring was the leader and over 200 young women attended and participated in workshops. The 1999 39 and Under Event was held at Saint James UMC in Greenville. The Rev. Laura Early was the leader and over 200 in attendance. It is exciting to see the younger women volunteering in leadership and becoming involved. One young woman shared that after attending a UMW workshop on violence to children, her circle became involved in a school working with at-risk children.

In March, we supported and promoted Food Lion Community Ways Days for the Methodist Home for Children and helped to raise over $28,000 for our Children's Homes. We are still striving to reach our goal of $35,000!

Over 250 took time apart for spiritual renewal when they attended the 1998 Conference Spiritual Enrichment Retreat led by The Rev. Judi Smith at Louisburg College on May 29-30. The 1999 Spiritual Enrichment Retreat will be led by Bea Fosmire. The Scholarship Committee met in May and awarded $6,375 in scholarships to eleven applicants who were attending Methodist colleges or who planned to enter religious occupations.

In June the 11 elected Conference Officers attended the South Atlantic Regional School where every officer had devotional time, officer update and 10 hours of study in one of the three Church-wide Mission Studies for 1999.

The second Conference School of Christian Mission was held at Methodist College July 30-August 1, 1998. The UMW, lay and clergy persons who attended had the opportunity to take all three of the 1999 Mission Studies as well as take advantage of an outstanding Learning Resource Center provided by our District Presidents. The school also offered focus groups and leadership development. The theme for the 1999 Conference School of Christian Mission is "God's Timeless Word" and it will held July 28-31, 1999 at Methodist College.

For the last three years we have had Conference Racial Justice Workshops in August. As a result of these workshops, eight of the Districts have held District-wide Racial Justice Workshops in conjunction with the District Council on Ministries. Another Conference Racial Justice Workshop will be held in 1999 on August 28th.

In September of 1998, 40 UMW went on a two-day Hands-On Mission Work Team to the Robeson County Church and Community Center. Some worked in the center sorting clothes and helping in the food pantry and other areas in center. Some helped with home repairs by painting a house. At the end of the two days, Steve Taylor, Director of the project, said that he had never had a work team that accomplished so much and that the center had never looked so good!

The Mother/Child Retreats held at Camps Chestnut Ridge and Don Lee on September 11-13 and Camp Rockfish on September 18-20, 1998 were filled to capacity again. The 1999 Mother/Child Retreats will be September 17-19 at all three camps.

The Conference Officers issued challenges to districts and local Units at the Annual Meeting held at Methodist College on October 10th. One challenge was to have 999 at the 1999 Annual Meeting which will be held on October 9, 1999!

One of the most rewarding things that we do is supporting and participating in the MATCH (Mother's And Their Children) Prison Ministry at NC Correctional Institution for Women in Raleigh. We have women who transport children to visit their mothers who are incarcerated. Wonderful things have happened on these trips. One transporter stopped at Hardee's and bought the children she was transporting a breakfast biscuit. Before they ate the transporter said grace. On the next trip one of the children asked to say the grace. These trips give us an opportunity to listen to these children and to share with them. Through the parenting courses, which are a part of MATCH and program at the center, we are making better parents and breaking the cycle of children following their mothers into prison.

In 1998 our Conference Pledge to Mission was $410,000. We sent over $438,000 in undesignated giving to mission. Through our mission giving we are truly "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry" here at home and all around the world!

Above and beyond giving money, UMW volunteer their time working a multitude of mission experiences such as soup kitchens, clothing closets, shelters of the battered and the homeless, mission work teams, literacy programs, Aids ministry and many more too numerous to mention.

UMW have been women in mission for over 130 years and it all started with the Great Commission of Christ to "go into all the world." We started with pennies and prayers and we continue today to send our pennies and pray our prayers for far off places who need to hear of the love of Christ and to feel His healing touch. I am ending my fourth year as President of the NC Conference UMW. I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the UMW of our conference for their great commitment to mission in their churches, in their communities and in the global ministries of the church and to thank them for the outstanding job they always do! In due season He will reap if we faint not!

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"Living Toward a Vision" is the theme for the 1998-1999 year of Conference youth ministry. This vision is expressed in Scripture in Ephesians 1:15-19a in terms of faith, love, prayer, Spirit, knowing God, light, hope, blessings and power. This vision is also expressed in the mission statement of Conference youth ministry: to walk with youth in their journey to know Christ by creating an environment in which youth can experience Christian communion to hear the Gospel, to know God's love and to respond in faith by loving and serving others...for in all of this we are making disciples of Jesus Christ. Through local church youth ministry with a variety of faces and programs and service projects; through district offering opportunities for youth; with 5000 youth and adults participating in Conference youth events; and with an Episcopal Initiative that calls the church to reach out and meet the needs of young people we are indeed living toward this vision.

Youth (and adults) from across the Conference have participated in seven events over the year: Global Vision, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, Youth Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage. Global Vision included a visit to New York City and a seminar to explore issues of the war on drugs. Rally Day was a bright and sunny spring afternoon that celebrated the place of youth within the life of the church. The Appalachian Trail Hike proved to be a mountaintop experience of God for those involved. Summer Breakaway and ACS offered times of worship and sharing experiences of fellowship and faith in small and large groups. Our youth mission workteam to Costa Rica provided an avenue for Christian service. Pilgrimage (with 3600 in attendance-setting another record), with moving messages of invitation to Christian discipleship from Rev. Shane Stanford and music by Chris Hughes and our own NC Conference youth, will be another Pilgrimage not soon forgotten. For the first time, a weekend retreat event called Kaleidoscope which was expressly for middle school youth, was offered as a spiritual life retreat.

In addition to these events, youth ministry extended across the Conference through YES! Ministries - Youth Empowered by the Savior! Two YES! Ministries Weekends were held in local churches in the Conference year 1998-1999. On these weekends youth are in leadership of a weekend designed for group building and faith sharing among the youth of a local church youth ministry.

Youth Service Fund continues to be an avenue of mission for United Methodist Youth. Grants to such ministries with youth as Conduit Day Camp, Trinity Child Care Center in Wilmington, All God's Children UMC in Aulander, Positive Attitude Youth Center in Burlington, Zion Memorial Recreational Outreach Facilities, Camp Providence in South Carolina, and the Iganga Youth Community Based Health Care Center in Uganda and many other worthy ministries are possible only inasmuch as local churches support and contribute to Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth and spent by youth to benefit youth. While the contributions to YSF at Conference youth events is very good, more support from local churches is needed to reach our goal of $15000 a year.

We rejoice in the vision that local church youth ministries are living toward in the areas of mission, service, study, outreach, fellowship and spiritual growth. We celebrate and give thanks to the Annual Conference and all the people within local churches giving support and encouragement to youth ministry. We pray for God's guidance and blessing as we live toward a vision of discipleship in Jesus Christ.

CLYDE STEWART BOGGS

1907 - 1998

Clyde Stewart Boggs was born in Norton, NM on May 27, 1907, the son of James Preston and Sara Eversole Boggs. He was graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College in 1930 and Duke Divinity School in 1934. He received his license to preach in 1927, was received on trial in 1934, was ordained deacon in 1936 and ordained elder in 1938.

Clyde was married to Hazel Marie Kearns on August 3, 1933. Hazel was a great helpmate to her husband and she taught school for many years. The couple also were blessed with two children. Hazel and Clyde enjoyed 20 years of retirement prior to her death on March 16, 1993.

Clyde Boggs began his career in the Kentucky Conference. He served there at Clay City in 1934, West Liberty in 1935, and Grasslick-Camiago in 1936, then transferred to the NC Conference in 1937. He was appointed at Newport, 1937, and Aurora, 1941, before serving during World War II as a chaplain in 1943-45. Following the war, he was appointed to Lakewood in 1946; Mt. Gilead, 1951; Haymount, 1954; Clinton, 1957; Wilmington District Superintendent, 1961; Steele Street, 1966; and Richlands, 1970; before his retirement in 1973.

Pastor friends say that Clyde was a very caring man who always had a heart and passion for missions. He and Hazel were happy to serve as counselors for the European Caravan for youth and young adults in the NC Conference in 1960. While Clyde was serving as district superintendent, he and Hazel had each clergy family in the district for supper more than once. This was a meaningful and festive event to many young clergy couples, and it was one example of how he cared for the welfare of his fellow clergy.

Clyde resided at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham for several years before moving near his daughter at Liberty Commons in Wilmington. He greatly enjoyed his special place at both retirement homes, leading the hymn singing for many years. Clyde died on July 25, 1998, at age 91. He was buried beside Hazel at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens in Wilmington.

Survivors include his daughter, Juanita B. Bowman of Wilmington, his son, James Preston Boggs of Versailles, KY; six grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Though Clyde suffered from Alzheimer's in his last years, family members are grateful to remember that he was the very best father and grandfather a man could possibly be. He always had been a happy man, and he was smiling, whistling, and singing hymns to the very end.

MURRELL KELSO GLOVER

Murrell Kelso Glover, 88, died August 5, 1998, in Greensboro. A graveside service was held at 11:30 am on August 14, 1998, in the family cemetery in Duplin County.

Born July 10, 1910 in Garrett County, MD, Murrell was the oldest son of Clyde Allen and Loa Elnora Kelso Glover, and he grew up on their farm. His life was filled with a variety of accomplishments. He was a graduate of Blue Ridge Junior College and Bridgewater College, thereafter working as a chemist for Celanese Corporation and later for Hercules Powder Company.

In his thirties, Murrell earned a MDiv degree from Duke University and was ordained as a Methodist minister, serving numerous churches in the NC Conference. He later earned a Master's degree from East Carolina University and spent approximately 10 years as a college chemistry professor before returning to the active ministry.

He served as a chaplain in the US Army, retiring with the rank of Major. He was a Mason. He held a pilot's license and enjoyed flying. He also enjoyed working with his hands, teaching himself carpentry and similar skills, and he largely built his own house near Chapel Hill.

Erma Elizabeth Williams of Kenansville became Murrell's wife on April 23, 1949. She was a school teacher and East Carolina University professor for many years. Following their retirements, they settled near Chapel Hill, their home until illness required them to move near their son in Greensboro. Erma died on February 10 1998, just six months prior to her husband's death.

Murrell is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, Durant and Carol Glover; granddaughter, Kathryn Glover of Greensboro; a brother, Harley Glover; and sisters, Doris Frazee and Edith Glover, all of Maryland.

The Family

RILEY VANCE HARDISON, JR.

1924 - 1998

The Reverend Riley Vance Hardison was born June 30, 1924 in Wilmington. He was the son of the late Riley Vance Hardison, Sr., and Margaret Mintz Hardison. He married Phyllis Lancaster Hardison in Washington, NC, on January 3, 1987.

Vance Hardison was in his 40's when he entered full-time ministry. Prior to that he had held various occupations, including stone cutter, carpenter, and bridge tender. It was during those years that he prepared for the ministry by becoming a well-read and self-educated man. He did his seminary work at Duke Divinity School and served charges at Old Dock, Riegelwood, Love Joy-Macedonia, and his last appointment, Washington Circuit (Wares Chapel and Wharton Trinity in Beaufort County).

He is remembered fondly as being a caring and compassionate pastor. Whenever there was illness, death, or a serious problem in his church family, Vance could easily be located and quick to respond to the family or individual's needs. Someone stated, "He was at home wherever he was." In other words, he was welcomed in his parishioner's homes where he loved to spend a big portion of time. He was the type of pastor with whom people could easily talk. He possessed a hearty sense of humor, especially with his dry wit and his funny stories.

It is no exaggeration that he was a unique individual. There was nothing pretentious about him. He never had ambition to serve a large church. His great joy was being the pastor to his flock, and sharing his well-prepared sermons in a way that the average person could grasp. His use of stories and metaphors enabled his listeners to get a handle on deep theological issues and difficult texts of the Bible.

Vance Hardison was multi-talented, working with his hands as a carpenter, electrician, or even as mechanic. These may appear unnecessary skills for a minister, but they were a real asset to him when he helped work on small churches that needed repairs, or for his parishioners who needed a helping hand.

After his retirement in 1987, one of his greatest sources of achievement was that he made several trips to McClellanville, SC, assisting people whose homes had been totally destroyed by Hurricane Hugo. He always made the trips at his own expense and did so without attempting to bring any credit to his name.

His family brought a great joy to his life. In addition to his wife, Phyllis, survivors include two stepsons, Marshall Hall, Jr., of Texas, David Hall of Washington, NC; one stepdaughter, Lisa Waters of Washington, NC; two sisters, Margaret Bishop and Becky Smith, both of Wilmington; three brothers, Horace, Donald, and Daniel Hardison, all of Wilmington; and six step-grandchildren.

After his passing on August 30, 1998, a Service of Death and Resurrection was held September 2 in Washington, NC, with the Reverends Craig Richardson, Sid Huggins, and David Harrington, officiating. He was buried in Pamlico Memorial Gardens.

My last conversation with Vance was just days before his death. He talked about his faith in Christ, heaven, memories of his mother and father, and his hopes of meeting them soon. He was a good man, a good friend, and a faithful pastor, and I rejoice as his hopes now have come true.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN MEACHAM

1910 - 1998

The Reverend Frank Meacham died on September 13, 1998 at Bedford, PA. He loved life and lived every minute of his 88 years with zest. His motto was "work hard and play hard," and he did just that! He was known by his friends and family for his sense of humor and his love of nature and outdoor activity, be it fishing, golfing, hunting, gardening, boxing (he boxed at Duke University), or supporting his local sports teams. He loved a challenge, and never knew fear. Yet he was compassionate and generous toward all he met. He loved God and people, and he served those of all nationalities, races, and faiths with energy and passion. He loved his country and always had a special affinity for those who serve it in uniform.

Frank was born near Rockingham on June 12, 1910 to the late William and Mattie Whitlock Meacham. He joined the NC Conference in 1936 and in 1941 he graduated from Duke University with a MDiv degree. On July 31, 1940, he married Mildred Clarke Appling of Gap Mills, WV, who now resides in Bedford, PA. She was an equal partner in a Christian ministry that encompassed almost 60 years.

Frank was appointed to Mt. Gilead Circuit, 1936; Siler City, 1940; Caledonia, 1941; then in 1942 as an Army Air Corps chaplain in the China/Burma/India theater of operations during World War II. He served the Durham Circuit, 1946; West Rockingham, 1946; Fayetteville Circuit, 1950; he continued as a USAF chaplain in 1951, and subsequently, served in places as varied as California, Arizona, Florida, Mississippi, Alaska, Okinawa, Texas, and NC before retiring from active duty in 1968 at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He was appointed to St. Pauls Charge in 1968, and remained pastor there until retirement from the ministry in 1976.

For another 20 years, Frank and Millie Meacham continued to serve actively the St. Paul's community. Frank's contributions to the quality of life where he served were many and long-lasting. He was a trustee of the Methodist Home for Children for six years. He preached in 41 churches of various denominations after his retirement from St. Paul's, and restored and revived old Purdie Church near Tar Heel, doubling its membership in one year.

Frank was volunteer for the American Red Cross for 20 years and was a dedicated member of the Lions Club, VFW, American Legion, and Kiwanis. He served the Boy Scouts of America throughout his adult life, as camp chaplain, fund-raiser, and advisor. Perhaps he is most loved for the Christian charity he and his wife, Millie, extended to transients, fire victims, the elderly, those in ill health, and anyone in need. The work the Meachams did for so many individuals - including the giving of money, food and shelter to strangers as well as to locals - is best known to those they served without question and without fail. The Meacham home was magnet for people needing a lift, and it was always open and loving - so much so that the ministers of St. Pauls organized a ministerial association to alleviate the Meachams of their burden and to carry on these tasks in their stead. Other residents founded the "Meacham Award" to recognize those who serve others in the tradition the Meachams established and fulfilled for so many years.

In addition to his wife of 58 years, Frank leaves behind a daughter, Marilyn, wife of Colonel Ronald V. Growden, USAF (retired), their daughters, Jennifer Rebecca and Emily Clarke, all of whom live in Bedford, PA. Also, granddaughter Darby Lorainne Meacham Thomas and her parents, Dr. Steven and Mrs. Melody Yoder Meacham Thomas, reside in Greenville. He was preceded in death by one son, Darby's father, Captain Richard Franklin Meacham, USAF, who perished in an aircraft accident on January 23, 1973.

At his request, Frank Meacham's remains were cremated and a memorial stone will be erected in the Carmel Cemetery, Gap Mills, WV. In addition, a memorial celebration of his life and ministry was held at the St. Pauls UMC on October 18, 1998 with the Reverend Audrey Holmes officiating.

It can truly be said of Frank Meacham's life and ministry, "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me." (Matthew 25:35-36)

WARREN BERNARD PETTEWAY

1919 - 1998

The Reverend Doctor Warren B. Petteway was born on August 4, 1919 in Jacksonville, the first son of Walter Bernard Petteway and Margaret Maysie Cole. He was reared in Kinston where he attended the public schools. He graduated from Louisburg College, Wofford College, and Duke Divinity School. Methodist College later awarded him an honorary Doctor of Divinity.

He married Edna E. Laws on December 24, 1944. Their only child, Warren Bernard "Bernie" Petteway, Jr., was born on October 23, 1953.

Before enrolling at Duke University, he served the Swansboro Charge for a short time. He was admitted to the NC Conference at Rocky Mount in 1943. He was ordained a deacon in 1944 and ordained elder in 1945. As an active pastor he served for 42 years in the following locations: Rougemont, East Rockingham, Asbury of Durham, First Methodist in Henderson, Duke Memorial of Durham, First Methodist in Wilson, District Superintendent of the Raleigh District, and Haymount Church in Fayetteville. In his retirement he served Layden Memorial Church in Raleigh, and then as minister of visitation at Hayes Barton Church in Raleigh.

On February 21, 1974, while in Wilson, his wife Edna died of cancer. On June 6, 1975 just before moving to Raleigh as District Superintendent, he married Harriett B. Fleming. Warren earned a reputation as an outstanding preacher and a tireless worker. His faithfulness in visiting his sick and homebound members was a hallmark of his ministry. His major focus was on serving the congregations where he was appointed and he seldom took time away for vacations or personal matters.

Warren Petteway worked the last week of his life, visiting for Hayes Barton Church. On Saturday, September 19, 1998, he left to be with his Savior. A service of celebration and thanksgiving was conducted on September 22, 1998 at Hayes Barton UMC with district superintendent, the Reverend Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, and pastors, the Reverend Dr. George W. Johnson and the Reverend Sally Glenn Bates. A private interment took place at Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

He is survived by his wife, Harriett F. Petteway, of Raleigh, son and daughter-in-law, Warren B. "Bernie" Petteway, Jr., and Diane C. Petteway of Cary, and brother and sister-in-law, Dr. S. Bruce Petteway and wife, Eleanor, of Kinston. A brother, Alton M. Petteway, of Huntsville, AL, predeceased him.

The Reverend Dr. George W. Johnson said of Warren, "I had the privilege of serving in the Raleigh District during Warren's tenure as district superintendent. He was a capable administrator and a good mentor. He was faithful and fair in the conduct of his ministry and gracious in his relationship with those under his care.

More than anything else, however, I admired him as a person. He was not easily provoked, yet his stance was certain. His authority was grounded in compassion and his actions guided by love and loyalty. He was a man shaped by his commitment to his Lord and informed by his intellect. His teaching, preaching, and visiting reflected his deep faith. Perhaps his prayers gave the best insight into the window of his soul. They were succinct, powerful, and had a resonant literary beauty. You sensed that he knew to whom he prayed, and his marvelous voice sounded forth the confidence of that relationship.

Farewell, good friend, you have been faithful to the end; enter into the joys of your Lord."

1921 - 1998

"...do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day...?"

David's lament about the death of Abner came to mind as Jean's words told many of us, "Kimsey has finished the race." Kimsey finished his course in this life on September 30, 1998.

The Reverend Doctor King, pun intended, lived among the elders of itinerancy as a prince of decency, professionalism, and Christian character. In his expressions of calling and position, Kimsey strove to be the team player, the care giver, the cross bearer, always his first priority that of duty, honor, selflessness. He was a Christian gentleman, a pastor's pastor, and a faithful friend. Every conscious day, he prayed for the leadership, rank, and file of this connection.

Born in Durham on May 7, 1931, to Arnold K. King, Sr., and Edna Coates King, and educated at the University of North Carolina and Duke University - the mix of Carolina and Duke blue issued a true "royal blue." Blessed with "more degrees than a thermometer," the doctor possessed an uncanny gift for speaking, teaching, and preaching in ways readily understood by patient and professional. His Sunday School Lesson, published in the NC Christian Advocate for 21 years, provided the "meat" for thousands of Sunday school lessons and more than one "Saturday Night Special Sermon!"

Prior to his extension ministry as an administrator, Kimsey served pastorates at Edenton Street, Woodland and Ahoskie, and he was the founding pastor of Aldersgate UMC in Chapel Hill. When pulpits were closed to his wheelchair, Kimsey continued in ministry as an astute administrator, consummate caregiver, able author, and a super conference secretary!

Kimsey served his country during the Korean Conflict as a Staff Sergeant, USAF. He was an advocate, as pastor and citizen, for those who served, helping to interpret the role of the church in caring for those in service to country. He understood uniquely the calling to "render to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God, what is God's." He served his country as a Democrat, a Rotarian, an Optimist, but first, as a Christian.

His greatest blessing in life (other than being born a "King!") was his family - and first among those blessings was the lovely Marjorie Jean Fisher, to whom he was married on June 22, 1952. Kimsey also is survived by his children: Leslie Gallagher of San Jose, CA; Carole Epes of Seattle, WA; Arnold Kimsey King III of Cary; and Julia Yigdal of Pittsboro. His sister, Mary Ann Jones, lives in San Diego, CA; and brother, Dennis, lives in New York City. A wonderful blessing for friends was to receive the annual Christmas picture, with Kimsey and Jean surrounded by their four children and seven grandchildren!

Kimsey's life was celebrated in a memorial service at Epworth UMC in Durham. The service was led by the Reverend Ben Rouse, assisted by the Reverend Susan Allred, pastor of the church founded by Kimsey, and Dr. Al Fisher, contemporary. His ashes were scattered in the Epworth Memorial Gardens.

"The King is Dead. Long live the King!"

Kimsey's body has returned to the earth, but his spirit lives with God and ministers to AND with us, FOREVER! Thanks be to God!

CHARLES ALISON SIMONTON, JR.

1923 - 1998

Newspaper editor, World War II combat paratrooper, local church pastor, religion editor, husband, father, grandfather, friend. The Reverend Charles Alison Simonton, Jr., packed a lot of living into the 74 years God gave to him before his death from cancer on October 20, 1998.

Al Simonton, humble and a servant to all, loved his God and wrote toward the end of his life, "The first thing I want to say is that no one, I mean literally no one, who has ever lived can hold a candle to Jesus."

Three days before his death Al completed the first leg of a cherished dream, with publication of a sampler booklet of two dozen of his editorials. Al Simonton was not only a preacher in the pulpit, he was a preacher in the editor's chair for The North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Al Simonton was born into a devout Christian family, C. A., Sr., and Mattilou Brown Simonton, on December 5, 1923, in Covington, TN. Years later, at the age of six, his mother asked him what he wanted to be when he grew up. "I want to be a preacher!" he told her.

Following high school, Al enrolled in Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism. The war was on and he volunteered for the military service, becoming active in April of 1943 with the 10th Mountain Infantry Division. He later was transferred to the Army Air Corps, the 86th Blackhawk Infantry Division, and finally to the 101st Airborne Division where he found himself among troops defending the perimeter of Bastogne against the German Army's December 1944 attack.

It was at Bastogne that Al was sent a message about his life. An enemy shell knocked him off his feet, but failed to explode. If it had, he would have perished.

After the war Al returned to Northwestern University, receiving the BSJ and MSJ journalism degrees. He was inducted into Kappa Tau Alpha.

Following college he served for a year as circulation manager of the "Hotel Monthly" magazine in Evanston, IL. He then returned to his home town to become editor of the family-owned weekly newspaper, The Covington Leader.

After five years in this position he received a Saint Paul-like vision and entered the Methodist ministry, going to Duke Divinity School in 1955, and serving the four-point Rougemont Charge during his seminary years.

He earned the MDiv Degree in 1959, then in 1985, he was awarded an honorary DD degree by Methodist College in Fayetteville.

Other appointments in the NC Conference for Simonton followed: Glendale Heights, Durham, which he started, 1959-64; Christ in Fayetteville 1964-69; Epworth in Durham, 1969-74; and Chestnut Street in Lumberton, 1974-76. In all of these appointments new sanctuaries were built and the congregations grew in numbers.

In 1976, the Board of Publication for The North Carolina Christian Advocate invited Al to become the new editor. He accepted and served in this position for 18 years until his retirement at the age of 70.

His work as editor earned him and The Advocate many honors, including eight Certificates of Merit from the national United Methodist Association of Communicators. He was recognized for layout and design, editorials, writing, general excellence, use of illustrative material, and editorial content.

Al Simonton was a man of extraordinary commitment to Jesus Christ, and he had a deep compassion for humanity, especially for those who were oppressed and suffering, including involvement in the civil rights movement.

He continued to do so through his sermons (he traveled from Murphy to Manteo) and through his editorials at The Advocate. These efforts were recognized by Bennett College of Greensboro as the school awarded Al an unusual Certificate of Recognition upon his retirement for his 18 years "of outstanding service as editor." He dearly cherished this recognition.

While Simonton was clear about his theology, those beliefs never alienated or isolated. He was a compatible conservative, always open and available to listen to other perspectives.

Above all, Al was a servant leader. His impact upon others is only now being realized by the many lives he touched throughout his life.

During the final years of Simonton's life following retirement, he and his wife, Nan, moved to Charlotte. It was here that his funeral was held on October 22, 1998 at 11:00 am in Myers Park UMC. The Reverend Dr. Julian M. Aldridge, Jr., pastor, officiated. Interment took place at 4:00 pm that day in Pilot Mountain City Cemetery.

Survivors include Dr. Simonton's wife, Nancy Jo Patterson Simonton of Charlotte, to whom he was married on August 23, 1947; sons, Dr. Charles Simonton III and his wife, Arlene, of Charlotte, and the Reverend E. Cary Simonton and his wife, Holly, of Cincinnati, OH; daughters, Nancy Louanne Simonton Penny and her husband, Richard, of Davis, CA; and Sarah Elizabeth Simonton Appgar and her husband, Richard, of Savannah, GA; a sister, Mary Ann Spence and her husband, John, of Memphis, TN; and grandchildren, Casey, Scott, Cameron, Harris, Meredith, Abigail, Alison, and Haviland.

DAVID DINWIDDIE TRAYNHAM

David Dinwiddie Traynham was born September 13, 1905, in Clarkton, Bladen County, the son of Charles Rueben and Clara Patrick Traynham. His early church membership was in Trinity UMC in Fairmont. He attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and graduated from Randolph Macon College in Ashland, VA. He earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, VA, in 1931.

David served in the churches of the NC Annual Conference for 40 years. He was ordained as a deacon in 1933, and was ordained as an elder in 1935. He served the following appointments: Carver's Creek, 1931; Town Creek (Brunswick Co.), 1932; Leasburg, 1935; Garner, 1939; Creedmoor, 1942; Saxapahaw, 1946; Brooksdale, 1950; Northampton, 1954; and Roberdel, 1960. David retired in 1970, having served 40 wonderful and glorious years in the ministry of our church.

In 1953 the members of the Annual Conference elected him to the office of Conference Statistician, and he held that office until 1988, a "second" career that lasted 35 years!

On February 22, 1933, David married Lucy Elizabeth Howard of Ashland, VA. To this union were born two children: a daughter, Catherine Howard Traynham, now the wife of the Reverend Emerson M. Thompson, Jr.; and a son, David Dinwiddie Traynham, Jr. Elizabeth died on September 23, 1963, and on May 16, 1976, David married Miss Nancy Jean Terry, who survives.

The 1994 Journal of the NC Annual Conference was dedicated to the honor of David Traynham. The dedication states: "His genial demeanor, his patient attention to duty, and his quiet humor have won for him the respect and admiration of his peers and his parishioners." Early in his career, one of our bishops remarked that D. D. Traynham had a "D. D." on the wrong end of his name. To this quip from the presiding officer of the Conference D. D. replied, "No sir. My D. D. is on the end where it means something!" From 1930 David attended every session of the Annual Conference through June 1998, which was his 68th consecutive session!

David quietly and patiently endured the pangs and the distress of lymphoma. He quietly slipped into the realm of the eternal life on November 11, 1998 at Richmond Memorial Hospital in Rockingham.

His Service of Death and Resurrection was held on Friday, November 13, 1998 at Green Lake UMC. The Reverend Eric Joyce, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Reverend Robert Flynn and the Reverend Ed Morrison. Burial was in Eastside Cemetery in Rockingham, beside his first wife, Elizabeth.

David Traynham is survived by his wife, the former Nancy Jean Terry; one son, David Dinwiddie Traynham, Jr. of Pensacola, FL; one daughter, Catherine Traynham Thompson of Greenville; one brother, Thomas Traynham of Burlington; one sister, Mary Traynham Floyd of Fairmont; four grandchildren, Catherine Thompson Rockermann of Raleigh, Emerson M. Thompson III of Durham, Dr. David S. Thompson of Greenville, and Yvonne Traynham Karkowski of New Orleans, LA; three great-grandchildren, Samuel G. Rockermann and Christian T. Rockermann of Raleigh, and Emerson M. Thompson IV of Durham.

David's last mortal hours in the hospital were a triumphant vigil for the life everlasting. Hymns were sung, prayers were said, poetry recited, names recalled. We held hands and remembered, and we prayed, and we sang, and we rejoiced! David Traynham has received the gift of the promise. "For whosoever believes in me shall not perish but have everlasting life."

LEMUEL REYNOLDS MASON, JR.

The Reverend Lemuel Reynolds Mason, Jr., was born July 22, 1918, in Wendel, WV, and died on the morning of December 5, 1998, at his home in Buckhannon, WV. Lemuel was the son of the late Lemuel Reynolds Mason, Sr., and Bessie Caroline Glass Mason. He also was preceded in death by his brother, James P. Mason, and his sister, Florence Elizabeth Dybass.

Lemuel's funeral service was conducted at the Poling-St. Clair Funeral Chapel in Buckhannon, WV, by his son-in-law, the Reverend Thomas G. Holtsclaw, and his son, the Reverend John A. Mason, pastor of First Church United Methodist in Dunbar, WV. Buckhannon is the hometown of Lemuel's widow, Delphia Hilton Tenney Mason, whom he married on August 15, 1936. They had made their home there following his retirement from ministry in the NC Conference in 1983. He was buried in the Mt. Carmel UMC Cemetery, at Tallmansville, WV.

Surviving Lemuel, in addition to his widow, Delphia Hilton, are three children: son, John A. Mason of Dunbar, WV; daughters, Jan Mason Holtsclaw of Greenville, and Joy Mason Whitlock of Martinsville, VA; eight grandchildren: Andrea Beth Holtsclaw Malpass, Allen Brent Mason, Timothy Allen Holtsclaw, Mary Beth Mason Stewart, James Daniel Whitlock, Andrew Luke Whitlock, Jason Thomas Holtsclaw, Joshua Lee Whitlock; and seven great-grandchildren.

Lemuel was a 1953 graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, and attended Westminster Seminary in Westminster, MD. He served the following appointments: Boulder Circuit, Volga, WV; Beverly Circuit, Beverly, WV; Coal Fork UMC, Charleston WV; Shepherds Chapel UMC, Charleston, WV; Sophia UMC, Sophia, WV; Smithburg Circuit, Smithburg, WV; Mt. Olive-Tyreanna Charge, Lynchburg, VA; Halifax Charge, Halifax, VA; Mt. Bethel UMC, Martinsville, VA; Oxford Circuit, Oxford, NC; White Memorial UMC, Henderson, NC.

Lemuel will be remembered for his passion to win persons to Christ, his compassion exhibited in his service to Christ and his fellow human beings, as well as his strong desire to see the church building as the most beautiful building in the community, and to see that every parsonage in which he lived was kept in excellent repair. He was blessed by God with great skills in preaching, teaching, and outreach. He was also instrumental in guiding many young persons in responding to their call to ministry. Most of these ministers came to Buckhannon to show their respect and love for Lemuel and his family during the hours of visitation the night prior to his funeral service, as well as being present for the funeral. The UMC is being served in the eastern US by many of these ministers who were both encouraged and tutored by Lemuel R. Mason, Jr.

The history of each of the charges in which Lemuel was appointed will reflect that during his ministry there, the attendance and membership grew, all needed repairs to all church property were done, and the apportionments for mission and service giving were always paid in full. The life and ministry of Lemuel was truly reflected to all who knew him as one who loved the Lord and was led by the Holy Spirit. Lemuel, himself, would say, "Let all the praise and glory for whatever is accomplished in my ministry be given to our Savior who came to me in the darkness of my sin and led me to the marvelous light of His love."

Lemuel's soul rejoiced and his countenance reflected a deep inward peace as he often would listen to one of his favorite songs, entitled, "There Will Be Peace in the Valley." After many years of illness, we know that he is now experiencing the reality of his beloved song as he is at home with the Lord Jesus Christ.

LINWOOD EARL BLACKBURN

The Reverend Linwood Earl Blackburn was born on July 20, 1914 in Wayne County, the son of Homer Boyd and Essie Parks Blackburn. He died in the early morning hours of March 10, 1999 while hospitalized at the Wilson Memorial Hospital in Wilson. His funeral occurred at First UMC in Wilson, and he was buried in the Maplewood Cemetery in Wilson next to his beloved wife of 56 years, Johnsie Mae "Polly" Hyatt Blackburn, who preceded him in death eight months earlier on July 2, 1998.

Linwood received both his undergraduate and divinity degrees from Duke University. Following his calling to the African mission field, he attended Cornell School of Agriculture and the Kennedy School of Missions of Hartford Seminary. After his commissioning as a missionary on December 6, 1942, he was assigned to Quessua, Angola, with a temporary stop in the Belgian Congo because of World War II. Returning from Angola in 1948, he became pastor of First Methodist Church in Pembroke from 1948 until 1952 when he returned to Luanda, Angola, for a second term. Returning in 1957, he served as purchasing agent for the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in New York until 1972. He then returned to NC where he served as associate pastor and retired associate pastor of First UMC in Wilson until the day that he died.

Linwood was first and foremost a husband, father, and friend. He believed in and nurtured each of his children, supported all of their endeavors, and loved each with a love that only a father can have for his children. His special love, after his wife and family, was the Church. He was a true minister, one who found the pain in people and figured out a way to help ease that pain. He combined that caring with an unwavering faith in God and a belief that there was good in everyone. No task was too menial or time too short when people were in need.

A close second to the church were the Boy Scouts. He joined Troop 1 in Goldsboro in 1926 and remained active as a scout and scoutmaster until the day he died. Whether it was starting a scout troop in the Belgian Congo in 1942, or serving as a merit badge counselor for uncountable boys over the years, he remained involved and committed to the movement. He was recognized for his service to scouting with the Silver Beaver Award in 1961 and the National God and Service Award in 1990.

He was the driving force behind the establishment of a continuing chaplaincy program at Wilson Memorial Hospital. A nurse at Wilson Memorial, upon learning of his death, said, "that man has prayed with people in every room of this hospital." His deep concern for others also was seen in his untiring efforts on behalf of the Wilson County Mental Health Association. Through the years, he held every office and served on every committee within that organization.

A quote taken from one of the speakers at his funeral best summarizes his impact on all who came in contact with him: "Linwood will be deeply missed in the ministerial community. The devotion of his faith and the model of his ministry, have inspired and encouraged women and men in ministry in our community through the years. He has been a cherished colleague whose interest and concern have helped us all find our way through the sometimes perplexing waters of parish life. When he said to us, 'How are things going?' he really wanted to know. He noted and affirmed our successes, and he encouraged our continued effort when we stumbled. He taught us the value of visitation and people-centered ministry, paying attention to details, but most of all of being willing to serve wherever service was needed. He taught us the importance of integrity in ministry. All of us who have been touched by Linwood's example of ministry, by his kindness and encouragement, are much better ministers than we otherwise would have been, had we not been privileged to know and love this genuinely humble servant of God."

He is survived by two daughters, Claudia Griffin of Lewiston-Woodville, and Jan Massey of West Palm Beach, FL; two sons, William Blackburn of Raleigh, and Linwood E. Blackburn, Jr., of Franktown, CO; two sisters, Rosa Mae McDonald, and Mary Lou Wade of Fayetteville; and six grandchildren.

MARGARET REEVES SAUNDERS

1922 - 1999

Margaret Reeves Saunders was born June 28, 1922 in Passaic, NJ. She was the daughter of the late Harry Alfred and Edna Swenerton Reeves. She died at her home in Elizabeth City on March 30, 1999 after a short illness. Funeral services were held on April 2 at First UMC of Elizabeth City and were led by Bishop Marion Edwards, the Reverend Dr. Bill Presnell, and the Reverend Charles Pollock. Interment was at Westlawn Cemetery, Elizabeth City.

Margaret was survived by two sons, David and his wife, Becky, of Greensboro, and Richard and his wife, Dora, of Edenton; a brother, Charles Reeves of Clifton, NJ, and five grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her eldest son, Charles Lee Saunders, Jr.

Following graduation from Western Maryland College, Margaret moved to Elizabeth City as a missionary assigned by the Methodist Board of Missions for special work with service personnel and their families. After her tour of duty, she became the Director of Christian Education at First UMC.

She met and soon married Charles Lee Saunders, a local farmer, on August 3, 1946. Tragically, he died following an auto accident on June 28, 1979, Margaret's birthday. My brothers and I, as young adults, witnessed our mother's strong Christian faith and special talent of comforting those who had come to comfort her, even though she was grief stricken with losing her partner of 32 years.

Margaret served as the Director of Christian Education for 16 years. She touched the lives of many young people during this time of service. United Methodist Women was always a very important part of her life. She served as the past president of Elizabeth City District UMW and past president of the NC Annual Conference UMW.

Margaret's ministry was far reaching. She was devoted to her "Monday School" at three local nursing homes. Margaret was the treasurer for Wesley Hospitality House, treasurer for EC District Council on Ministries, and past member of NC Conference Council on Finance and Administration. While a member of the Board of Global Ministries of The UMC, she traveled to Nicaragua, Mexico, Singapore, and Kenya. She was elected as a delegate to the General and SEJ Conferences several times. For the past 12 years, she served as the minister of Perkins UMC of Shawboro. She thoroughly enjoyed her ministry there and was instrumental in the building of a new fellowship hall. In March of this year the Elizabeth City Lay Rally established the Margaret Saunders Scholarship in her honor which will assist students pursuing a career in Christian service.

Margaret was a special person with special qualities. She loved her family, her church, her country and the Lord. People have said that when she asked them to do something for the church, they just couldn't say no. Of course, she too had a difficult time saying no if she was asked to give of her time and talents to the church. Margaret had a lovely sense of humor and seemed to always find the good in people.

While Margaret will truly be missed by her family, her church and her friends, she will not be forgotten. For Margaret lived the life of what many consider to be a "True Christian." It seemed very fitting that she would go to be with her Lord during Holy Week. We praise God for sending us Margaret, for to know her was to love her.

The "Offie L. and Ocie B. Hathaway Endowment" was established by Ocie Hathaway with United Methodist Foundation as trustee. Through a charitable gift annuity this endowment grew to over $255,000 at the time of her death. JOHNSIE MAE HYATT BLACKBURN

"Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning at the bar when I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell when I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place, the flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face, when I have crossed the bar." (Tennyson)

HAZEL BURTIS HENSARLING HEATH

1902 - 1998

Hazel Burtis Hensarling Heath was born November 20, 1902 in Madisonville, TX.

At the age of 12 her father died suddenly which left the family in a state of shock. Her mother was a very faithful Christian woman, and her faith in the Lord proved a blessing at the time. Proverbs 3:5,6 was her guide.

In Hazel's early high school days she dated a boy named Cuyler Freeman Heath. Madisonville's not having an accredited school, the family moved to Bastrop, TX for Hazel to prepare for college. Freeman Heath went on to attend Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, TX.

After Hazel finished high school, the family moved to Fort Worth where Hazel attended Texas Woman's College, a Methodist school. Freeman and Hazel's friendship continued to grow. The "Wedding March" was often sung by friends when they were seen together.

Following Freeman's graduation, he told Hazel he was going to Yale University to continue studies for the ministry. His best friend, John Burtis (named after Hazel's uncle) Hensarling and Hazel took Freeman to the train station. Freeman told John to take care of Hazel. He did! He married her in 1924, and they had two children, a daughter, Erin, of Madisonville, TX, and a son, John B., Jr., who died in 1981.

Later, Freeman married Margaret Elizabeth Frank, and they had two sons, Cuyler F. Jr., and John, and two daughters, Jo and Margaret.

These two couples shared many wonderful family years. Freeman served the Lord in NC and John served the Lord in Texas, and they visited each other from time to time over the years.

After 56 years of marriage John died in 1980. Sometime later, Margaret died also. Freeman retired, then again visited Texas and his family. He also visited Hazel and her family. At a later visit, Freeman and Hazel decided to get married, but where to live: NC or Texas? Hazel had a special home, a great garden, and a great spot for a woodworking shop for Freeman. Texas won.

Now Mother laughed, which was her trademark, and remarked that she was engaged at age 18 and married at age 81. They had four wonderful years together. They both taught Sunday School, studied the Bible, and shared their views. They also loved to play two-handed dominoes, and both loved to brag when they won. Too soon, Freeman suffered a heart attack and died on February 29, 1988.

Mother was the greatest. She enjoyed telling funny stories about her life, she loved flowers, and planting seeds. At age 94, she planted over 50 springtime bulbs by herself. She also was a great cook, and continued to do so every day until her stroke. She loved knitting, sewing, beading, and she tried everything at least once. She always enjoyed life to the fullest.

Hazel held offices in the Women's Society, now UMW, at the local and district level. She was 87 "young" when she was teaching a young women's class. They adored her. Even at age 94, she never missed Sunday School, worship, or Wednesday Bible Study.

In 1997, she had a stroke leaving her left side paralyzed, but she could speak and her mind was clear. She said God always was so good to her, now she encouraged him to "Come and get me." He did on September 18, 1998 with her family around and all holding hands.

She was dearly loved by family and friends. Her pastor spoke at her homegoing celebration that, "She always, and for so long, sat right there, fourth row from the front. We will miss her." And we do. Psalms 70:18,19 surely proved true in her life.

LOUISE GLENN YARBOROUGH WARREN

Mrs. Glenn Yarborough Warren, daughter of the late Nathaniel Graham and Sarah Judd Yarborough, was born in Osgood on August 28, 1906. As a small girl, Glenn moved with her parents and nine siblings to Cary where she began to pursue three of her lifelong loves: scholarship, music, and ministry. After graduating with highest honors from Cary High School, Glenn entered the former NC College for Women (UNC-G) in Greensboro where she majored in music and graduated in 1927. Glenn pursued her musical career briefly in both New York and Virginia before settling in Raleigh, where she taught music, served as the organist at First Presbyterian Church, and played the organ for a weekly radio broadcast.

Glenn married Millard Whitfield Warren, Sr., of Blounts' Creek on November 7, 1931, the same year that Millard was admitted to the NC Conference. This loving union of 54 years was blessed with three children and five grandchildren: the Reverend Millard Whitfield "Whit" Warren, Jr. of Kinston, Glenn Lambeth Warren of New York City, Mary Yarborough Warren of Richmond, VA, Whitney Marie Warren of Winston-Salem, Amos Judd Warren of Boston, MA, Millard Whitfield "Trey" Warren III of Mooresville, Kristie Malinda Warren of Kinston, and Hannah Warren Lavender of St. Mary's County, MD.

Millard and Glenn were in ministry together for over 40 years, 1931 - 1976, serving the following appointments: City Road, Lakewood, Rougemont, Newport, Youngsville, Person Street, Garland, Scotland Neck Circuit, Millbrook, Knightdale, Wake Forest Circuit, Wesley Memorial, Gibson-St. Johns, Mt. Hermon, Pee Dee, Candor, and Norlina. While working with her husband in churches all over the NC Conference, Glenn served as church organist, children and adult choir director, Sunday School teacher, and UMW member and conference officer. In addition, Glenn shared her love for music with countless students throughout her years as a private and public school music teacher.

Young people need people in their lives who will serve as role models. Glenn Yarborough Warren, my grandmother, is my model of grace. She was gracious as well as graceful whenever she led us, whether in prayer or to introduce us to one of her many beloved friends. She combined this grace with an amazing faith and strength of character, which steadied her throughout her life, even at the end, when she made critical decisions which determined the way she would live her last days. Her children, grandchildren and friends will always remember her amazingly strong hugs, her sweet smile, her sense of style, her keen mind, and her head thrown back in a lovely laugh. Nothing was finer than a weekend visit to grandmom's to share stories, candy, and a Duke basketball game. Grandmom loved being surrounded by her family and friends, and we were blessed by her life and love.

Glenn Yarborough Warren died on November 28, 1998, at the Methodist Retirement Community where she lived since 1984. A service celebrating her life and passage into life eternal was held on Tuesday, December 1, in St. John's Chapel of the Methodist Retirement Community. The Reverends Ben C. Rouse and Bess Hunnings conducted the service and the burial which followed at Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

The following verse by Isaac Watts echoes Glenn Yarborough Warren's life and her commitment to Christ, which we now honor and celebrate:

"Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all."

SELETA ANN TUCKER MORGAN

1930 - 1999

Seleta Ann Tucker Morgan was born on May 25, 1930, in Pitt County. She completed Farmville High School in 1949 and continued her education in Greenville. She graduated from East Carolina University in 1953 with a BS degree in Elementary Education. That same year, she married Robert W. Morgan on August 15, 1953. Three children were born to the Morgans: Nancy Morgan Rodgers of Roanoke Rapids, Wyette Morgan Kirby of Wilson, and John Whittelsey Morgan of Alexandria, VA. Seleta helped rear her nephew and niece, Tommy and Brenda Tucker, living in the Charlotte area.

Parish ministries for the Morgans included: Asbury, Carr, Spring Hope, Mt. Zion, Winstead, Enfield, New Sharon, and Fairview. On September 24, 1962, Bob gave Seleta a Bible. In the front of it, he wrote, "To my wife, Seleta, who has inspired me to grow in Christ and who has helped me see more clearly how to attain the fruit of the Spirit."

Seleta was always helping people see more clearly how to attain the fruit of the Spirit. She truly believed that because Christ had lived, we too, should live. It was her calling in life to help others, especially those who suffered. Her genuine love, affection, and compassion was such that few will ever hope to exceed. People of all ages loved her.

Seleta's life was a manifestation of faith and a practice of discipleship at every level. Being a mother and the grandmother to Gray and Anne Tucker Rodgers and Natalie Elizabeth Morgan were among her greatest joys. Her witness of faith extended itself throughout a virtuous life. She was always able to make those around her feel support and love. Seleta helped those who hurt. Helping and healing was her ministry.

The virtuous woman is described in Proverbs 31. Seleta exemplified those virtues in her personal life, her family life and the ministry. When the Morgans retired in Wilson in June of 1995, Seleta again helped use Bob's gifts as he was named Minister of Visitation at Winstead UMC. A year later, Bob was named Pastor Emeritus of Winstead Church in part because Seleta had helped him attain the fruit of the Spirit.

One would have thought that it was time to settle down and take things at a slower pace; however, Seleta continued to be an active disciple for Christ and an active supporter of the Lord's work. Her presence at worship, Bible study, and fellowship activities helped everyone around her experience the joy of accessibility to God. The Lord used her virtues and made her a conqueror.

God healed Seleta on January 4, 1999. On that day, her strength was renewed. Seleta mounted up with wings like eagles. She began to run without being weary. She walked, and did not faint. Her life was celebrated appropriately on Epiphany at Winstead UMC in Wilson. The service was led by the Reverend Tom E. Loftis and the Reverend A. G. Cobb. She was interred at Hollywood Cemetery in Farmville.

All who knew her, loved her. All who were helped by her, will miss her. All who shared this life with her have been, and always will be, truly blessed.

ANNE COLLIER ROSS WILLIAMS

1900 - 1999

"Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."
(Matthew 7:20)

Judged by the conduct of her personal life, Anne Ross Williams led an exemplary Christian life. The impact of her Christian life affected countless individuals who knew her as a friend, relative, wife, mother, or passing stranger who took an interest in and helped with their need or concern. She was endowed with physical beauty, personal charisma, and grace of spirit which shone as she moved from community to community witnessing for Christ. At her funeral, she was referred to as "a mover and a shaker," with double significance to the word "mover."

She moved and shook people through the power of God's love. Unquestionably, those whose lives she touched bear witness to the fruits of the spirit exemplified in her life.

Not long before her death, Anne was visited by a man who called her "Mother." He had been a childhood playmate of her son, Bill. Anne had discovered that he was being neglected and mistreated by his family. She arranged to have him live with her and wanted to keep him permanently. Since it was not possible, she consented to have him placed with a suitable family. After more than 50 years, this man had come to visit and thank her for rescuing him. She was truly a "mover and a shaker." For her, to consider a problem was to take remedial action. Words had their own place in her scheme of things. She wrote letters to friends when visits were inconvenient. A friend relates:

"As a young woman, I had told Anne that I would be making my first transatlantic voyage unaccompanied by personal acquaintances. My plan was to spend some months studying in Paris, and the New York to Rotterdam sea journey would require being at sea for nine days plus a train trip to Paris. The last night at sea had been stormy, so it was a special treat to find a note waiting when I arrived. An excerpt read: 'You may not have seen me or heard my voice, but I was with you in my thoughts and prayers - your invisible stowaway, Anne Ross.'"

The qualities which sustained and enabled the Christian character of her life were molded in the Christian home of her parents, Edward Henry and Lucretia Braswell Collier. Anna Mae was born into their Nash County home on December 10, 1913. The Collier family suffered a severe loss when Edward died leaving his wife and four young children. Despite this tragedy and the rigors of life in rural NC, Anna Mae's mother managed to provide for her children both physically and spiritually.

Bible reading and prayer, and the love of family and friends, sustained Anne Collier after she left NC to marry and begin her own family life in Washington, DC. All too soon she experienced estrangement and widowhood. She moved to Wilmington, DE, where she taught home economics at Sanford Preparatory School to support her young son, Bill, who eventually completed high school there. Photographs, letters, and anecdotes demonstrate that she was respected and loved as a teacher and counselor while there. Fortuitously, she met and married a Methodist minister, the Reverend Leon Warren Ross, to whom she remained wed for 30 years until his death on July 20, 1984.

Although life as a minister's wife can be daunting, for Anne Ross, it seemed a perfect calling. She was already adapted to frequent moves, and had recently gained experience at Sanford as teacher and role model for young people. Bible study and prayer had formed in her the assurance of a mission: to bring people to Christ through personal testimony and witness. The Rosses soon transferred from the Virginia Conference to Anne's beloved North Carolina. In the various churches served by Leon Ross and his wife, she complemented his work attending church services, meetings, conferences, and sometimes teaching Sunday school classes.

After the death of Leon, Anne met and married Hardee Williams. The couple lived in NC for a number of years, and Anne cared for him through a long illness prior to his death. Although friends and relatives helped her through this difficult time, she sought no sympathy and continued to demonstrate the duty of love and sickness as in health. Her own health had been steadily deteriorating, and she had moved back to Virginia for the two years preceding her death.

Anne joined her Lord and her two brothers, Sidney A. Collier and Rosser E. Collier at her death on February 8, 1999 in Amherst, VA. She is survived by her son, William L. Hildebrandt and his wife, Anita, of Amherst, VA; granddaughter, Alesia A. Mattox; great-grandson, Ryan William Mattox of Amherst, VA; granddaughter, Sylvia L. Newman and her husband, Duane, of Madison Heights, VA; brother, Aucy L. Collier and his family of Good Creek, SC; stepdaughters, Shirley Peterson and Colleen Baker and their families. She was a member of Emmanuel UMC in Amherst, VA, and of #95 Order of the Eastern Star of Plymouth.

Her funeral took place on February 11, 1999, at the Johnson Chapel in Nashville with Dr. John Check officiating. Her body was interred next to that of the Reverend Leon W. Ross in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Just prior to leaving West Halifax Charge, Leon's last post as a retired minister, he was commended by Dr. Ralph Hardee Rives, a member of the Eden Church, who referred to the newly acclaimed day of June 3, 1973, as "Ross Appreciation Day." His words lauded the former minister and his wife: "he and Mrs. Ross have greatly endeared themselves to us. They have become a part of us and our church, our lives and our community are richer today because they came our way."

Although we may not see Anne and Leon Ross today, they are with all of us who knew them - stowaways in our hearts!

Her family was Dorothy's great love. A son, Mark Samuel Clements, was born August 1, 1973. She lived to see him graduate from NC State University in 1997. He now lives and works in Raleigh. Her husband, the Reverend William Earl Clements, whom she married October 13, 1967, is an ordained elder in the NC Conference, and has served NC Conference appointments for over 25 years. Music and writing were other great loves of Dorothy's. She loved to play her piano - especially for her church. She loved her Lord and his Church. Her book of Christian poems, Heard from Heaven, was published in 1986.

Dorothy was loved and will be missed by all who knew her. She can best be described as having the proverbial patience of Job, the wisdom of Solomon, and the tenacity of a bull dog. Through all of her illness she exhibited the love of God to all she met.

DOLORES ROMANOWICZ EARNHARDT

1926 - 1999

Dolores Earnhardt passed to the next life on June 7, 1999. Her passing was quite sudden and unexpected although she was being treated for lung cancer.

A memorial service was conducted on June 12, 1999 in the Edenton UMC in Edenton by the Reverend Rex Brooks.

Survivors are her husband, the Reverend Edwin Lee Earnhardt; daughter, Judy E. Stephens of Raleigh; two sons, Daniel Edwin Earnhardt II of Williamsburg, VA; and Thomas Lee Earnhardt of Raleigh; four sisters, Alice McCormack of Boca Rotan, FL, Jean Roman and Sylvia Jajko, both of Chicago, IL; and Loretta Voyda of Schiller Park, IL; one brother, Chester Roman of Hattiesburg, MS; and three grandchildren, Jennifer Suratt of Greenville, and Matthew and Holly Earnhardt of Williamsburg, VA.

Dolores was born on February 14, 1926, the daughter of Waldesav and Bessie Romanowicz of Chicago, IL. She was married to Ed Earnhardt on October 11, 1947, and they were blessed with three children. Dolores and Ed worked together in the North Carolina Conference churches for 37 years until Ed's retirement in 1989.

This fine lady was 52 years a loving wife, a champion mother of three children, and a champion grandmother of three. She was the best minister's wife any preacher ever had in all the years they served pastorates. She always had a cheerful laugh, never knew a stranger, and was the best cook ever born. She knew and loved every member of her husband's congregations, typed all his sermon notes, prepared his visiting lists, washed, ironed, attended every circle meeting, and worked from sun to sun. She can never, never be replaced!!

The Lord is very fortunate to have her, and she is probably preparing visiting routes for His angels!

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference associate members, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the related statements of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Conference does not compute the cost of postretirement benefits other than pensions nor disclose certain information regarding such costs as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 106 ("SFAS 106") issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Rather, the Conference's policy is to expense such costs as incurred. The effects on the financial statements of these matters are not reasonably determinable.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording the postretirement benefits other than pensions in accordance with SFAS 106 as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Conference is the fundamental body of the United Methodist Church which under Episcopal leadership provides the mechanism for admitting and ordaining clergy, appointing itinerant pastors to churches, and supplying them with mutual support. The Conference is composed of ministerial and lay members and other individuals as required in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church which in an annual meeting defines the programs and responsibilities of the Church as a whole. Included within this report are all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are stated at fair value. Changes in fair value of investments, and both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property and equipment: Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, estimated historical costs were used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other accounting policies: The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds are invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 1998 and 1997 was $1,559,000 and $2,598,000. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 3. Investments

Investments are comprised of the following:

	1998	1997
Certificates of deposit	$ 1,045,102	$ 1,588,493

Other	1,878	1,479
	$ 40,897,475	$ 37,821,650

The Conference's investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents approximately 53 and 57 percent of the unitholder equity of the Foundation at December 31, 1998 and 1997, respectively. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $67,900,000 and $61,200,000 at December 31, 1998 and 1997, respectively, and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Other	8,109	2,768

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981, the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Four defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy and lay staff as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under Episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. The Cumulative Benefit and Pension Fund provides retirement benefits for lay staff of the Annual Conference. Funding in 1998 and 1997 was based on 12% of plan compensation for both plans.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. The Basic Protection Plan provides death and disability benefits for lay staff who participate in the Cumulative Benefit and Pension Fund. Funding in 1998 and 1997 was based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation for both plans.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for the defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 1999, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $385 was $27,902,829. Current expense for prior service liability was $2,354,879 and $2,308,656 for 1998 and 1997, respectively. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Included in accounts receivable was $132,557 and $141,551 due from the Foundation at December 31, 1998 and 1997, respectively.

Board of Missions, Inc.: The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to Churches established in eastern North Carolina. The net amount due to the Board was $47,194, at December 31, 1998 and $190,995 was due from the Board at December 31, 1997, respectively.

Note 8. Contingent Liabilities

The Conference has been named as a defendant in several legal actions which are being vigorously defended. In management's opinion, the ultimate resolution of these actions will not have a materially adverse effect on the Conference's financial position.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders and the Board of Directors of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1998 and 1997, and the results of its operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: United Methodist Foundation, Inc. ("Foundation") was established in 1955 by the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to provide a management-investment pool for long-term and permanent funds of the North Carolina Conference and of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the Church. The Foundation was also established to encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and special ministries of The United Methodist Church and to assist donors in placing their gifts.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities: Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at fair value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Short-term investments are stated at market value. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

General: The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1998 and 1997 were as follows:

	1998	1997
Cost of purchases:
Short-term investments	$ 39,250,918	$ 21,994,797
Other securities	33,696,717	14,147,543
	$ 72,947,635	$ 36,142,340
Proceeds from sale:
Short-term investments	$ 44,172,475	$ 18,483,992
Other securities	26,253,704	11,381,868

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

In 1994, the Foundation established a separate Real Estate fund for a donation of an apartment dwelling in an irrevocable charitable remainder unitrust. Net income from the fund is to be paid to the unitrust recipient until death of the recipient occurs.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and restricted net assets.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $2.73 at December 31, 1998 and $2.55 at December 31, 1997.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the statement of financial position date and the statement of activities for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net assets: Net assets, revenue and expenses, and gains and losses are classified as permanently restricted, temporarily restricted or unrestricted based upon the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. All of the net assets of the Board are classified as unrestricted due to the absence of any donor restrictions.

Cash: The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of investments, including both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statements of activities. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property: Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. Depreciation of its building is computed using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of forty years.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and fair values as of December 31, 1998 and 1997 were as follows:

	1998	1997
Fair value	266,397	14,741

The Board of Missions investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents less than 1 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $67,900,000 at December 31, 1998 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 3. Property

A summary of property is as follows:

	1998	1997
Undeveloped land	$ 849,679	$ 849,679
Land	340,845	340,845
Building	85,210	85,210
	1,275,734	1,275,734
Less accumulated depreciation	15,978	13,848
	$ 1,259,756	$ 1,261,886

The undeveloped land is land held by the Board for future church sites. Included in the undeveloped land is a 13.5 acre tract in the Wake Forest Township of Wake County. The Board of Missions acquired this tract of land by an action of the Charge Conference of the former Morningstar Church to transfer the deed of trust to the Board of Missions along with the corresponding loan against the property. The Board paid off the loan on this property in 1996. The deed was transferred to the Board in 1997.

Note 4. Commitments

As of December 31, 1998, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $528,500 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.
